the typology set up by Gerard Genette but efforts are made to indicate how the Renaissance prologues chart their own prefatory course The Legacy of Muslim Spain Salma Khadra Jayyusi,2021-12-06 The civilisation of medieval Muslim Spain is perhaps the most brilliant and prosperous of its age and has been essential to the direction which civilisation in medieval Europe took This volume is the first ever in any language to deal in a really comprehensive manner with all major aspects of Islamic civilisation in medieval Spain Journal of Hispanic Philology,1991 Cervantine Journeys Steven D. Hutchinson,1992 Hutchinson focuses initially on movement as concept and metaphor affirming its centrality in the conceptualization of all discursive activities He draws on an array of authors including Heraclitus Plato Longinus Rabelais Nietzsche Saussure Frances Yates Kristeva Meschonnic and Deleuze to demonstrate the motion of discourse and of those engaged in it He then turns to Cervantes novels to show how metaphors of movement and travel appearing on nearly every page dominate the conceptualization of the soul the self desire love and life processes Viewing travel as a composite of concurrent modes of experience with differing content and rhythms Hutchinson considers the concept of errancy the nature of place and the traveler s shifting relations with it and the values that travel may have as a motion displacement encounter and goal Of key importance are the means of improvisation developed en route His re examination of Bakhtin s chronotope in light of Cervante s novels reveals the dynamic character of time spaces in which travelers move He shows moreover that unlike typical Renaissance utopias the many worlds of Cervantes novels have the principles of becoming and dissolution inscribed in them Reflecting on the narrative of journeys both as memory and invention Hutchinson concludes with an examination of the relations between travel experience and travel narrative and a discussion of the whereabouts of writers and readers in Cervantes novels The narration of journeys he argues necessitates and encourages improvisatory writing

Sub-versions of the Archive Carlos Riobó,2010-12-29 Sub Versions of the Archive Manuel Puig s and Severo Sarduy s Alternative Identities analyzes recent theories of the archive to examine how Manuel Puig and Severo Sarduy reformulate the Latin American literary tradition This study focuses on eclectic theories of the archive as both repository and danger drawing from an array of sources both within and outside the Hispanic literary tradition from Borges Foucault Arrom Derrida Gonz lez Echevarra and Guillory to digital media and biotechnology This book also applies theories of cultural contamination Maria Lugones and symbolic capital Pierre Bourdieu to the novels of Puig and Sarduy to explore the representation of marginal cultures within a body of literature that previously altered or elided these subaltern cultures from the tradition Through close readings and critical theoretical applications this book demonstrates how archival fiction continues to be one of the most popular strategies among Latin American novelists and most importantly how they have successfully managed to find new ways to inscribe their alternative fictions within this tradition Puig's and Sarduy's novels reproduce discourses popular culture and the mass media that lack prestige within the traditional archive These discourses mirror realities of marginal groups gay people children the poor the illiterate women and racial minorities Their cultural variants sub versions of hegemonic masterstories are endowed with truth bearing power for them but were previously left out of the archive as legitimate novelistic models To date this is the only study of contemporary Latin American fiction that puts current theories of the archive especially that of Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra to practice in such a systematic way Riob's analysis of how Puig and Sarduy reformulate the Latin American canon is both a necessary complement of Gonz lez Echevarra's work and an intelligent answer to the first of his projected masterstories Riob's multidisciplinary approach
