Music In Ancient Israel Palestine Archaeological Written And Comparative Sources:

Music in Ancient Israel/Palestine Joachim Braun,2001 Music in Ancient Israel/Palestine Joachim Braun,2002 This book contains the first study of the musical culture of ancient Israel Palestine based primarily on the archaeological record. Noted musicologist Joachim Braun explores the music of the Holy Land region of the Middle East tracing its form and development from its beginning in the Stone Age to the fourth century A D. This is not a study of music in the Bible or music in biblical times but a unique in depth investigation of the historical periods and cultures that influenced the music of the region and its people. Braun combines significant archaeological findings musical instruments terra cotta and metal figures etched stone illustrations mosaics with evidence drawn from written mainly biblical texts and anthropological sociological and linguistic sources. The portrait Braun assembles of this past musical world is both fascinating and innovative suggesting a reconsideration of many views long accepted by tradition. Enhanced with numerous illustrations and photographs that bring the archaeological evidence to life this exceptional work will be a valued resource for scholars students and general readers interested in the history of music biblical studies Jewish studies and the cultures of the ancient Near East.

Music in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity John Arthur Smith,2016-04-29 In Music in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity John Arthur Smith presents the first full length study of music among the ancient Israelites the ancient Jews and the early Christians in the Mediterranean lands during the period from 1000 BCE to 400 CE. He considers the physical religious and social setting of the music and how the music was performed. The extent to which early Christian music may have retained elements of the musical tradition of Judaism is also considered. After reviewing the subject's historical setting and describing the main sources the author discusses music at the Jerusalem Temple and in a variety of spheres of Jewish life away from it. His subsequent discussion of early Christian music covers music in private devotion monasticism the Eucharist and gnostic literature. He concludes with an examination of the question of the relationship between Jewish and early Christian music and a consideration of the musical environments that are likely to have influenced the formation of the earliest Christian chant. The scant remains of notated music from the period are discussed and placed in their respective contexts. The numerous sources that are the foundation of the book are evaluated objectively and critically in the light of modern scholarship. Due attention is given to where their limitations lie and to what they cannot tell us as well as to what they can. The book serves as a reliable introduction as well as being an invaluable guide through one of the most complex periods of music history.

The Music of the Most Ancient Nations Carl Engel,2014-12-31 This is the first volume of a series of commented reprints featuring re-discovered music archaeological works from the 1860s to the 1920s which are difficult available but highly relevant for the history of science and contemporary research in the study field. Each volume features the reprinted work and comments by distinguished scholars highlighting and discussing the scholarly achievements in the light of today.

Music in Antiquity Joan Goodnick Westenholz,Yossi Maurey,Edwin Seroussi,2014-04-02 Music was one component of the cultural continuum

Emotions in Late Antiquity: A Study of Fear and Motivation in Roman Military Treatises Łukasz Różycki, 2021-06-22 Battlefield Emotions in Late Antiquity is a pioneering work the first to present a comprehensive analysis of fear and motivation on the battlefields of Late Antiquity By examining military treatises Łukasz Różycki identifies means of manipulating the morale of soldiers on the same and on opposing sides showing various examples of military trickery The book analyzes non combat properties of equipment commanders speeches war cries keeping up appearances and other methods of affecting the human psyche The book is written in the spirit of new military history and combines the methodology of a historian archaeologist and philologist and also considers aspects of psychology particularly related to the functioning of groups and individuals in extreme situations Reading Prophetic Poetry Barbara Bakke Kaiser, 2019-10-08 This volume seeks to guide students in religious or literary studies or other interested readers toward understanding and appreciation of biblical prophetic poetry Each of the three sections of the book includes a chapter examining one of the literary features with brief examples from prophetic texts followed by another chapter of applied criticism of a full prophetic poem Joel 2 on parallelism Jeremiah 4 on voice and Isaiah 24 on design Among the distinct features of the book are diagrams of parallel lines promoting two dimensional binocular reading of the poems Of all the literature of the Bible prophetic poetry has probably been least accessible to the modern reader Language is dense images are obscure and logical development of ideas seems almost inaccessible Reading Prophetic Poetry seeks to help readers appreciate the luminous beauty of the language and the austere power and surprising relevance of the ideas in these relatively obscure biblical texts It introduces an accessible approach to prophetic poetry which invites readers to turn to the biblical texts on their own with new ideas for appreciating the riches of these ancient poems

