Frankenstein, 2009-09-01 A dynamic guide to more than 100 books that will get kids talking and reading more How do children become good readers In Reading

Together educational consultant Diane W. Frankenstein shares the secret guiding children to find an appropriate book and talking with them about the story helps them connect with what they read. This engaging guide shares advice for parents, teachers, librarians, and caregivers on how to help children find what to read and then through conversation how to find meaning and pleasure in their reading. With more than 100 great book recommendations for kids from Pre-K through grade six as well as related conversation starters, Reading Together offers a winning equation to turn children into lifelong readers. Some of the award-winning books discussed include Betty G. Birney's World According to Humphrey, Jennifer Choldenko's Notes from a Liar, and Her Dog, and David Shannon's Bad Case of Stripes.      How to Get Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01 Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher-recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips.      The Integrated Curriculum Anthony D. Fredericks, 1998-09-15 Expanding literature beyond the covers of a single book into every facet of the curriculum from reading, language arts to math, social studies, music, physical education, and science and health, this volume is truly a celebration of reading. Thirty-five high-quality books selected on the basis of interest level and application to the needs of reluctant readers are presented with critical thinking questions, activities, and a host of other energizing ideas for the reading program. From making wind socks and tree diaries to raising tadpoles and brine shrimp, Guidelines for motivating students and encouraging active participation introduce the concepts and methodology of this exciting approach. Demonstrating the power and beauty of literature, it stimulates the perception of reading not only as a requisite part of every course and every subject but as a natural and normal part of every student's life. Grades 2-5      Children on Playgrounds Craig H. Hart, 1993-01-01 This book focuses on key issues and current research evidence of links between children's behavior in outdoor play environments and children's development. Specific attention is given to ways that outdoor play environments are extensions of other development settings like the classroom or family. Since most work up to this point has focused on development in indoor classroom settings or in other developmental contexts, this book makes an important contribution.      The Librarian's Complete Guide to Involving Parents Through Children's Literature Anthony D. Fredericks, 1997-06-15 Getting parents to participate in their child's education is easy with these take-home reproducibles. This book provides a single source guide to selected reading and extension activities for grade levels K-6. Each activity sheet includes a summary of a book, discussion questions, and a list of engaging learning projects for adults and children. The activities are designed to increase discussion, build reading skills, and develop comprehension. More than 100 titles of quality children's literature are featured. Teachers will love this unique way to promote reading, and it's great PR for the library. A must for school and public libraries.      Teaching Phonemic Awareness through Children's Literature and Experiences Nancy A.
