Nagel, 2014-05-19 Winner of the 2016 NYASA Book Award presented by the New York African Studies Association When students are introduced to the study of diversity and social justice it is usually from sociological and psychological perspectives The scholars and activists featured in this anthology reject this approach as too limiting insisting that we adopt a view that is both transdisciplinary and multiperspectival Their essays focus on the components of diversity social justice and inclusive excellence not just within the United States but in other parts of the world They examine diversity in the contexts of culture race class gender learned ability and disability religion sexual orientation and citizenship and explore how these concepts and identities interrelate The result is a book that will provide readers with a better theoretical understanding of diversity studies and will enable them to see and think critically about oppression and how systems of oppression may be challenged The Blackwell Guide to Feminist Philosophy Eva Feder Kittay, Linda Martín Alcoff, 2008-04-30 The Blackwell Guide to Feminist Philosophy is a definitive introduction to the field consisting of 15 newly contributed essays that apply philosophical methods and approaches to feminist concerns Offers a key view of the project of centering women's experience Includes topics such as feminism and pragmatism lesbian philosophy feminist epistemology and women in the history of philosophy W.E.B. Du Bois Reiland Rabaka, 2017-05-15 Housed in one handy volume for the first time are several of the seminal essays on W E B Du Bois's contributions to sociology and critical social theory from Du Bois as inventor of sociology of race to Du Bois as the first sociologist of American religion from Du Bois as a pioneer of urban and rural sociology to Du Bois as innovator of sociology of gender and culture and finally from Du Bois as groundbreaking sociologist of education and critical criminologist to Du Bois as dialectical critic of the disciplinary decadence of sociology and the American academy What this volume offers that is wholly innovative and distinctive is that it brings together the watershed work of classical and contemporary male and female black and white national and international sociologists and social theorists with the express intent of creating critical inventories and thoroughly interrogating what has been included and what has been excluded when we come to W E B Du Bois's contributions to the discipline of sociology Unlike any other anthologies on Du Bois this volume offers an excellent overview of the critical commentary on arguably one of the most imaginative and innovative perceptive and prolific founders of the discipline of sociology It will therefore be of interest to scholars and students not just in sociology but also Africana studies American studies cultural studies ethnic studies gender studies and postcolonial studies as well as traditional disciplines such as history philosophy political science economics education and religion Applied Ethics Larry May, 2017-07-05 This best selling text continues to fill an existing gap in the literature taught in applied ethics courses As a growing number of courses that include the perspectives of diverse cultures are being added to the university curriculum texts are needed that represent more multicultural and diverse histories and backgrounds This new edition enhances gender coverage as nearly half of the pieces are now authored by women The new edition also increases the percentage of pieces written by those who come from a non Western background It offers twelve up to date articles not found in previous editions on human rights environmental ethics poverty war and violence gender race euthanasia and abortion all of these topics are addressed from Western and non Western perspectives

Intersectional Approach Guidroz Kathleen,Berger Michele Tracy,2010-05-07 Intersectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guide Selves, Persons, Individuals Janice Richardson,2017-03-02 Whilst feminist philosophy has frequently engaged with political theory this original book instead considers legal theory and the practical operation of law The work considers some of the contested meanings of what it is to be a self a person or an individual in relation to the law of obligations The discussion still impacts upon political theory as it concerns the way in which the question of what it is to be a woman has been defined within recent feminist theory In order to overcome what appears to be a block in feminist legal theory the book draws together areas of philosophy which are not normally considered within feminist or legal theory Feminist Perspectives on Law and Theory Janice Richardson,Ralph Sandland,2013-03-04 This collection of essays on feminist legal theory therefore provides an interdisciplinary approach drawn not only from law and philosophy but also from cultural and womens studies

Gendered Futures in Higher Education Becky Ropers-Huilman,2012-02-01 This volume addresses the ways in which gender takes shape in and is shaped by higher education environments Focusing on historical knowledge and contemporary experience the contributors identify several key gender issues affecting students faculty and leaders in higher education They examine such diverse topics as what lessons women s colleges have to offer violence on campus women faculty and part time employment and intersecting identities of race and gender and they apply critical perspectives to suggest needed change While they may not agree on the necessary strategies to improve higher education environments they do agree that those environments are currently deeply and problematically gendered Difference and Discrimination in Psychotherapy and Counselling Sue Marshall,2004-06-22 Prejudice is for good or ill a part of our nature It is instilled in us from birth onwards All we can hope to do is to combat it and the first tool in our armoury must be that of awareness Without this it is very difficult perhaps impossible for the psychotherapist or counsellor to explore how it might be influencing the psychotherapy relationship Sue Marshall has in this book performed a valuable task in that direction and has done in it very cogently in a most difficult area I applaud her Joe Sinclair Nurturing Potential Difference prejudice and discrimination are issues which all counsellors and psychotherapists need to address as part of their personal and professional development Designed to support training on these complex issues Difference Discrimination in Counselling Psychotherapy helps therapists understand the experience of discrimination as well as explore their own often unconscious attitudes to others based on gender sexuality race culture or mental health For most therapists an attitude of acceptance and non judgmentalism is fundamental to their view of practice However in seeking to be non judgmental therapists may run the risk of concealing their own prejudices It is only by facing up to these attitudes and exploring them that therapists are able to fully relate to their clients and help them effectively Synthesising sociological knowledge with her experience of a practitioner Sue Marshall powerfully demonstrates both the importance and the practicalities of developing awareness about difference Difference Discrimination in Counselling Psychotherapy offers a straightforward approach to some of the most difficult issues relating to practice making it an ideal text for use in training and for qualified therapists continuing their professional development "I Could Not Speak My Heart" University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 This anthology of 19 articles documents the pain misunderstanding that lesbian gay bisexual transgendered people have experienced in the very recent past and demonstrates the real progress both in theory in practice that has been made in the struggle for equity social justice The articles include autobiography testament fiction poetry and traditional personal analytic essays from authors with different intellectual perspectives human rights social reform human justice feminist liberationist and queer theory
