The Frankenstein of 1790 and Other Lost Chapters from Revolutionary France Julia V. Douthwaite,2024-05-31 The French Revolution brings to mind violent mobs the guillotine and Madame Defarge but it was also a publishing revolution more than 1 200 novels were published between 1789 and 1804 when Napoleon declared the Revolution at an end In this book Julia V Douthwaite explores how the works within this enormous corpus announced the new shapes of literature to come and reveals that vestiges of these stories can be found in novels by the likes of Mary Shelley E T A Hoffmann Honor de Balzac Charles Dickens Gustave Flaubert and L Frank Baum Deploying political history archival research and textual analysis with eye opening results Douthwaite focuses on five major events between 1789 and 1794 first in newspapers then in fiction and shows how the symbolic stories generated by Louis XVI Robespierre the market women who stormed Versailles and others were transformed into new tales with ongoing appeal She uncovers a 1790 story of an automaton builder named Frankenstein links Baum to the suffrage campaign going back to 1789 and discovers a royalist anthem's power to undo Balzac's Prosper Mérimée Bringing to light the missing links between the ancien régime and modernity The Frankenstein of 1790 and Other Lost Chapters from Revolutionary France is an ambitious account of a remarkable politico-literary moment and its aftermath

Lost Artefacts from Medieval England and France Katherine Baker, 2022 Contemporary descriptions of objects no longer extant examined to reconstruct these lost treasures Surviving accounts of the material culture of medieval Europe including buildings boats reliquaries wall paintings textiles ivory mirror cases book bindings and much more present a tantalising glimpse of medieval life hinting at the material richness of that era However students and scholars of the period will be all too familiar with the frustration of trying to piece together a picture of the past from a handful of fragments The material turn has put art architecture and other artefacts at the forefront of historical and cultural studies and the resulting spotlight on the material culture of the past has been illuminating for researchers in many fields Nevertheless the loss of so much of the physical remnants of the Middle Ages continues to thwart our understanding of the period and much of the knowledge we often take for granted is based on a series of arbitrary survivals The twelve essays in this book draw on a wide array of sources and disciplines to explore how textual records from the chronicles of John of Worcester and Matthew Paris and inventories of monastic treasuries and noble women to Beowulf and early English riddles when combined with archaeological and art historical evidence can expand our awareness of artistic and cultural environments Touching on a broad range of issues around how we imaginatively reconstruct the medieval past and a variety of objects both precious and ephemeral this volume will be of fundamental interest to medieval scholars whatever their disciplinary field Contributors Katherine Baker Marian Bleeker Deirdre Carter Laura Cleaver Judith Collard Joshua Davies Kathryn Gerry Karl Kinsella Katherine A Rush Katherine Weikert Beth Whalley Victoria Yuskaitis
