Sympathy Parille examines the affective nature of mother daughter and mother son bonds emphasizing the special difficulties that boy nature posed for women The fourth chapter uses boys conduct literature and Louisa May Alcott s Little Women the preeminent chronicle of girlhood in the century to investigate not only Alcott s fictional representations of shame centered discipline but also pervasive cultural narratives about what it means to be a man Focusing on works by Lydia Sigourney and Francis Forrester the final chapter considers arguments about the effects that fictional historical and biographical narratives had on a boy s sense of himself and his masculinity Boys at Home is an important contribution to the emerging field of masculinity studies In addition this provocative volume brings new insight to the study of childhood women s writing and American culture Ken Parille is assistant professor of English at East Carolina University His articles have appeared in Children s Literature Tulsa Studies in Women s Literature Papers on Language and Literature and Children s Literature Association Quarterly
