Love Letters To Remember:

The Love Letters of Victor Hugo, 1820-1822 Victor Hugo,1900 I Remember Esther L. Megill,2016-09-30 I

Remember is a unique collection of unforgettable memories from the lives of United Methodist deaconesses and missionaries who have served all across the United States and in many countries around the world Some tell of spiritual experiences that were deeply personal others of how they saw lives transformed One describes her escape just as Mao s forces advanced another of an attempted abduction of a bishop in Borneo and yet another of her luncheon with members of the PLO A fascinating read Betty J Letzig deaconess ret Letter to Aisha and Other Stories Okoro, Dike,2016-06-13 These stories portray life as instances of change under a canopy of love avarice determination redemption and triumph They are all vignettes of life in certain realistic and ephemeral ways Okoro portrays realism and illusion as two sides of a coin which inevitably propel us into fantasy and awareness The stories have a certain speed They seem to move and confront us with certain vagaries of life We enjoy these vagaries even when they occur unexpectedly as in The Cross Bearer where we find out that the person falsely accused of impregnating a girl was finally released when the real culprit was discovered In Boma s Wedding the plight of someone unknowingly falling in love and wanting to marry her own father becomes a kind of puzzle a certain tragedy of errors so to speak The fact that in most of the stories the environment is Port Harcourt Nigeria makes it homely for Nigerian readership The reader of these short stories will also enjoy the candor the humor and the wit inherent in them particularly when the story stops to delve into a dream sequence and finally back into the actual story mode The metaphorical intention of the author agrees with the literary symbolism of each short story This is a delight Oladipo Kalejaiye PhD Head of Department Theater Art Culture Lead City University Ibadan Nigeria The Mother-Daughter Book Club
