his career with a trio of graphic novels he composed in his eighties Kill My Mother 2014 Cousin Joseph 2016 and The Ghost Script 2018 Back to Black provides the first full length critical analysis of this trilogy exploring how it pays homage to the iconography and themes of film noir through constant graphic experimentation and a striking reinvention of Feiffer's distinctive style Fabrice Leroy shows how Feiffer deftly alternates between dramatic and satirical tones as he plays with the conventions of noir to provide a caustic yet moving commentary on mid twentieth century American life Through close readings of each novel in the trilogy he examines Feiffer's singular depiction of the central political issues in the United States from the Great Depression to the 1950s which still resonate today unionization struggles cinematic propaganda McCarthyism the American Dream immigration antisemitism civil rights and gender discrimination Placing the noir trilogy into the context of Feiffer's long career Back to Black demonstrates how he offers a loving pastiche of the genre without losing his unique voice or critical edge

'Shh! 'Don't Tell'; a True Story of Survival Miriam Moriarty Owens,2011-06-13 My story is one of survival and a true depiction of how from the age of 18 months was physically emotionally and mentally abused From early childhood right up until my early 40s my siblings the courts in Tralee County Kerry Ireland sentenced my sisters Joan and Grace and myself to spend 14 years in Pembroke Alms Industrial School where we were placed in the care of the Sisters of Mercy Little did the courts know that they were sentencing us to 14 years of sheer and utter hell The abuse in Pembroke Alms began when a nun named Sister Enda arrived and became the principal Lacking any sort of sympathy towards children she meted out severe and cruel punishments to children of all ages During our incarceration in Pembroke Alms the only mother figure I had was my sister Joan and it was from there that our close bond grew and we became very attached to each other In 1959 my mother suffered from TB and I was left in the care of my father and grandmother Due to the ISPCCC deeming my father an unfit parent to look after me and my siblings he gave us away From an interview with the author

McClellan's Own Story George B. McClellan, 1998-05 Born in Philadelphia on December 3 1826 George B McClellan graduated from West Point in 1846 before serving in the Mexican War At the start of the Civil War McClellan was put in a position of leadership and after a successful campaign in Virginia he was given command of the Army of Potomac one of the Union s strongest armies He led the Peninsular campaign with almost 100 000 troops under his command marching toward Richmond Although McClellan was a brilliant administrator who possessed good strategic sense the record shows that he was overcautious and consistently overestimated the strength of his adversaries always demanding more men and supplies before undertaking offensive action In 1862 McClellan disagreed with Abraham Lincoln and advanced on Richmond from the east instead of moving directly against the Confederates at Manassas Virginia Although the Union army was successful during the Peninsular campaign their failure to take Richmond the Confederate capital gave the South new motivation Dissatisfied with the campaign and McClellan Lincoln replaced him with Henry W Halleck as commander in chief After the defeat of the Union army in the Second Battle of Bull Run he was again placed in active command of the Army of the Potomac His overcautiousness at the battle of Antietam on September 17 1862 led to a draw instead of a Union victory Because of the heavy Union losses he was again relieved of his command by Lincoln for the duration of the war The Democratic Party nominated McClellan in 1864 as its candidate for president a peace platform but Abraham Lincoln defeated him After serving as governor of New Jersey From 1878 to 1881 McClellan died in Orange New Jersey on October 29 1885
