Race and Education Primer Aaron David Gresson, 2008 The Race and Education Primer introduces its topic as perspective policy and pedagogy It provides a thematic introduction to the guiding beliefs and major practices in the field with a special emphasis on critical recurring themes These include race and intelligence the education gap teacher education and cultural competence Approaching race and education in global context the primer covers topics of interest to both novice and advanced students A glossary and suggested readings and resources add to the volume s value for students new to the field

Race Education/training John F. Coffey, 1976      What Makes Racial Diversity Work in Higher Education Frank W. Hale, 2023-07-03 A unique reference describing successful diversity initiatives in higher education Higher education like the nation is facing major demographic changes Our colleges and universities recognize they not only have to be more inclusive but that they have to provide an environment that will effectively retain and develop the growing population of ethnically and racially diverse students How ready are they and what should they be doing Frank W Hale Jr known as the Dean of Diversity for his pioneering efforts in establishing Ohio State as one of the institutions graduating the most Black Ph D s has gathered twenty two leading scholars and administrators from around the country who describe the successful diversity programs they have developed Recognizing the importance of diversity as a means of embracing the experiences perspectives and expertise of other cultures this book shares what has been most effective in helping institutions to create an atmosphere and a campus culture that not only admits students faculty and staff of color but accepts and welcomes their presence and participation This is a landmark reference for every institution concerned with inclusivity and diversity The successes it presents offers academic leaders much they can learn from and ideas and procedures they can adapt as they discuss and develop their own campus policies and initiatives Contributors Samuel Betances Donald Brown Carlos E Cort s Myra Gordon Linda S Greene Frank W Hale Jr Margaret N Harrigan William B Harvey Freeman A Hrabowski III Lee Jones William Brit Kirwan Paul Kivel Antoinette Miranda Jo Ann Moody Leslie N Pollard Neil L Rudenstine William E Sedlacek Mac A Stewart M Rick Turner Clarence G Williams Raymond A Winbush      Making Education Work for the Poor William Elliott, Melinda Lewis, 2018-07-03 Making

