Saints Lives And Illuminations:

Saints ,2003 Provides brief stories from the lives of forty Christian saints of the first millenium More Saints Ruth Sanderson,2007 Provides brief stories from the lives of thirty six Christian saints of the second millennium Medieval Saints' Lives Emma Campbell,2008 The significance of Old French hagiography in current theoretical debates in medieval studies and the humanities Contending that the study of hagiography is significant both for a consideration of medieval literature and for current theoretical debates in medieval studies this book considers a range of Old French and Anglo Norman texts using modern theories of kinship and community to show how saints lives construe social and sexual relations Focusing on the depiction of the gift kinship and community the book maintains that social and sexual systems play a keyrole in vernacular hagiography Such systems along with the desires they produce and control are it is argued central to hagiography s religious functions particularly its role as a vehicle of community formation In attempting to think beyond the limits of human relationships saints lives nonetheless create an environment in which queer desires and modes of connection become possible suggesting that in this case at least the orthodox nurtures the queer This book thus suggests not only that medieval hagiography is worthy of greater attention but also that this corpus might provide an important resource for theorizing community in its medieval contexts and for thinking it in the present EMMA CAMPBELL is Associate Professor of French at the University of Warwick Saints' Lives in Middle English Collections Anne B Thompson,Robert K Upchurch,E Gordon Whatley,2005-04-01 This volume is conceived as a complement to another Middle English Texts series text Sherry Reames Middle English Legends of Women Saints This selection is intended to be broadly representative of saints lives in Middle English and of the classic types of hagiographic legend as these were presented to the lay public and less literate clergy of late medieval England Illuminating the Vitae patrum Denva Gallant,2024-04-30 During the fourteenth century in Western Europe there was a growing interest in imitating the practices of a group of hermits known as the Desert Fathers and Mothers Laypeople and religious alike learned about their rituals not only through readings from the Vitae patrum Lives of the Desert Fathers and sermons but also through the images that brought their stories to life In this volume Denva Gallant examines the Morgan Library s richly illustrated manuscript of the Vitae patrum MS M 626 whose extraordinary artworks witness the rise of the eremitic ideal and its impact on the visual culture of late medieval Italy Drawing upon scholarship on the history of psychology eastern monasticism gender and hagiography Gallant deepens our understanding of the centrality of the Desert Fathers and Mothers to late medieval piety She provides important insights into the role of images in making the practices of the desert saints both compelling and accessible to fourteenth century city dwellers who were just beginning to cultivate the habit of private devotion on a wide scale By focusing on the most extensively illuminated manuscript of the Vitae patrum to emerge during the trecento this book sheds new light on the ways in which images communicated and reinforced modes of piety It will be of interest to art historians religious historians and students focusing on this period in Italian history

Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children s faith This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children s faith formation including our day to day interactions with children the images of God we share with them how we pray together the rituals we create service opportunities we provide music we share together the stories we tell and listen to our celebration of the sacraments and more While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience Lastly but perhaps most importantly this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children s relationship with is one who is infinitely loving welcoming and always yearning for deeper connection with us