Family and Household Religion Rainer Albertz, Beth Alpert Nakhai, Saul M. Olyan, Rüdiger Schmitt, 2014-06-06 This volume is the most recent collective contribution of a group of biblical scholars and archaeologists who are engaged in an ongoing debate about the nature of family and household religion in ancient Israel and its environment It is intended to complement the volume Household and Family Religion in Antiquity edited by John Bodel and Saul M Olyan which grew out of a conference held at Brown University in 2005 on household and family religion in the ancient Mediterranean world with an emphasis on cross cultural comparison Several meetings after the Brown conference carried the theme forward and a fourth meeting at Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster in April 2009 emphasized theoretical and methodological challenges facing scholars of household and family religion e g the conceptualization of family household religion the problem of identifying pertinent artifacts and the difficulties inherent in using texts together with material evidence This volume is a direct outgrowth of the Münster meeting For both the meeting and the volume the goal was to bring together a group of specialists in biblical studies epigraphy and archaeology who would utilize a variety of humanistic and social scientific approaches to the data and would also be willing to engage in dialogue and debate during the conference in Münster there was much vigorous intellectual engagement The essays published here reflect the energy of that conference and will contribute both individually and collectively to the advancement of our knowledge of Israelite family and household religion

The Oxford Handbook of Ritual and Worship in the Hebrew Bible Samuel E. Balentine, 2020 The conceit in the title of this volume is that ritual however expansively it may be defined is ineluctably tethered to religion and worship It has a primal connection to the idea that a transcendent order numinous and mysterious supernatural and elusive divine and wholly other gives meaning and purpose to life The construction of rites and rituals enables humans to conceive and apprehend this transcendent order to symbolize it and interact with it to postulate its truths in the face of contradicting realities and to repair them when they have been breached or diminished The focus of this Handbook is on ritual and worship from the perspective of biblical studies particularly on the Hebrew Bible and its ancient Near Eastern antecedents Within this context attention will be given to the development of ideas in Jewish Christian and Muslim thinking but only insofar as they connect with or extend the trajectory of biblical precedents The volume reflects a wide range of analytical approaches to ancient texts inscriptions iconography and ritual artifacts It examines the social history and cultural knowledge encoded in rituals and explores the way rituals shape and are shaped by politics economics ethical imperatives and religion itself Toward this end the volume is organized into six major sections Historical Contexts Interpretive Approaches Ritual Elements participants places times objects practices Underlying Cultural and Theological Perspectives History of Interpretation Social Cultural Functions and Theology and Theological Heritage

Figurines in Achaemenid Period Yehud Izaak J. de Hulster, 2017-12-01 Were there figurines in Yehud during the Achaemenid period and in particular in Jerusalem A positive answer to this question disproves the general consensus about the absence of figurines in Yehud which is built on the assumption that the figurines excavated in Judah Yehud are chronologically indicative for Iron Age II in this area aside from a few typological exceptions Ephraim Stern and others have taken this alleged absence of figurines as indicative of Jewish monotheism's rise Izaak J de Hulster refutes this no figurines monotheism paradigm by detailed study of the figurines from Yigal Shiloh's excavation in the City of David especially their contexts in Stratum 9 providing ample evidence for the presence of figurines in post 587-586 Jerusalem The author further reflects on the paradigm's premises in archaeology history the history of religion theology and biblical studies and particularly in coroplastics figurine studies

Modernity, Minority, and the Public Sphere, 2016-07-18 Modernity Minority and the Public Sphere Jews and Christians in the Middle East explores the many facets associated with the questions of modernity and minority in the context of religious communities in the Middle East by focusing on inter-communal dialogues and identity construction among the Jewish and Christian communities of the Middle East and paying special attention to the concept of space This volume draws examples of these issues from experiences in the public sphere such as education public performance and political engagement discussing how religious communities were perceived and how they perceived themselves Based on the conference proceedings from the 2013 conference at Leiden University entitled Common Ground Changing Interpretations of Public Space in the Middle East among Jews Christians and Muslims in the 19th and 20th Century this volume presents a variety of cases of minority engagement in Middle Eastern society With contributions by T Baarda A Boum S R Goldstein Sabbah A Massot H M ller Sommerfeld H L Murre van den Berg L Robson K Sanchez Summerer A Schlaepfer D Schroeter and Y Wallach
