Scallop Studies Of A Shell Its Influen:

The Scallop Ian Herbert Cox, 1957 Bivalve Molluscs Elizabeth Gosling, 2008-04-15 Bivalve Molluscs is an extremely comprehensive book covering all major aspects of this important class of invertebrates. As well as being an important class biologically and ecologically, many of the bivalves are fished and cultured commercially, e.g. mussels, oysters, scallops, and clams in a multi-billion dollar worldwide industry. Elizabeth Gosling, who has a huge wealth of research, teaching, and hands-on experience working with bivalves, has written a landmark book that will stand for many years as the standard work on the subject. Chapters in Bivalve Molluscs cover morphology, ecology, feeding, reproduction, settlement, and recruitment, growth, physiology, fisheries, aquaculture, genetics, diseases, and parasites, and public health issues. A full understanding of many of these aspects is vital for all those working in bivalve fisheries and culture. An essential purchase for anyone concerned with this important class of animals. Copies of Bivalve Molluscs should be on the shelves of biologists, ecologists, environmental scientists, fisheries scientists, and personnel within the aquaculture industry. Copies of the book should be available in all libraries and research establishments where these subjects are studied or taught. Elizabeth Gosling is based at the Galway Mayo Institute of Technology, Galway, Ireland.

Giorgio Vasari's Teachers Liana Cheney, 2007 This book examines the artistic, cultural, and historical influence of Giorgio Vasari's teachers, mentors, and patrons on his sacred and profane paintings. As a Maniera artist, Vasari learns to admire and assimilate the art of the ancient masters. With the guidance of Dante's literary writings and Marsilio Ficino's Neoplatonic philosophy, Vasari reveals a moral and didactic vision in his art. Additionally, Vasari's artistic patronage is influenced by the political views of Niccolò Machiavelli. In the integration of both ancient art and myths with the didactic legacy of biblical figures and moral personifications, Vasari manifests his artistic theory and symbolism in his sacred and profane paintings.

Bones and Identity Nimrod Marom, Reuven Yeshuran, Lior Weissbrod, Guy Bar-Oz, 2016-07-31 Seventeen papers demonstrate how zooarchaeologists engage with questions of identity through culinary references, livestock husbandry practices, and land use. Contributions combine hitherto unpublished zooarchaeological data from regions straddling a wide geographic expanse between Greece in the West and India in the East, and spanning a time range from the latest part of the Palaeolithic to the Middle Ages. The vitality of a hands-on approach to data presentation and interpretation, carried out primarily at the level of the individual site, the arena of research, providing the bread and butter of zooarchaeological work conducted in southwest Asia, is demonstrated. Among the themes explored are shifting identities of late hunter-gatherers through interactions with settled agrarian societies; the management of camp sites by early complex hunter-gatherers; processes of assimilation of Roman culinary practices among Egyptian elites; and the propagation of medieval pilgrim identity through the use of seashell insignia. A wealth of new data is discussed, and a wide variety of applications of analytical approaches are applied to particular case studies within the framework of social and contextual zooarchaeology. The volume constitutes the proceedings of the 11th meeting of the ICAZ Working Group.

