Love In The Age Of Confusion:

Love in the Age of Reptiles Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2021-03-26 First came the time storm which erased half the population Then came the Dinosaur Apocalypse How did it all begin Well that depends on where you were and who you ask In some places it started with the weather which quickly became unstable and began behaving in impossible ways In still others it started with the lights in the sky which shifted and pulsed and could not be explained Elsewhere it started with the disappearances one here a few there but increasing in occurrence until fully three quarters of the population had vanished Either way there is one thing on which everyone agrees it didn't take long for the prehistoric flora and fauna to start showing up often appearing right where someone was standing in which case the two were fused spliced amalgamated It didn't take long for the great Time displacement called the Flashback which was brief but had aftershocks like an earthquake to change the face of the earth Nor for the stories some long and others short some from before the maelstrom and resulting societal collapse and others after to be recorded Collected herein are the stories in which Love mattered From Love in the Age of Reptiles There were six of them as I said all of whom rushed us the instant our feet touched the ground All of whom snarled and charged us like wolverines as we raised our weapons and fired the flare gun cracking and hissing blanching the scarlet haze for the sun had painted everything red and gold its projectile punching through one of the raptors chests and lighting it up so that its ribs were backlit briefly and I could see if only for an instant its burning beating heart Yet still they came another one leaping at me even as I dropped the gun which clattered against the planks as I dropped it and grabbed the thing by its neck then brought the knife down with my other hand and stabbed it between the eyes Run I shouted even as Amanda shot another her second and then bolted toward the shore drawing the others so that I was able to snatch up the flare gun and quickly reload it so that I was able to pursue them and to shoot one in the back while Amanda turned and took out the last of them shooting it in the head so that the back of its skull exploded like a spaghetti dinner thrown against the wall so that it collapsed writhing about 10 feet in front of her whereupon she quickly approached it and shot it again just to be sure And then she looked at me as the dead and dying animals lay all around us and I looked back our chests heaving our faces covered in sweat our worn clothes bloody and disheveled and I knew that she knew which was that today we were the predators the thing needing to be feared the killers And that neither of us needed to worry not about food or other predators or mysterious lights in the sky or anything Because we were the masters of our fate we and no one else not even God And we were the master of the world's fate too At which she ran to me and we collided and I held her fast there on the long jetty in the Atlantic Ocean in the Bermuda Triangle there beneath a day moon and the blood red sky in an instant in which it was good so very good not to be afraid not to be alone And as to what may or may not have happened in those breaths those pulse points between that moment and the next the next day the next search the next milestone as to that I offer only a quote from Gandhi Speak only if it improves upon the silence Love in the Age of the Internet Linda Cundy, 2018-05-16 This highly topical book explores the new technological environment we have created and our adaptation to it twenty five years after the death of John Bowlby In the space of just a couple of decades the world has changed radically and we are changing too personal computers and smartphones mediate our lives work play and love Relationships of all kinds are now conducted through mobile phones email Skype and social network sites Attachment theory is concerned with the impact of the external world on internal reality where twenty first century experiences encounter the powerful primitive and ancient instinct for attachment and survival This book is written by psychotherapists whose practice with individual adults and couples is informed by attachment theory It contains theoretical observational and clinical material and will be relevant to all psychotherapists psychoanalysts counsellors and psychologists interested in the profound impact of digital and communication technologies on human relationships

Love in the Age of Dragons Fatima R. Henson,2025-07-30 Two years ago a wormhole opened and ushered vicious dragons into the world The dragons burned Earth s cities to the ground and sent its inhabitants scattering for cover and since then Ayanna Grace a seventeen year old Black girl has been scratching out a life in an abandoned subway system part of an extensive underground community Underground medicine runs short and outbreaks of disease spread uncontrollably The water supply is low uprisings occur frequently and dragon attacks are imminent But those aren t the only challenges Ayanna is facing she s also busy wrestling with her feelings torn between Richard who she s known all her life and Jackson a mysterious newcomer Worse her mentor the community s only doctor is dying from a failing heart With no hope of rescue from aboveground will Ayanna be able to save him before it s too late

Costly Love John H. Armstrong,2018-06-30 John Armstrong knows from personal experience how easy it is to put too much emphasis on correct teaching in our experience of church and how easily we lose sight of the love on which Christ built his church when we do so In Costly Love Armstrong acknowledges the importance of doctrine and theological discussion in the church but he urges Christians to focus first on whether we are following Jesus new commandment to love as he loved Our actions of love will begin to bring us closer to unity with one another and with God

Dangerous Love Ben Okri,2023-02-14 From the Booker Prize winning author of The Famished Road a classic story of doomed love in a country trying to come to terms with its violent past An epic of daily life Dangerous Love is one of Ben Okri s most accessible and most disarming novels Omovo is an office worker and artist who lives at home with his father and his father s second wife In the communal world of the compound in which he lives Omovo has both friends and enemies but his most important relationship is with Ifeyiwa a beautiful young married woman whom he loves with an almost hopeless passion not because she doesn t return his love but because they can never be together Against the backdrop of Nigeria s civil war Ben Okri creates an atmosphere where passion takes on a wholly different dimension as danger greed hunger and betrayal loom at every turn

