Ben Lewis, 2019-06-25 An epic quest exposes hidden truths about Leonardo da Vinci s Salvator Mundi the recently discovered masterpiece that sold for 450 million and might not be the real thing In 2017 Leonardo da Vinci s small oil painting the Salvator Mundi was sold at auction In the words of its discoverer the image of Christ as savior of the world is the rarest thing on the planet Its 450 million sale price also makes it the world s most expensive painting For two centuries art dealers had searched in vain for the Holy Grail of art history a portrait of Christ as the Salvator Mundi by Leonardo da Vinci Many similar paintings of greatly varying quality had been executed by Leonardo s assistants in the early sixteenth century But where was the original by the master himself In November 2017 Christie s auction house announced they had it But did they The Last Leonardo tells a thrilling tale of a spellbinding icon invested with the power to make or break the reputations of scholars billionaires kings and sheikhs Ben Lewis takes us to Leonardo s studio in Renaissance Italy to the court of Charles I and the English Civil War to Amsterdam Moscow and New Orleans to the galleries salerooms and restorer s workshop as the painting slowly painstakingly emerged from obscurity The vicissitudes of the highly secretive art market are charted across six centuries It is a twisting tale of geniuses and oligarchs double crossings and disappearances in which we re never quite certain what to believe Above all it is an adventure story about the search for lost treasure and a quest for the truth

Praise for The Last Leonardo The story of the world's most expensive painting is narrated with great gusto and formidably researched detail in Ben Lewis's book Lewis's probings of the Salvator's backstory raise questions about its historical status and visibility and these lead in turn to the fundamental question of whether the painting is really an autograph work by Leonardo Charles Nicholl The Guardian As the art historian and critic Ben Lewis shows in his forensically detailed and gripping investigation into the history discovery and sales of the painting establishing the truth is like nailing down jelly Michael Prodger The Sunday Times Condé Nast's Traveler ,2000 Library Journal ,1999 Cave Paintings to Picasso Henry M. Sayre,2004-08-26 From prehistoric paintings to Andy Warhol's works this book pairs full color reproductions of 50 of the world's most celebrated masterpieces with brief kid accessible stories about how they were made who made them and where they fit in the fascinating world of art A Representation of Nationhood in the Museum Sang-hoon Jang,2020-01-20 A Representation of Nationhood in the Museum examines how the National Museum of Korea as a national repository of material culture and the state's premier exhibition facility has shaped and been shaped by Korean nationalism Exploring the processes by which the museum has discovered and interpreted material culture using concepts of ethnic nationalism in the historical and political contexts of South Korean society the book analyses how this nationalist interpretation has regulated South Koreans understanding of their material culture Issues considered include cultural and political relations with China Japanese colonial rule cultural imperialism and its legacy the division of Korea since 1945 the Korean War and nation building since liberation in 1945 and domestic political upheavals including military coups in 1961 and in 1979 Demonstrating that authoritarian regimes emphasis on the promotion of national unity drove national museums to establish national identity through material culture Jang argues that international political and diplomatic factors also affect the process of the formation of national identity in a specific political context Concerning itself with issues such as the relationship between politics and identity museums and authoritarian regimes this book should be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in museum studies nationalism studies Asian studies and history departments LIFE ,1971-01-08 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Art Museums of the World [2 Volumes] Virginia Jackson,1987-03-25 An authoritative reference work that lists more than 200 selected museums in countries from Afghanistan to Zaire This set responds to the need for a work that offers serious researchers scholarly articles on the history and collections of the world's major museums Choice This volume will be of great use to scholars for the valuable and frequently difficult to obtain information it provides including facts about museum libraries and the availability of slides and photographs Not only will it be a wonderful reference tool for researchers but it also makes fascinating reading for the armchair traveler Highly recommended Library Journal Landers

Film Reviews ,1987 Museum Masters Edward P.
