Nothing Ever Happens To The Brave The Story Of Martha Gellhorn:

Nothing Ever Happens to the Brave Carl Edmund Rollyson, 1990-01-01 The first full scale study of the life of Martha Gellhorn captures her life as a war correspondent who vividly wrote about wars from the Spanish Revolution to Vietnam and Nicaragua as the wife of Hemingway and as an indomitable spirit

Confessions of a Serial Biographer Carl Rollyson, 2016-03-09 Some critics rank biographers just above serial murderers The author of this book a self described member of the Samuel Johnson school doesn't share this view An account of a life he believes should adhere to the truth as the biographer sees it not to the sentiments of others This memoir of a professional biographer's life tells the inside story of how he became interested in his subjects and reveals the mechanics of the trade how to assemble proposals for publishers conduct interviews and archival research and joust with editors subjects and their literary estates Other biographers have described their process but remained discrete not wishing to offend their sources and supporters This author has forgone such caution

Prospects for the Study of American Literature Richard Kopley, 1997-08 What can there possibly be left to say about This common litany resonant both in and outside of academia reflects a growing sense that the number of subjects and authors appropriate for literary study is rapidly becoming exhausted Take heart admonishes Richard Kopley in this dynamic new anthology for this is decidedly not the case While generations of literary study have unquestionably covered much ground in analyzing canonical writers many aspects of even the most well known authors both their lives and their work remain underexamined Among the authors discussed are T S Eliot Ralph Waldo Emerson William Faulkner Harriet Beecher Stowe Walt Whitman Ernest Hemingway Richard Wright Edith Wharton Nathaniel Hawthorne Zora Neale Hurston Henry James Willa Cather Herman Melville Edgar Allan Poe Henry David Thoreau and Mark Twain

Forty-Three Ways of Looking at Hemingway Jeffrey Meyers, 2025-11-18 The multifaceted cubist and comprehensive perspective of Forty Three Ways of Looking at Hemingway appears on the fortieth anniversary of Meyers's magisterial biography of Hemingway This approach has never before been used to illustrate the complexity of his character the range of his interests and the brilliance of his work This authoritative book uses sources in Italian Spanish French and German It reveals his reading of literature and history his transformation of friends into fiction his personal battles and mythic stature his persona and ever growing legend This work analyzes his name and background early work friendships relations with artists connections to contemporary writers description of historical figures and events war reporting military experience life in Cuba links with Hollywood wives and lovers as well as the novels that influenced The Sun Also Rises and the background of The Short Happy Life of Francis Macomber It also considers Hemingway's feasts humor quarrels self condemnation Nobel Prize unwritten works suicide and lasting achievements

Killing the Messenger Herbert N. Foerstel, 2006-03-30 Killing the Messenger reveals the dangerous new face of war and journalism Covering armed conflicts has always been dangerous business but in the past press heroes like Ernie Pyle and Edward R Murrow faced only the danger of random bullets or bombs Today's war correspondent is actually in the cross hairs a target of combatants on all sides of conflicts In their own words correspondents describe the new dangers they face and attempt to explain why they are targeted Killing the Messenger reveals the dangerous new face of war and journalism Covering armed conflicts has always been dangerous business but in the past press heroes like Ernie Pyle and Edward R Murrow faced only the danger of random bullets or bombs Today s war correspondent is actually in the cross hairs a target of combatants on all sides of conflicts In this book correspondents describe the new dangers they face and attempt to explain why they are targeted Is it simply that modern combatants are more brutal than in the past or has journalism changed making correspondents players rather than observers in modern warfare Extended interviews with correspondents who have been abducted and tortured during Middle East conflicts shed chilling light on this new face of war These journalists who have paid dearly to bring first hand images of war to the public offer some surprising insights into the nature and motivation of their kidnappers and the reasons why reporters are targeted They display no self pity and little inclination to blame anyone other than themselves At the same time they are candid in describing the violence within Iraq and without Ways to reduce the risks for reporters are discussed but these editors and correspondents suggest that short of withdrawing into isolated and protected enclaves they may be facing an indefinite escalation of violence against journalists

