Birdsall, 2020-10-06 A Finalist for the 2022 James Beard Foundation Cookbook Award Writing The definitive biography of America's best known and least understood food personality and the modern culinary landscape he shaped In the first portrait of James Beard in twenty five years John Birdsall accomplishes what no prior telling of Beard's life and work has done He looks beyond the public image of the Dean of American Cookery to give voice to the gourmet's complex queer life and in the process illuminates the history of American food in the twentieth century At a time when stuffy French restaurants and soulless Continental cuisine prevailed Beard invented something strange and new the notion of an American cuisine Informed by previously overlooked correspondence years of archival research and a close reading of everything Beard wrote this majestic biography traces the emergence of personality in American food while reckoning with the outwardly gregarious Beard's own need for love and connection arguing that Beard turned an unapologetic pursuit of pleasure into a new model for food authors and experts Born in Portland Oregon in 1903 Beard would journey from the pristine Pacific Coast to New York's Greenwich Village by way of gay undergrounds in London and Paris of the 1920s The failed actor turned Manhattan canap hawker turned author and cooking teacher was the jovial bachelor uncle presiding over America's kitchens for nearly four decades In the 1940s he hosted one of the first television cooking shows and by flouting the rules of publishing would end up crafting some of the most expressive cookbooks of the twentieth century with recipes and stories that laid the groundwork for how we cook and eat today In stirring novelistic detail The Man Who Ate Too Much brings to life a towering figure a man who still represents the best in eating and yet has never been fully understood until now This is biography of the highest order a book about the rise of America's food written by the celebrated writer who fills in Beard's life with the color and meaning earlier generations were afraid to examine Manly Meals and Mom's Home Cooking Jessamyn

Appetite for Life Noel Riley Fitch,1999-04-13 Describes the life and career of the French chef and television personality from her wealthy childhood in California and married years in France to her successful cooking show in the United States

The United States of Arugula David Kamp,2007-07-17 The wickedly entertaining hunger inducing behind the scenes story of the revolution in American food that has made exotic ingredients celebrity chefs rarefied cooking tools and destination restaurants familiar aspects of our everyday lives

Amazingly enough just twenty years ago eating sushi was a daring novelty and many Americans had never even heard of salsa Today we don't bat an eye at a construction worker dipping a croissant into robust specialty coffee city dwellers buying just picked farmstand produce or suburbanites stocking up on artisanal cheeses and extra virgin oils at supermarkets

The United States of Arugula is a rollicking revealing stew of culinary innovation food politics and kitchen confidences chronicling how gourmet eating in America went from obscure to pervasive and became the cultural success story of our era

The Gourmands' Way Justin Spring,2024-03-26 The French effect on six food and wine writers including Julia Child M F K Fisher Alexis Lichine A J Liebling Richard Olney and Alice B Toklas During les trente glorieuses a thirty year boom period in France between the end of World War II and the 1974 oil crisis Paris was not only the world's most delicious stylish and exciting tourist destination it was also the world capital of gastronomic genius and innovation

The Gourmands Way explores the lives and writings of six Americans who chronicled the food and wine of the glorious thirty paying particular attention to their individual struggles as writers to their life circumstances and ultimately to their particular genius at sharing awareness of French food with mainstream American readers

In doing so this group biography also tells the story of an era when America adored all things French The group is comprised of the war correspondent A J Liebling Alice B Toklas Gertrude Stein's life partner who reinvented herself at seventy as a cookbook author M F K Fisher a sensualist and fabulist storyteller Julia Child a television celebrity and cookbook author Alexis Lichine an ambitious wine merchant and Richard Olney a reclusive artist who reluctantly evolved into a brilliant writer on French food and wine

Together these writer adventurers initiated an American cultural dialogue on food that has continued to this day Justin Spring's The Gourmands Way is the first book ever to look at them as a group and to specifically chronicle their Paris experiences

A literary meal both luscious and lively and essential to understanding our vacillating love affair with the French
