Marxism for Our Times Cyril Lionel Robert James, 1999 Rarely as in the collection here can one encounter an essayist novelist historian and political leader like the late C L R James in the working throes of forming and then fomenting personal political theory In Marxism for Our Times editor Martin Glaberman has gathered the writings and theoretical discussions of this noted Caribbean writer These pamphlets mimeographs letters and lectures by James were nearly inaccessible until now Within these works James works to situate himself within the classical Marxist tradition while rejecting the Vanguard Party as unsuitable for our times The writings in this collection begin in the 1940s when Marxists were wrestling with acts that many deemed betrayals of the revolution Stalin's pact with Hitler and the war in Europe They end in the late sixties just before the dissolution of Facing Reality the final form of the American Marxist organization founded on James's principles For many years James born in Trinidad and Tobago was leader of the Trotskyists in the United States He continued his work even after his exile from America Of great value to scholars of Marxism are the papers in which James examines Marx Lenin and Trotsky and applies their theories to the class conflicts he was witnessing at mid century and to changes he foresaw in the future James argues for the rejection of historical principles and theories and urges Marxists to adapt themselves to changes occurring in capitalism and the working class Glaberman worked alongside James but sometimes disagreed with him in the movement James founded They were close associates for 45 years With Marxism for Our Times Glaberman not only has preserved and made available the political theories of a noted writer but he also has created a window on a turbulent period of optimism and failure a failure Glaberman calls rich in meanings and lessons for anyone interested in a democratic revolutionary Marxism C L R James is the author of the novel Minty Alley and The Black Jacobins the classic history of the Haitian Revolution and many other works Martin Glaberman is a professor emeritus at Wayne State University in Detroit He joined the socialist movement at age thirteen and worked for twenty years in the auto industry and as an active union member

A History of the Jewish People in the Time of Jesus Christ: Two Divisions in Five Volumes Emil Schürer D.D. M.A., Aeterna Press, In the fullness of time the Christian religion sprang out of Judaism as a fact indeed of divine revelation but also inseparably joined by innumerable threads with the previous thousand years of Israel's history. No incident in the gospel story, no word in the preaching of Jesus Christ is intelligible apart from its setting in Jewish history and without a clear understanding of that world of thought. Aeterna Press

The Reporter Who Knew Too Much Donald E. Davis, Eugene P. Trani, 2012-10-05 During his career at the New York Times Harrison Salisbury served as the bureau chief in post World War II Moscow, reported from Hanoi during the Vietnam War and in retirement he witnessed the Tiananmen Square massacre firsthand. Davis and Trani's engaging biography of the two time Pulitzer Prize winning journalist makes use of Salisbury's personal archive of interviews, articles and correspondence to shed light on the personal triumphs and shortcomings of this preeminent reporter and illuminates the twentieth century world in which he lived.

High Frequency Trading and Limit Order Book Dynamics Ingmar Nolte, Mark Salmon, Chris Adcock, 2016-04-14 This book brings together the latest research in the areas of market microstructure and high frequency finance along with new econometric methods to address critical practical issues in these areas of research. Thirteen chapters each of which makes a valuable and significant contribution to the existing literature have been brought together spanning a wide range of topics including information asymmetry and the information content in limit order books, high frequency return distribution models, multivariate volatility forecasting, analysis of individual trading behaviour, the analysis of liquidity price discovery across markets, market microstructure models and the information content of order flow. These issues are central both to the rapidly expanding practice of high frequency trading in financial markets and to the further development of the academic literature in this area. The volume will therefore be of immediate interest to practitioners and academics. This book was originally published as a special issue of European Journal of Finance.
