Situation and Outlook Series, 1993 Highlights of U.S. Export and Import Trade United States. Bureau of the Census, 1984 Migration and Agriculture Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta, 2016-07-28 In recent years Mediterranean agriculture has experienced important transformations which have led to new forms of labour and production and in particular to a surge in the recruitment of migrant labour The Mediterranean Basin represents a very interesting arena that is able to illustrate labour conditions and mobility the competition among different farming models and the consequences in terms of the proletarianization process food crisis and diet changes Migration and Agriculture brings together international contributors from across several disciplines to describe and analyse labour conditions and international migrations in relation to agri food restructuring processes This unique collection of articles connects migration issues with the proletarianization process and agrarian transitions that have affected Southern European as well as some Middle Eastern and Northern African countries in different ways The chapters present case studies from a range of territories in the Mediterranean Basin offering empirical data and theoretical analysis in order to grasp the complexity of the processes that are occurring This book offers a uniquely comprehensive overview of migrations territories and agro food production in this key region and will be an indispensable resource to scholars in migration studies rural sociology social geography and the political economy of agriculture The Western Saharans Virginia Thompson, Richard Adloff, 2025-08-01 Since the Spanish withdrawal from their Saharan colonies in 1975 a determined guerrilla war was fought against the Moroccans by the Polisario who claimed the territory as their rightful country This war which also involved Mauritania threatened to involve Morocco and Algeria in open conflict and could lead to a much more serious conflict within the Arab World First published in 1980 The Western Saharans looks at the background to the conflict and provides a comprehensive economic political and social portrait of the key constituents Mauritania the Spanish Sahara Morocco and the Polisario Front This book will be of interest to students and researchers of politics and history Western Sahara Damien Kingsbury, 2018-02-02 As the Spanish were preparing to leave colonized Western Sahara in 1975 Morocco invaded sparking a war with the Western Saharan Polisario Front About 70% of Western Sahara was occupied by Morocco which stations up to 140 000 soldiers in the territory primarily along a 1700 kilometre long sand berm that is protected by one of the world s largest fields of landmines In 1991 Morocco and the Polisario Front agreed to a truce ahead of a referendum on Western Sahara s future However Morocco has since refused to allow the referendum to take place and has begun the extensive exploitation of Western Sahara s non renewable natural resources This has both highlighted the plight of the Saharawi people who live in refugee camps in Algeria and in occupied Western Sahara and pushed the Polisario Front back to a position where it is openly canvassing for a return to war This book was originally published as a special issue of Global Change Peace and Security Africa's Progress in Regional and Global Economic Integration - Towards Transformative

Regional Integration Achim Gutowski, Tobias Knedlik, Patrick N. Osakwe, Isabelle Ramdoo, Karl Wohlmuth, 2016 Based on Africa's deep rooted structural problems the key aspect of a transformative regional integration is how to promote structural transformation by adapted strategies and policies for the African regional economic communities for the Continental Free Trade Area and for the Tripartite Free Trade Area Regional integration in Africa is based on a conventional linear model starting with trade preference zones and moving to free trade areas customs unions and monetary and economic zones with the ultimate goal to reach political unity Specific problems of a more transformative regional integration agenda are discussed such as food security and agriculture industry development enterprise growth and competition and economic partnership agreements with extra regional partners In the final section the impact of three global value chains of importance for Africa diamonds shea butter and sesame are considered on regions on sub regions and on regional integration Series African Development Perspectives Yearbook Vol 18 Subject African Studies Economics Economic Development E. Wayne Nafziger, 2012-03-26 Nafziger explains the reasons for the recent fast growth of India Poland Brazil China and other Pacific Rim countries and the slow yet essential growth for a turnaround of sub Saharan Africa The book is suitable for those with a background in economics principles The fifth edition of the text written by a scholar of developing countries is replete with real world examples and up to date information Nafziger discusses poverty income inequality hunger unemployment the environment and carbon dioxide emissions and the widening gap between rich including middle income and poor countries Other new components include the rise and fall of models based on Russia Japan China Taiwan Korea and North America randomized experiments to assess aid an exploration of whether information technology and mobile phones can provide poor countries with a shortcut to prosperity and a discussion of how worldwide financial crises debt and trade and capital markets affect developing countries AF Press Clips ,1982 Aid for Trade at a Glance 2009 Maintaining Momentum OECD, World Trade Organization, 2009-07-15 This aid for trade monitoring report examines trends and developments presenting a comprehensive analysis of donor and partner country engagement In addition it addresses the regional dimension and provides fact sheets that help in assessing the outcomes and impacts Fertilizer Abstracts ,1972
