Scandalous Bodies Smaro Kamboureli, 2011-04-07 Scandalous Bodies is an impassioned scholarly study both of literature by diasporic writers and of the contexts within which it is produced It explores topics ranging from the Canadian government s multiculturalism policy to media representations of so called minority groups from the relationship between realist fiction and history to postmodern constructions of ethnicity from the multicultural theory of the philosopher Charles Taylor to the cultural responsibilities of diasporic critics such as Kamboureli herself Smaro Kamboureli proposes no neat or comforting solutions to the problems she addresses Rather than adhere to a single method of reading or make her argument follow a systematic approach she lets the texts and the socio cultural contexts she examines give shape to her reading In fact methodological issues and the need to revisit them become a leitmotif in the book Theoretically rigorous and historically situated this study also engages with close reading not the kind that views a text as a sovereign world but one that opens the text in order to reveal the method of its making Her practice of what she calls negative pedagogy a self reflexive method of learning and unlearning of decoding the means through which knowledge is produced allows her to avoid the pitfalls of constructing a narrative of progress Her critique of Canadian multiculturalism as a policy that advocates what she calls sedative politics and of the epistemologies of ethnicity that have shaped for example the first wave of ethnic anthologies in Canada are the backdrop against which she examines the various discourses that inform the diasporic experience in Canada

Scandalous Bodies was first published in 2000 and received the Gabrielle Roy Prize for Canadian Criticism

What is Africanness Contesting nativism in race culture and sexualities by Charles Ngwena 2018 ISBN 978 1 920538 82 8 Pages 306 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available

About the publication What is Africanness Contesting nativism in culture race and sexualities by Charles Ngwena Professor of Law at the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria is a peer reviewed monograph aiming to contribute to the ongoing scholarly conversation in and beyond South Africa about who is African and what is African It aims to implicate a reductive sameness in the naming of Africans nativism by showing its teleology and effects and offers an alternative understanding of how Africans can be named or can name themselves The book develops an epistemology for constructing the hermeneutics of Africanness today long after the primal colonial moment and its debasing racialising ideology It interrogates the making of Africa in colonial discourses and the making of an African race and African culture s and sexuality ies in ways that are not just historically conscious but also have a heuristic capacity to contest nativism from the outside as well as from within The arguments in this book go beyond problematising African identity by addressing an existential gap in theory for explicating African social identity The book develops an interpretive method a hermeneutics for locating and deciphering African identifications in ways that are historically conscious and conjunctural The hermeneutics look to the present and the future in addition to the past so that African identifications are not nailed to a mast but remain invested with mobility and the capacity to mutate radically and make new and unexpected beginnings

Comments Charles Ngwena s timely and original book is a wonderful read rich in theory and insight and an essential companion for those interested in exploring the multiplicity of histories cultures and subjectivities that constitute the diversity of Africanness and African identities Professor Cathi Albertyn School of Law University of the Witwatersrand Editor South African Journal on Human Rights This is a brilliant exploration of liberating and affirming ways to speak of African identities and sexualities reminding us there can be creative beauty where pain and dispossession have resided Rudo Chigudu Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This is a masterpiece Not only does the author capture the discourse and debates on Africanness he aptly examines them before offering his views on decentring the race of Africanness with the important recognition of Africa as land of diverse identifications Prof Serges Djouyou Kamga Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute UNISA
