Music Keynote Of The Human Spirit:

Music Ruth Skaggs, 2004 The person who knows the mystery of sound knows the mystery of the universe Throughout human history music has been a healer of physical emotional and spiritual ills It connects us to our past and guides us as we face the future Music expands human consciousness and provides a safe ground when we feel alienated and lost In Music Keynote of the Human Spirit psychotherapist and musician Ruth Skaggs builds a powerful case for these statements not only from historical and scientific perspectives but also from her observations as a therapist who integrates music into her private practice The author gives concrete examples of how music can expand our consciousness provide oracular guidance heal those who are physically ill or experiencing painful emotional problems fulfill the longing for spiritual awakening and ease the dying process While the book's subject matter is profound it is written in prose that is accessible to the lay reader

Messages from an Illness Ruth Bankester Skaggs, 2013-05-22 When Ruth Skaggs was diagnosed with cancer she recognized that there was a larger purpose at work There were meanings to be gleaned from the illness and she committed herself to learning what truths were waiting to be revealed Using her daily routine of reading Scripture followed by contemplative prayer she was bombarded by messages from God Skaggs explains how the profound insights from the messages helped her to move through the journey from illness to recovery Skaggs shares how she used her knowledge and experience as a licensed professional counselor with specializations in music psychotherapy and expressive arts therapy to complement her medical treatments She provides suggestions that will help others to incorporate music and expressive arts in their own healing journeys In Messages from an Illness Ruth Skaggs first words got my attention and I immediately remembered when I heard my own diagnosis sixteen years ago She and the Spirit moving her led me gently but insistently into the whirlwind of awareness of the all encompassing reality of cancer She leads us into the treatment with its misery and hope and to the special people our doctors and caregivers become for us She reminds us of the blessing of family and friends and the importance of faith even in confusion and protest She tells her story of her journey with this disease and in telling she becomes good company for us when such a journey is ours to make or when it beckons someone we love She tells and walks with us as one whose hands hold the rod and staff even in the valley of the shadow The Reverend S Albert Kennington XV Rector retired Trinity Episcopal Church Mobile AL contributor to Forward Movement The Living Church and the Anglican Digest
