Prendergast, 2001-06 This is a comprehensive look at the Irish in Northern California from 1835 to 1900 Filled with anecdotes and insider history this book is a unique piece of California history The title Forgotten Pioneers embodies only half a truth in its application to the subject those early settlers in the wilderness of California men of Irish birth or ancestry who contributed lavishly toward laying the foundations of a new commonwealth on the Pacific It is the purpose of this book to reinstate in the rank where they belong some at least of these overlooked men whose character and achievement entitle them to the highest place in the respect and esteem of the people Nevada Place Names Helen S. Carlson, 1974-01-01 Author and researcher Helen Carlson spent almost fourteen years searching for the origins of Nevada's place names using the maps of explorers miners government surveyors and city planners and poring through historical accounts archival documents county records and newspaper files The result of her labors is Nevada Place Names a fascinating mixture of history spiced with folklore legend and obscure facts Out of print for some years the book was reprinted in 1999 The Small Window Linda Teigland Clark, 2008-06 Pa taught his family that God will not shut a door without opening a window He said it was God's Way of leading His Children And during hard times Pa added that it was the North wind that made the Vikings What he didn't tell Laurin his 17 year old daughter was how small and difficult getting through that window might be or how long and strong that North wind might blow It was 1848 Pa followed his dream he was taking his family to the Promised Land a land called California Laurin like her father dreamed big until tragedy struck When cholera claimed the lives of her parents and older brothers in the Humboldt Sink she had to find that window set her own sail against that staunch wind Only she remained to do it She had to find a way not just to survive the trek over the Sierra and into California but to survive once they arrived It wasn't for herself but for her younger brother age 7 and sister age 4 they were her responsibility their future their very lives depended upon her They couldn't go back there was no back She loved them she had to find a way
