Racial Conflict Discrimination And Power Historical And Contemporary Studies:

Racial Conflict, Discrimination, & Power William Barclay, Krishna Kumar, Ruth Simms Hamilton, 1976 Critical Pedagogy and Race Zeus Leonardo, 2009-02-09 Critical Pedagogy and Race argues that a rigorous engagement with race is a priority for educators concerned with equality in schools and in society A landmark collection arguing that engaging with race at both conceptual and practical levels is a priority for educators Builds a stronger engagement of race based analysis in the field of critical pedagogy Brings together a melange of theories on race such as Afro centric Latino based and postcolonial perspectives Includes historical studies and social justice ideas on activism in education Questions popular concepts such as white privilege color blind perspectives and race neutral pedagogies White Supremacy and Racism in the Post-civil Rights Era Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2001 Is a racial structure still firmly in place in the United States White Supremacy and Racism answers that question with an unequivocal yes describing a contemporary system that operates in a covert subtle institutional and superficially nonracial fashion Assessing the major perspectives that social analysts have relied on to explain race and racial relations Bonilla Silva labels the post civil rights ideology as color blind racism a system of social arrangements that maintain white privilege at all levels His analysis of racial politics in the United States makes a compelling argument for a new civil rights movement rooted in the race class needs of minority masses multiracial in character and focused on attaining substantive rather than formal equality Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World The American Dream Harold Bloom, Blake Hobby, 2009 Provides an examination of the American dream in classic literary works Education and Social Development , 2008-01-01 The role of education in the development of societies is an important life perspective that is promoted by families institutions and governments In today's globalized world this reality may presume a worldwide platform where what is termed knowledge societies could gain at the expense of the educationally less endowed There is also the case where postcolonial systems of education in Africa Asia Latin America and other places did not lead to the expected social and technological progress that was promised with independence The 17 chapters in this volume attempt to analyze these complex and interlinked contexts of education and development The book contains important criticisms of the historical developments of education the meanings and changing intersections of development schooling citizenships and their exclusions and the important interplays of globalization knowledge culture and languages Beyond the theoretical focus the book examines learning systems and possibilities in specific regions and countries of the world These include Africa with a specialized focus on women's education and advancement as well as individual country studies on Ghana Burkina Faso Zimbabwe and Somalia In the Asian context the specific chapters analyze the training of teachers in China and women's education and education and the caste system in India These are complemented by select treatments of education and social development in Chile in South America postcolonial post communist Europe Russia and the Caribbean region Together the book's contents should selectively respond to some of the most important social and educational development ideas and debates in our world today

African American Religion Hans A. Baer, 2024-07-31 Now in an updated second edition African American Religion remains an invaluable overview of the great diversity of religious groups within the modern African American community This plethora of forms reflects a tension that has characterized African American religion since its beginnings a tension between accommodation to and protest against white society's domination Viewing African American sectarianism as a response to racism and social stratification in the larger society the authors trace the history beliefs social organization and ritual content of religious groups in four types of sects These include the Black mainline churches messianic nationalist sects such as the Nation of Islam conversionist sects such as the Holiness Pentecostal groups and Primitive Baptists and thaumaturgical sects including the Spiritual churches For this new edition the authors have incorporated research that has appeared since the book's original appearance in 1992 and have added two new chapters African Religious Healing and Folk Medicine and African American Sacred Music because of these topics enormous significance to the African American religious experience

The Empowering Impulse Glenford D. Howe, Don D. Marshall, 2001 The book makes available data on the Barbadian nationalist enterprise with the hope that it will stimulate more research by other historians social scientists and social commentators on the issues addressed in the work

Decolonizing Democratic Education, 2008-01-01 The essays in this edited collection open up a hopeful dialogue about the existing state of democratic education and the ways in which it could be reimagined as an inclusive democratized space of possibility and engagement Proceeding from a critique that questions the dominance of Western liberal understandings of democratic education as a series of rational culturally neutral acts undertaken by individuals who conceive of democracy and the common good in universalist and fundamentally exclusionary terms the contributors give voice to those whose ideas histories cultures and current understanding of the world is not highlighted in the dominant relationships of schooling From a variety of theoretical and pragmatic approaches the chapters in this collection engage the dialectics of history power colonization and decolonization identity memory citizenship Aboriginal rights development and globalization all in the context of providing a critique of educational systems relations structures and curricula that seem badly in need of reform While the contributors who have diverse scholarly interests are not in a direct dialogue with one another their different foci should nevertheless intertopically inform each other The book should interest students and researchers in the general foundations of education democracy and education citizenship education comparative and international education postcolonial studies in education and cultural studies in education
