Love on the Lewis and Clark Trail Pat Decker Nipper, Syringa Books, 2004-06-01 Love on the Lewis and Clark Trail is the story of the love between Clark and a Nez Perce woman named Rose who he met during his stay with the Nez Perce Indians. Although this is a fictionalized account it is based on Nez Perce oral history. Chasing the Sun Edward Joseph Beverly, 2008 Chasing the Sun is a guide to Western fiction with more than 1 350 entries including 59 reviews of the author's personal favorites organized around the theme Horatio's Drive Dayton Duncan, Ken Burns, 2003 The companion volume to the PBS documentary film about the first and perhaps most astonishing automobile trip across the United States. In 1903 there were only 150 miles of paved roads in the entire nation and most people had never seen a horseless buggy but that did not stop Horatio Nelson Jackson a thirty one year old Vermont doctor who impulsively bet fifty dollars that he could drive his 20 horsepower automobile from San Francisco to New York City. Here in Jackson's own words and photographs is a glorious account of that month's long problem beset thrilling to the rattled bones trip with his mechanic Sewall Crocker and a bulldog named Bud. Jackson's previously unpublished letters to his wife brimming with optimism against all odds describe in vivid detail every detour every flat tire every adventure good and bad. And his nearly one hundred photographs show a country still settled mainly in small towns where life moved no faster than the horse drawn carriage and where the arrival of Jackson's open air roofless and windowless Winton would cause delirious excitement. Jackson was possessed of a deep thirst for adventure and his remarkable story chronicles the very beginning of the restless road trips that soon became a way of life in America. Horatio's Drive is the first chapter in our nation's great romance with the road. With 146 illustrations and 1 map.