Education Work for the Poor identifies wealth inequality as the gravest threat to the endangered American Dream Though studies have clearly illustrated that education is the primary path to upward mobility today educational outcomes are more directly determined by wealth than innate ability and exerted effort This accounting directly contradicts Americans understanding of the promise the American Dream is supposed to offer a level playing field and a path towards a more profitable future In this book the authors share their own stories of their journeys through the unequal U S education system One started from relative privilege and had her way to prosperity paved and her individual efforts augmented by institutional and structural support The other grew up in poverty and had to fight against currents to complete higher education only to find his ability to profit from that degree compromised by student debt To directly counter wealth inequality and make education the great equalizer that Americans believe it to be this book calls for a revolution in financial aid policy from debt dependence to asset empowerment The book examines the evidence base supporting Children s Savings Accounts including CSAs demonstrated potential to improve children s outcomes all along the opportunity pipeline early education school achievement college access and completion and post college financial health It then outlines a policy that builds on CSAs to incorporate a sizable progressive wealth transfer This new policy Opportunity Investment Accounts is framed as the cornerstone of the wealth building agenda the nation needs in order to salvage the American Dream Written by leading CSA researchers the book includes overviews of the major children s savings legislation proposed in Congress and the key features of prominent CSA programs in operation around the country today as well as new qualitative and quantitative CSA research The book ultimately presents a critical development of the theories that together explain how universal progressive asset based education financing could make education work equitably for all American children      Education, Work and Social Change R. Simmons,R. Thompson,L. Russell,2014-06-17 Drawing on a longitudinal study of the lives of NEET young people this book looks beyond dominant discourses on youth unemployment to provide a rich detailed account of young people s experiences of participation and non participation on the margins of education and employment highlighting the policy implications of this research      Race, Education and Educational Leadership in England Paul Miller,Christine Callender,2019-04-18 In recent years the issue of race in education in the UK have been submerged in wider discourses of diversity leading to an invisibility of the quotidian experiences of marginalised peoples in educational institutions Race Education and Educational Leadership in England looks at how the experiences of black and ethnic minority BME students and academics in education has changed and investigates how the implementation of current policies on race equality are being monitored by the government The contributors take an integrated approach looking at issues and themes that occur across all educational phases in England and draw on expertise from within and outside the education system The editors highlight areas of weakness and good practice in access curriculum progression and the lived experience This book makes a compelling argument for why race equality matters in England s education system      Microaggressions and Social Work Research, Practice and Education Michael S. Spencer,2020-09-10 While blatant forms of racism and discrimination have largely been condemned in our society systematic oppression and racism can be manifested in a less obvious form as microaggressions The term originally developed in the 1970s by Chester Peirce to describe the ways in which Black people were put down by their White counterparts has since been expanded to describe both conscious and unconscious acts that reflect superiority hostility and racially inflicted insults and demeanors to marginalized groups of people This book provides a platform for social work researchers scholars and practitioners to present their research ideas and practices pertaining to ways in which microaggressions and other subtle but lethal forms of discrimination impact marginalized populations within social work and human services Contributors discuss the impact of microaggressions in social work as they relate to race gender and gender expression sexual orientation class and spirituality The book also examines curriculum pedagogy and the academic climate as targets for intervention in social work education This book was originally published as a series of special issues of the Journal of Ethnic and Cultural Diversity in Social Work      Race, Gender, And Discrimination At Work Samuel Cohn,2019-05-20 Race Gender and Discrimination at Work is a review of the determinants of wage and employment discrimination by firms against minorities and women Aimed at sociology undergraduates the book assumes no pre existing social scientific knowledge Downplaying family and cultural factors in favour of an analysis of the roles played by organizational      People of Color in the United States Kofi Lomotey,Pamela Braboy Jackson,Muna Adem,Paulina X. Brown,2016-10-17 This expansive four volume ready reference work offers critical coverage of contemporary issues that impact people of color in the United States ranging from education and employment to health and wellness and immigration People of Color in the United States Contemporary Issues in Education Work Communities Health and Immigration examines a wide range of issues that affect people of color in America today covering education employment health and immigration Edited by experts in the field this set supplies current information that meets a variety of course standards in four volumes Volume 1 covers education grades K 12 and higher education volume 2 addresses employment housing family and community volume 3 examines health and wellness and volume 4 covers immigration The content will enable students to better understand the experiences of racial and ethnic minorities as well as current social issues and policy The content is written to be accessible to a wide range of readers and to provide ready reference content for courses in history sociology psychology geography and economics as well as curricula that address immigration urbanization and industrialization and contemporary American society      The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education P. Stevens,A. Dworkin,2014-01-22 This comprehensive state of the art reference work provides the first systematic review to date of how sociologists have studied the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality over the last thirty years in eighteen different national contexts      Neoliberalism, Gender and Education Work Sarah A. Robert,Heidi Pitzer,Ana Luisa Muñoz García,2019-12-18 How does neoliberalism in the education field shape who teachers are and what they can be What are the effects of neoliberal logic on students How is gender at the core of what it means to teach and learn in neoliberal educational institutions Neoliberalism Gender and Education Work examines the everyday labour of educating in a variety of contexts in order to answer these questions in new and productive ways Neoliberal ideals of standardisation accountability and entrepreneurialism are having undeniable effects on how we define teaching and learning Gender is central to these definitions with care work and other forms of affective labour simultaneously implicated in standards of teacher quality and undervalued in metrics of assessment Gathering research from across four continents and education settings ranging from elementary school to higher education to popular social movements the methodologically diverse case studies in this book offer insight into how teachers and students negotiate the intertwined logics of neoliberalism and gender Beyond an indictment of contemporary institutions Neoliberalism Gender and Education Work provides inspiration with its documentation of the creative practices and selfhoods emerging in the cracks of the neoliberal ideological apparatus It was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education

The Education of Black Males in a 'Post-Racial' World Anthony L. Brown, Jamel K. Donnor, 2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education

Guidelines For Racial Education Julius Evola, 2025-09-19 The Lateran Pacts of 1929 masked a struggle between fascism and the Catholic Church over control of youth education Mussolini aimed to shape ideologically loyal citizens while Pope Pius XI defended the Church's traditional role in youth formation The Opera Nazionale Balilla ONB founded in 1926 sought to educate Italian youth physically morally and ideologically ONB's goals included loyalty to Mussolini nationalism physical fitness paramilitary training and moral education In 1937 it merged into the Giovent Italiana del Littorio GIL further reducing the Church's influence over youth Evola's 1941 Indirizzi per una educazione razziale was a practical manual promoting fascist racial ideology inseparable from its historical and educational context The author's concern with youth formation as highlighted in the Foreword justifies the change in title from The Elements of Racial Education 2005 to Guidelines for Racial Education a thoroughly revised edition of the former The author's concern with youth formation emphasised in the Foreword justifies the change in title from The Elements of Racial Education 2005 to Guidelines for Racial Education a thoroughly revised edition of the earlier work