Archaeozoology of Southwestern Asia and Adjacent Areas ASWA The Scallop; Studies of a Shell and Its Influence on Humankind, by Eight Authors Ian Cox (Ed),1957 Marine Fisheries Review ,2009 The Biology of the Mollusca R. D. Purchon,2013-10-22 Reviews the most important literature on the functional morphology and natural history of molluscs over a period of half a century from 1925 to the present day and draws extensively upon authoritative papers published mostly in the English language in a large number of international journals during this period By these means it is hoped to provide an anthology of what is most interesting in the literature in a number of selected topics Appendices give some practical assistance for the dissection of selected examples The Visual Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity Mark D. Ellison,2023-12-11 This study examines third and fourth century portraits of married Christians and associated images reading them as visual rhetoric in early Christian conversations about marriage and celibacy and recovering lay perspectives underrepresented or missing in literary sources Historians of early Christianity have grown increasingly aware that written sources display an enthusiasm for asceticism and sexual renunciation that was far from representative of the lives of most early Christians Often called a silent majority the married laity in fact left behind a significant body of work in the material record Particularly in and around Rome they commissioned and used such objects as sarcophagi paintings glass vessels finger rings luxury silver other jewellery items gems and seals that bore their portraits and other iconographic forms of self representation This study is the first to undertake a sustained exploration of these material sources in the context of early Christian discourses and practices related to marriage sexuality and celibacy Reading this visual evidence increases understanding of the population who created it the religious commitments they asserted and the comparatively moderate forms of piety they set forth as meritorious alternatives to the ascetic ideal In their visual rhetoric these artifacts and images comprise additional voices in Late Antique conversations about idealized ways of Christian life and ultimately provide a fuller picture of the early Christian world Plentifully illustrated with photographs and drawings this volume provides readers access to primary material evidence Such evidence like textual sources require critical interpretation this study sets forth a careful methodology for iconographic analysis and applies it to identify the potential intentions of patrons and artists and the perceptions of viewers It compares iconography to literary sources and ritual practices as part of the interpretive process clarifying the ways images had a rhetorical edge and contributed to larger conversations Accessibly written The Visual Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity is of interest to students and scholars working on Late Antiquity early Christian and late Roman social history marriage and celibacy in early Christianity and early Christian Roman and Byzantine art Dictionary Catalog of the Department Library United States. Studies in Ancient Technology Robert James Forbes,1955 Seashells of Southern Florida Paula M. Mikkelsen,Rüdiger Bieler,2021-11-09 Located where the Atlantic Ocean Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean Sea converge the Florida Keys are distinctive for their rich and varied marine fauna The Keys are home to nearly sixty taxonomic families of bivalves such as clams and mussels roughly half the world's bivalve family diversity. The first in a series of three volumes on the molluscan fauna of the Keys and adjacent regions, Seashells of Southern Florida Bivalves provides a comprehensive treatment of these bivalves and also serves as a comparative anatomical guide to bivalve diversity worldwide. Paula Mikkelsen and Rüdiger Bieler cover more than three hundred species of bivalves including clams, scallops, oysters, mussels, shipworms, jewel boxes, tellins, and many lesser-known groups. For each family, they select an exemplar species and illustrate its shell and anatomical features in detail. They describe habitat and other relevant information and accompany each species account with high-resolution shell photographs of other family members. Text and images combine to present species to family-level characteristics in a complete way never before seen. The book includes fifteen hundred mostly color photographs and images of shells, underwater habitats, bivalves in situ, original anatomical and hinge drawings, scanning electron micrographs, and unique transparent shell illustrations with major organ systems color-coded and clearly shown. Seashells of Southern Florida Bivalves is the most complete guide to subtropical bivalves available. It is an essential tool for students and teachers of molluscan diversity and systematics and an indispensable identification guide for collectors, scuba divers, naturalists, environmental consultants, and natural resource managers.

The Great Mosque of Damascus Finbarr Flood, 2021-07-26. The celebrated Great Mosque of Damascus was built in the early eighth century by the Umayyad caliph al-Walid b. Abd al-Malik. This book provides a detailed study of this mosque. Using textual, visual, and archaeological evidence, the author attempts to reconstruct some of the basic formal and decorative features of the Umayyad mosque to locate it within its broader urban context and to consider its role within al-Walid's unprecedented programme of architectural patronage. The work explores the intracultural and intercultural functions of religious architecture within an official visual discourse intended to project a distinctive Muslim identity in a manner determined by Umayyad political aspirations. It will be of particular interest to those concerned with the relationship between the Umayyad caliphate and Byzantium. "Architecture and Pilgrimage, 1000-500" Deborah Howard, 2017-07-05. Although there is an obvious association between pilgrimage and place, relatively little research has centred directly on the role of architecture. Architecture and Pilgrimage 1000-1500 Southern Europe and Beyond synthesizes the work of a distinguished international group of scholars. It takes a broad view of architecture to include cities, routes, ritual topographies, and human interaction with the natural environment, as well as specific buildings and shrines, and considers how these were perceived, represented, and remembered. The essays explore both the ways in which the physical embodiment of pilgrimage cultures is shared and what we can learn from the differences. The chosen period reflects the flowering of medieval and early modern pilgrimage. The perspective is that of the pilgrim journeying within or embarking from Southern Europe, with a particular emphasis on Italy. The book pursues the connections between pilgrimage and architecture through the investigation of such issues as theology, liturgy, patronage, miracles, and healing, relics, and individual and communal memory. Moreover, it explores how pilgrimage may be regarded on various levels.
