Adlard Coles, 1981 Cruising World, 1982-07 Sailing Years Kaines Adlard Coles, 1981 Dogfish Memory Joseph A. Dane, 2012-07-18 The Maine dogfish are gone fished to the brink of extinction Gone too is Linda Jane and with her the love and the subjunctive Maine that they might have shared And what of that fabled Old Maine Is it gone for good Written as a sailing chronicle Dogfish Memory is the story of the search for an authentic Maine a Maine of the past whether historical or simply imagined and a Maine of the present one experienced by both permanent residents and seasonal ones summerfolk Joseph Dane is both He has worked on commercial fishing boats as a local and he has sailed the coast for years like those who are from away Dogfish Memory tells the story of how his often conflicting Maines are intertwined Authentic Maine is elusive stories and even photographs of a past Maine often contradict the memories of those who have lived through the changes they record Dogfish Memory is thus the story of loss the loss of a Maine recalled and imagined and the loss of the love with which Maine is irrevocably associated A Star to Sail Her By Alex Ellison, 2012-12-17 In 2003 casting their fortunes and their lives to the wind the Ellison family embarked on what they thought would be a one year voyage on their forty seven foot sloop Promise Five years and more than 25 000 nautical miles later the family of four returned to the United States and dry land In this memoir author Alex Ellison chronicles his familys adventures on the seas Culled from a detailed daily journal that Ellison began keeping at the onset of the voyage when he was just eight years old A Star to Sail Her By reveals his transition from enthusiastic child to capable sailor and reflective young adult He learned two important lessons as they traveled from port to port not everything always works the way it should and change is really the only thing you can count on A Top 5 Book Pick Yachting Magazine A Star to Sail Her By is sure to entertain and inspire people who dream of adventure Jennifer Castle editor PBSkids Ellisons earnest genuine style is reminiscent of Robin Grahams in Dove In crafting a twenty first century bildungsroman at sea with a tender family spin hell leave you positively envious Richard King PhD professor of literature of the sea Williams College A terrific tale of an unbelievable upbringing Clint Grantberry KLIF Dallas TX In and of itself this memoir of a 25 000 nautical mile voyage is informative entertaining and eye opening That a high school student wrote it is astounding Meredith Laitos editor SAIL Sailing and Social Class Alan O'Connor, 2024-04-23 This book explores the sociology of sailing and yachting Drawing on original research and employing a theoretical framework based on the work of Pierre Bourdieu the book argues that sailing is still an upper middle class activity that has much to tell us about the wider sociology of leisure and sport The book examines the historical foundations of blue water sailing as established by naval and colonial shipping to trace the roots of contemporary sailing and yachting culture It also examines archives of sailing narratives and cruising guides as well as the children s books of Arthur Ransome arguing that this archival material offers a social rather than a psychological interpretation of the bodily investment in sailing The book uses Bourdieu

s concepts of illusio an investment of time emotion and body into a worthwhile activity and habitus or lifeworld alongside contemporary data sets to examine the yacht club as a social institution including why many boats never go out on the water the relationship between yacht clubs and the state and social issues as manifested in yacht clubs such as sexism racism and homophobia Offering a vigorous sociological critique of yachting and sailing this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of leisure and sport subcultures social theory or social issues in wider society Uncommon

Courage Julia Jones, 2022-03-17 An extraordinary account of heroism and sacrifice An unexpected and important story rivetingly told Rip roaring stuff Get this into the paws of the sea dog in your life Griff Rhys Jones A book that had to be written Let's Talk People ashore don't realise what a grim war we are waging at sea with the Germans A cold blooded war in a way I think requiring the maximum of bravery from the men of both sides in the long run as it is so ceaseless and intangible You just don't know whether the next moment will be your last Robert Hichens RNVSR Several years ago Julia Jones was searching through long forgotten items stored at her house and discovered some suitcases of old written material which turned out to be accounts by her father of his experiences in the RNVSR Royal Naval Volunteer Supplementary Reserve She realised that as a child she'd met some of the people mentioned and although she was too young to truly know them these youthful impressions spurred her on to rediscovery and understanding In this absorbing book Julia tells the compelling stories of the yachtsmen Some were famous such as Sir Peter Scott others were wealthy such as August Courtauld who returned his pay to help with the war effort but the majority were just ordinary professionals such as publishers lawyers and advertising agents who signed up because they loved sailing Few could ever have dreamed that they would end up acting in areas that were so far beyond their normal lives as they found themselves commanding destroyers and submarines and undertaking covert missions of sabotage Some undertook the dangerous daily drudgery of minesweeping others tackled unexploded bombs engaged the enemy in high speed attacks or played key roles in Ian Fleming's famous intelligence commandos This varied crew of men were given tasks vital to the war effort requiring endurance extraordinary bravery resourcefulness and quick thinking Some died in the process but for the ones who survived Julia asks how their experiences changed them Could their love of sailing and the sea survive the harsh realities of war Making Men in the Age of Sail

Graeme J. Milne, 2024-06-15 Myths and stereotypes surrounding seafarers in the Age of Sail persist to this day Sailors were celebrated for their courage strength and skill yet condemned for militancy vice and fecklessness As sail gave way to steam sailing ship mariners became nostalgic symbols of maritime prowess and heritage representing a timeless heroic masculinity in an era when the modernizing industrial world was challenging assumptions about gender class work and society Drawing on British seafaring memoirs from the late nineteenth century Making Men in the Age of Sail argues that maritime writing moulded the reading public's image of the merchant seaman Authors chronicled their lives as they grew from boy sailors to trained seafarers telling colourful tales of the men they worked with most never doubted that the sailing ship had made them better men Their testimony reinforced and preserved conservative perspectives on seafaring manhood as Britain's economic and technological priorities continued to evolve in the new steamship age Offering a gender analysis of the image of the seafarer Making Men in the Age of Sail brings the history of British sailors into wider debates about modernity and masculinity