The Women Who Wrote the War Nancy Caldwell Sorel, 2011-05-15 Here s how a hundred brave American women left their families and entered the combat zone to chronicle what they saw Nancy Sorel s portrait pays homage to these unsung heroes They came from Boston New York Milwaukee and St Louis from Yakima Washington Austin Texas and Sioux City Iowa from San Francisco and all points east They left comfortable homes and safe surroundings for combat zone duty As women war correspondents they brought to the battlefields of World War II a fresh optic and reported back home what they witnessed with a new sensibility Their experience was at once wide ranging and intimate devastating at one moment heartwarming the next In their ranks we encounter world famous photojournalist Margaret Bourke White the only Western photographer to cover the Nazi invasion of the USSR Martha Gellhorn writer and wife of Ernest Hemingway who presciently reported on the menace of fascism The New Yorker s Janet Flanner recording the bleak realities of life in post liberation France and Marguerite Higgins who dared enter the concentration camp at Dachau just ahead of the American army In her graphic seamless narrative Nancy Sorel weaves together the lives and times of these gutsy incomparable women assuring them their rightful place in this century s history

African, American David Peterson del Mar, 2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs s Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey s Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset Reading

Biography Carl Rollyson,2004-11-25 Most book reviewers know very little about the history or the art of biography Indeed if there is any art in biography it is the rare reviewer that acknowledges it or knows how to discuss it Usually the reviewer regards biography as an occasion to wax eloquent about what he or she thinks of the subject Little space if any is devoted to the biography s structure or style to the biographer s peculiar problems or to how the biography relates to others about the same subject Carl Rollyson a professional biographer and weekly columnist On Biography for The New York Sun explores the ramifications of authorized and unauthorized biographies investigates the relationship between biography and history biography and fiction biography and autobiography as well commenting on certain perennial biographical subjects such as Napoleon on sub genres such as children s biography and on the most recent developments in life writing Rollyson s aim is to reach not merely scholars but that vast general audience addicted to reading biography enhancing their pleasure by providing insight or you might say the inside word on how biographies are put together Writing Under the Influence

Aubrey Malone,2017-11-28 Writers and alcohol have long been associated for some the association becomes unmanageable Drawing on rare sources this collection of brief biographies traces the lives of 13 well known literary drinkers examining how their relationship with alcohol developed and how it affected their work for better or worse Focusing on examples like F Scott Fitzgerald Ernest Hemingway Edna St Vincent Millay Charles Bukowski and Raymond Carver the combined biographies present a study of the classic figure of the over indulging author A Historical Guide to Ernest Hemingway Linda Wagner-Martin,2000-01-27 The 1999 Hemingway centennial marks the perfect time for the reevaluation of his position as America s premier modernist writer These essays all written specially for this collection plumb unexplored historical details of Hemingway s life to illuminate new and often unexpected dimensions of the force of his literary accomplishment Discussing biographical details of his personal and professional life along with the subtleties of his character the text includes a number of fascinating photos and images Hemingway and Women Lawrence R. Broer,Gloria

Holland,2002-10-06 Moving from fiction to biography the collection concludes with a group of essays about the real women in Hemingway s life those who cared for him competed with him and ultimately helped to shape his art Living

Dangerously Hans Schoots,2000 Highly prized biography of one of the Netherlands most famous and controversial filmmakers Hoover vs. Roosevelt Hal Elliott Wert,2023-01-01 Herbert Hoover out of office since his defeat in 1932 by

Franklin Roosevelt maintained a strong international reputation due to his achievements as an engineer and his success during World War I and beyond in organizing aid for the starving millions of Europe And yet in nearly all accounts of the ferocious debate over American aid to Europe before the United States entered World War II Hoover s role has been overlooked Hoover vs Roosevelt tells the story of American efforts to stay out of war following the German invasion of Poland

Historian Arthur Schlesinger Jr called it the most savage political debate of my lifetime Both men fiercely disagreed on how to respond but the heart of their disagreement was over aid for the huge numbers of Polish refugees flooding into neighboring countries and those that were left behind Hoover found Roosevelt s policy of limited emergency aid unacceptable countering by rapidly assembling teams comprised of talented people who had served in prior Hoover relief organizations Here for the first time are the courageous stories of those that achieved that success in Romania Hungary and Lithuania When the Soviets invaded Finland on November 30 Hoover assisted the Finns by conducting a Hollywood star studded campaign spearheading nation wide support for this small country But Hoover s relief efforts were complicated by his burning ambition to obtain the Republican presidential nomination a second opportunity to defeat Roosevelt For Roosevelt Hoover s relief successes threatened to derail his limited aid policy which aimed to conserve resources to assist Britain and France and could also cost the president votes Politics aside Hoover wars in the first year of the war succeeded in forcing Roosevelt to provide far more aid then intended Hoover s victory the only one achieved in his battles with Roosevelt accomplished relief for hundreds of thousands in need Widely and deeply researched in an array of rarely used secondary and primary sources both domestic and international Hoover vs Roosevelt reveals the story of the two contenders battles over feeding Europe and going to war

