elusive tang of sea salt in the heart of the prairie even the water of baptism that rebirths the believer The uplifting lure of water as with a pair of honeymooners in Venice may inspire a love eager to divorce anything impeding its energy Our state of being might mirror water's when everything's in flux repeated spasms of wake and wave bright sun reflecting pool surges made up of intricate detail The waves of music like those of water are also prominent in the musings of this collection where that which rises and returns approaches music a blessing beyond sound These are masterfully crafted poems of uncommon inspiration and they overwhelm with a celebration and longing for that which ebbs or flows inside us PRAISE FOR SEA LEVEL RISING Sea Level Rising is about a lot of things all in some way the same mystery why we love tidal waters why we feel a kinship with the pulse and ebb of time and emptiness why we feel most alive when we stand at the fractal edges of perception why the singing of a good poem evokes all those correspondences we can't help loving John Philip Drury's new poems will please many and please often as he celebrates and with mastery the inexhaustible waters before and within each of us Dave Smith author of Hawks on Wires Poems 2005 2010 With candor and a close eye Drury introduces us to a world of love and literature nostalgia and new experiences a world where water pervades everything a constant and comforting reminder that what we depend on is like us also always in flux Drury is deft at numerous forms with a delicate touch You can become so swept up in a poem you may not recognize it as a sonnet until you reach its resounding couplet but the beauty of the form the force of its rhymes and the rapture of their song has resonated since the opening lines and in all the energy that follows That's the wonder of this collection the film of beauty tides that keep on rising as Drury writes Sea Level Rising is an amazing achievement It should not be missed Erica Dawson author of The Small Blades Hurt John Philip Drury is a Marylander it makes all the difference The ever changing sea defines these poems Drury explores impermanence destiny the future love fame desire anchored by a rock solid formal mastery Land and sea interpenetrate here loom up fall away transmuting one into the other a way of seeing His favorite city is Venice a perfect metaphor for a sensibility too large to be only one thing or its opposite The masks and play of that ancient meeting place of land sky and sea divert us from the serious business of its survival and that might be a good way to describe Drury's art In impermanence through our art we survive James Cummins author of Still Some Cake Love's Looking Glass Henry Charles Beeching, John William Mackail, Bowyer Nichols, 1891 F.L. Griggs, 1876-1938 Jerrold Northrop Moore, 1999 F L Griggs was universally acclaimed as one of the finest etchers of his time An influential figure in British Romantic art Griggs's work links that of Turner Blake and Samuel Palmer with the Neo Romantics Graham Sutherland and John Piper Written with great passion and skill this scholarly and detailed account of Griggs's life and work fills an important gap Collier's, 1917 Read This When Things Fall Apart Kelly Hayes, 2025-11-04 From the co author of Let This Radicalize You a collection of letters to inspire activists to continue the fight Organizers are well seasoned in defeat We study movement histories strategize collectively and gather strength in direct action knowing that liberation does not arrive overnight but that the fight is worth it But what happens when political and personal crises overlap and the despair becomes overwhelming Where do we turn when the process of organizing no longer feels like a site of refuge but isolating or even tragic Read This When Things Fall Apart is a collection of letters written to organizers in crisis who are struggling with the conflicts heartbreaks and catastrophes that activists so often experience From grief to exhaustion fractured relationships state violence and interpersonal violence the struggle for justice can be tumultuous Each letter invites the reader to the writer s particular world in abortion defense organizing within prison walls recuperating from state repression after the 2020 uprisings or as a new parent struggling to find their way in movement spaces and offers an authentic account of moving through difficult times Personal reflective and hopeful Read This When Things Fall Apart is a new type of book for radicals that harnesses the writers individual moments of despair into living breathing wisdom capable of chipping away at the supposed inevitability of fascist life Restorative like a letter from a trusted friend and invigorating like a story from a mentor the book is an indispensable companion for all of us navigating the challenging times ahead

Sexuality and Eroticism in a Post-pandemic World ,2023-09-20 The cultural change denominated as the new normal goes far beyond the adaptation to habits like physical distancing limited person to person contact teleworking and self isolation established with the COVID 19 pandemic A series of significant transformations in human behavior spreads today in societies all around the world physical intimacy decreases while virtual reality expands and alterity declines while artificial intelligence emerges leading to structural reconfigurations of sex relationships gender awareness and subjectivity Sexuality and Eroticism in a Post pandemic World explores this new cultural atmosphere through twelve interdisciplinary essays questioning global governmentality and challenging the biopolitics of the new normal the administration of self control societies so politically correct that repressed desire for otherness only finds a simulation of its satisfaction with the forced abnormality outrageousness and violence of mainstream porn going from ars erotica to alternative pornography from online dating to gender fluidity from LGBTQI activism to sex life cultivation and more
