When Maples Blush G. N. Reddy,2000-05-25 Gunard Nagin the main character in this book is a complex character romantic and cerebral He lives his life in a constant state of war torn between these polarizing states until he discovers that this polarization is cultural and phenomenical He questions both Kierkegaard s and Nietzsche s ethical and aesthetic ideas In the realization that both these ideas are bogus he tries to live a life that he considers valid In the course of which he encounters three loves from diverse backgrounds which offer him a challenge in more ways than the reader could imagine There is Desir e who is demure and sensible But when a hurtful thing happens to her she falls back upon her tradition There is Kaori a Japanese woman planted in a foreign soil who is willing to agree with the ideas of Gunard But she was not willing to go all the way And finally there is Gabriella a modern woman devoid of the Past groping her way in a world that is stripped culturally bare by her own volition Would Gabriella offer the solution Gunard was seeking Are these three women faithful to the past present and future states What does Gunard get from all this Is aesthetic living a state of immediacy and ethical living a state of permanence If we strip an event of its pastness what ethical value would that event have What does the birth of the girl Nozomi contribute to this drama Is Gunard just a confused person For answers read When Maples Blush from cover to cover In the process enjoy the sweet and lyrical qualities of the book