Hemingway's Key West Stuart B McIver, 2013-05-01 The only place in the United States that Hemingway could really call home after he started writing was the tropical island of Key West During his decade here in the 1930s he acquired his famed macho persona as Papa the biggest Big Daddy of them all This vivid portrait of Ernest Hemingway s Key West reveals both Hemingway the writer and Hemingway the macho hard drinking sportsman His Key West years turned out to be his most productive he finished A Farewell to Arms started For Whom the Bell Tolls and wrote several other books including Green Hills of Africa Death in the Afternoon and To Have and Have Not He also turned out some of his best short stories There was plenty of time left over for eating drinking fighting fishing chasing women and hanging out with his circle of friends known as the Mob Hemingway spent the last years of his life in Cuba and it was here he overcame several demons accidents failing health depression to write The Old Man and the Sea for which he won both a Pulitzer and a Nobel Prize in Literature Filled with photos some of which were not available in the first edition this book also includes a two hour walking tour of Key West and a tour of Hemingway s favorite Cuban haunts This edition also includes a record of the author s exploits in Bimini and Cuba Accompany Hemingway on fishing expeditions in the Gulf Stream and to Cuba and Bimini aboard his custom built boat Pilar A treat for Hemingway fans

The Cambridge Companion to Hemingway Scott Donaldson, 1996-01-26 This Companion serves both as an introduction for the interested reader and as a source of the best recent scholarship on the author and his works In addition to analysing his major texts the contributors provide insights into Hemingway s relationship with gender history journalism fame and the political climate of the 1930s The essays are framed by an introductory chapter on Hemingway and the costs of fame and an invaluable conclusion providing an overview of Hemingway scholarship from its beginnings to the present Students will find the selected bibliography a useful guide to future research Contributors include both distinguished established figures and brilliant newcomers all chosen with regard to the clarity and readability of their prose Eyes of the World Marc Aronson, Marina Budhos, 2024-03-26 A multilayered biography of two Jewish photographers who helped bring about modern photojournalism during the Spanish Civil War Robert Capa and Gerda Taro were young Jewish refugees idealistic and in love As photographers they set off to capture their generation's most important struggle the fight against Fascism Among the first to depict modern warfare Capa and Taro took powerful photographs of the Spanish Civil War that went straight from the devastation to news magazines In so doing they helped give birth to the idea of bearing witness through technology to bring home tragedies from across the world Packed with dramatic photos posters and maps this compelling book captures the fascinating story of how photojournalism began This thoroughly researched and documented book can be worked into multiple aspects of the common core curriculum Praise for Eyes of the World A fascinating look at the evolution of photojournalism Readers not only get a strong sense of who these photographers were as people they will understand what made their pictures so special Thoroughly researched and cited the text offers a unique perspective Booklist starred review

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important autobiographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Hemingway and the Spanish Civil War Gilbert H. Muller, 2019-11-01 During the 1930s no event was more absorbing or galvanizing to Ernest Hemingway than the Spanish Civil War Hemingway was passionately devoted to the cause of the democratically elected Spanish Republic and he spent much of the war reporting from its front lines producing a deeply political body of work that illuminated the conflict and presaged the world war to come In the end his immersive journey into the turbulent world of the Spanish Civil War resulted in For Whom the Bell Tolls a landmark in American political fiction This book offers a fresh account of Hemingway's adventures in Spain during the Civil War stressing his embrace of radical political action and discourse in defense of the Republic against the forces of Fascism On the eightieth anniversary of For Whom the Bell Tolls Gilbert H Muller reconsiders Hemingway as an engaged artist political actor and visionary The FDR Years William D. Pederson, 2009 Born in 1882 in New York Franklin Delano Roosevelt entered public service through the encouragement of the Democratic Party and won the election to the New York Senate in 1910 This book details his administration at the height of the Great Depression as he valiantly led the nation with the phrase The only thing we have to fear is fear itself The

World Wars Through the Female Gaze Jean Gallagher, 1998 In The World Wars Through the Female Gaze Jean Gallagher maps one portion of the historicized gendered territory of what Nancy K Miller calls the gaze in representation Expanding the notion of the gaze in critical discourse Gallagher situates a number of visual acts within specific historic contexts to reconstruct the wartime female subject She looks at both the female observer's physical act of seeing and the refusal to see for example a battlefield a wounded soldier a torture victim a national flag a fashion model a bombed city or a wartime hallucination Interdisciplinary in focus this book brings together visual twenty two illustrations and literary texts high and popular expressive forms and well known and lesser known figures and texts