Love and Marriage in the Age of Jane Austen Rory Muir,2024-01-01 What happened when Jane Austen s heroines and heroes were finally wed Marriage is at the centre of Jane Austen s novels The pursuit of husbands and wives advantageous matches and of course love itself motivate her characters and continue to fascinate readers today But what were love and marriage like in reality for ladies and gentlemen in Regency England Rory Muir uncovers the excitements and disappointments of courtship and the pains and pleasures of marriage drawing on fascinating first hand accounts as well as novels of the period From the glamour of the ballroom to the pressures of careers children managing money and difficult in laws love and marriage came in many guises some wed happily some dared to elope and other relationships ended with acrimony adultery domestic abuse or divorce Muir illuminates the position of both men and women in marriage as well as those spinsters and bachelors who chose not to marry at all This is a richly textured account of how love and marriage felt for people at the time revealing their unspoken assumptions fears pleasures and delights (The) First Age of Christianity & the Church Johann Joseph Ignaz von Döllinger,1877 The First Age of Christianity and the Church Johann Joseph Ignaz von Döllinger,1866

Hardcore Punk in the Age of Reagan Robert Fitzgerald,2025-05-27 Few politicians produced the musical reaction that Ronald Reagan did His California branded conservatism inspired countless young people to pick up guitars and thrash out their political angst Punk bands across the United States took aim at the man his presidency and the idea of America he was selling to voters nationwide Small yet vibrant scenes across the country emerged to challenge the communal norms and social values projected on them by the popular media and consumer culture Punk enthusiast Robert Fitzgerald argues that these songs lyrics aren t just catchy and fun to scream along with they also reveal the thoughts and feelings of artists reacting to their political environment in real forthright and uncensored time In candid detail Fitzgerald shows how these lyrics illustrated what young adults felt and how they reacted to one of the most influential and divisive leaders of the era Punk lyrics are seemingly simple the author argues but they sketch out a complex musically inspired countermovement that is as canonical in the American songbook as the folk and rock protest music that came before An Age of Crisis Lester G. Crocker,2019-12-01 Originally published in 1959 This book examines the French Enlightenment by analyzing critical thought in eighteenth century France It examines the philosophes views on evil free will and determinism and human nature This is an interesting group to look at according to Crocker because French Enlightenment thinkers straddled two vastly different time periods The Age of Movies: Selected Writings of Pauline Kael Pauline featuring pieces on Bonnie and Clyde The Godfather and other modern movie classics Film criticism is exciting just because there is no formula to apply Pauline Kael once observed just because you must use everything you are and everything you know Between 1968 and 1991 as regular film reviewer for The New Yorker Kael used those formidable tools to shape the tastes of a generation She had a gift for capturing with force and fluency the essence of an actor s gesture or the full implication of a cinematic image Kael called movies the most total and encompassing art form we have and her reviews became a platform for considering both film and the worlds it engages crafting in the process a prose style of extraordinary wit precision and improvisatory grace Her ability to evoke the essence of a great artist an Orson Welles or a Robert Altman or to celebrate the way even seeming trash could tap deeply into our emotions was matched by her unwavering eye for the scams and self deceptions of a corrupt movie industry Here are her appraisals of era defining films such as Breathless Bonnie and Clyde The Leopard The Godfather Last Tango in Paris Nashville along with many others some awaiting rediscovery all providing the occasion for masterpieces of observation and insight alive on every page Scoring Points: Love and

Football in the Age of AIDS Gary D. Gerson,2011-08 Gary Gerson led an uneventful life growing up Jewish in East Tennessee This changed when he decided to walk onto the Vanderbilt football team with no prior experience beginning a lifelong love for the game with four years of exhilaration and heartbreak After juggling the challenges of infatuation a bowl game a major steroid scandal and ultimate dishonor at Vandy Gerson s journeys brought him close to danger in Africa and India a brush with the Yeti in the Himalaya and more football in Amsterdam When he fell in love with Shelley while teaching at the prestigious Cranbrook Kingswood School in Michigan his journey for meaning took a sharp turn as she revealed her painful secret Using his wife s triumphs and challenges as motivation Gerson stepped back onto the football field at the age of 31 in Canada scoring points along the way to his final personal victory This book contains frank discussions about sex relationships love AIDS and death but it is appropriate for all ages Men like gods. The dream Herbert George Wells,1927

Men Like Gods Herbert George Wells,1923 The hero of the novel Mr Barnstaple is a depressive journalist working for the newspaper The Liberal At the beginning of the story Barnstaple as well as a few other Englishmen are accidentally transported to the parallel world of Utopia Utopia is like an advanced Earth although it had been quite similar to Earth in the past in a period known to Utopians as the Days of Confusion Utopia is a utopian world it has a utopian world government advanced science and even pathogens have been eliminated and predators are almost tamed wikipedia com The Works of H. G. Wells Herbert George Wells,1927 The Transforming Fire of Divine Love John H. Armstrong,2025-03-01 Most Bible readers know God is love 1 John 4 8 16 And most have heard the words of John 3 16 God so loved the world perhaps the best known verse in the entire Bible But few readers realize that these are perhaps the most daring verses in all the Scripture Why They tell us who God is and why we can trust him Yet very few Christians realize how much of what they believe about the nature of God is rooted in ideas foreign to divine love How did this happen What can be done to change how we can relate to the God who is perfect and inexhaustible love John Armstrong shares a deeply personal story of his long slow journey to know and experience God as a compassionate and loving Father As a pastor trained in evangelical theology he came to know and experience the teaching of the whole church about God thus the story he tells will inform how you can know the God who is amazing love This readable primer will help you develop a doctrine that can free you from guilt fear and many misconceptions we have about God You will see that what you believe about God will truly affect everything else you believe
