Hyman, 2023-04-28 The Jews of Modern France explores the endlessly complex encounter of France and its Jews from just before the Revolution to the eve of the twenty first century In the late eighteenth century some forty thousand Jews lived in scattered communities on the peripheries of the French state not considered French by others or by themselves Two hundred years later in 1989 France celebrated the anniversary of the Revolution with the largest most vital Jewish population in western and central Europe Paula Hyman looks closely at the period that began when France s Jews were offered citizenship during the Revolution She shows how they and succeeding generations embraced the opportunities of integration and acculturation redefined their identities adapted their Judaism to the pragmatic and ideological demands of the time and participated fully in French culture and politics Within this same period Jews in France fell victim to a secular political antisemitism that mocked the gains of emancipation culminating first in the Dreyfus Affair and later in the murder of one fourth of them in the Holocaust Yet up to the present day through successive waves of immigration Jews have asserted the compatibility of their French identity with various versions of Jewish particularity including Zionism This remarkable view in microcosm of the modern Jewish experience will interest general readers and scholars alike The Jews of Modern France explores the endlessly complex encounter of France and its Jews from just before the Revolution to the eve of the twenty first century In the late eighteenth century some forty thousand Jews lived in scattered communitie Masculinity and Male

Codes of Honor in Modern France Robert A. Nye, 1998-11-30 In this study of upper class masculinity from the end of the ancien r gime in 1789 to the end of World War I Robert Nye argues that manhood masculinity and male sexuality is like femininity a cultural construct comprising a strict set of heroic ideals and codes of honor which few men have been able to realize in practice In doing so Nye destabilizes and historicizes the male body and incorporates gender into the brand of cultural history inaugurated by Norbert Elias in the 1930s 101 Questions and Answers on Catholic Married Life

Catherine A. Johnston, Rebecca Nappi, Daniel Kendall, 2014-05-14 Examines marriage as lived in the context of the Catholic community which supports the couple spiritually emotionally and in many other ways Edward Albee as Theatrical and Dramatic Innovator , 2019-05-07 Edward Albee as Theatrical and Dramatic Innovator offers eight essays and a major interview by important scholars in the field that explore this three time Pulitzer prize winning playwright's innovations as a dramatist and theatrical artist. They consider not only Albee's award winning plays and his contributions to the evolution of modern American drama but also his important influence to the American theatre as a whole, his connections to art and music and his international influence in Spanish and Russian theatre. Contributors: Jackson R. Bryer, Milbrey Burch, David A. Crespy, Ramon Espejo, Romero Nathan, Hedman Lincoln, Konkle Julia, Listengarten David, Marcia Ashley, Raven Parisa, Shams Valentine Vasak. Modern Faith and Thought Helmut Thielicke, 1990-11. Thielicke here studies the themes of doubt and appropriation in modern Protestant thought. A leading advocate of dialectical theology, Thielicke examines the work of the great German Protestant religious philosophers from Lessing and Schliermacher through Barth and Tillich, probing these theologians' understanding of their context and how this tradition can impact our own engagement with our times. Clear, finely nuanced, historically and philosophically mature, this is a vital reflection on the history of theology and in systematic theology.

Empire and Constitution in Modern Japan Junji Banno, 2021-05-06. Since the beginning of the Meiji period when Japan evolved into a modern and powerful nation, state ideas of empire and constitution imbued Japanese rule and progress. In Empire and Constitution in Modern Japan, Junji Banno expertly analyses how these conflicting concepts operated together in Japan from 1868 until 1937. By empire, Banno means the Japanese impetus to create its own empire by constitution; he identifies Japanese efforts to create a constitutional government. In this book, Banno discusses the complicated relationship between these two concepts, ranging from incompatibility in some periods to symbiosis in others. Furthermore, understanding the complex and competing nature of these ideals, he persuasively reasons, is key to our understanding of why Japan and China went to war in 1937, leading to Pearl Harbor just four years later. Translated by eminent scholar Arthur Stockwin, Banno's highly accessible account of the dynamics of pre-war Japanese political history provides an engaging survey of imperialism and constitutionalism in modern Japan. It will be of vital importance to all scholars of modern Japanese history.

The Modern Stage and Other Worlds (Routledge Revivals) Austin E. Quigley, 2015-08-11. Modern plays are strikingly diverse, and as a result, any attempt to locate an underlying unity between them encounters difficulties. To focus on what they have in common is often to overlook what is of primary importance in particular plays; to focus on their differences is to note the novelty of the plays without increasing their accessibility. In this study, first published in 1985, Austin E. Quigley takes as his paradigm case the relationship between the world of the stage and the world of the audience and explores various modes of communication between domains. He asks how changes in the structure of the drama relate to changes in the structure of the theatre and changes in the role of the audience. Detailed interpretations of plays by Ibsen, Strindberg, Brecht, Ionesco, Beckett, and Pinter question principles about the modern theatre and establish links between drama structure and theatre structure, theme and performance space. The Routledge Companion to Modern European History since 1763 Chris Cook, John Stevenson, 2004-11-10. The Routledge Companion to Modern European

The Making of Eretz Israel in the Modern Era Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 2020-03-09 Napoleon's invasion of the Middle East marks the beginning of the modern era in the region. This book traces the developments that led to the making of a new and separate geographical political entity in the Middle East known as Eretz Israel and the establishment of the State of Israel within its bounds. Thus its time frame runs from Napoleon's invasion of Eretz Israel Palestine in 1799 to the establishment of Israel in 1948. 1949 Eretz Israel as the formal name of a separate entity in the modern era first appeared in the early translations into Hebrew of the Balfour Declaration while in the original document the country was referred to as Palestine. During the period of Ottoman rule the territory that would in time be called Eretz Israel Palestine was not a separate political unit. Among Jews use of Eretz Israel increased only after the beginning of Zionist aliyot. Had the Zionist movement not arisen it is doubtful whether the development to which this study is devoted would have occurred. The motivating force behind that process is without doubt the Zionist element. That is why Jews are the major protagonists in this book.

Modern Liberty and Its Discontents Pierre Manent, 2000-01-01 In this book distinguished French philosopher Pierre Manent addresses a wide range of subjects including the Machiavellian origins of modernity Tocqueville's analysis of democracy the political role of Christianity the nature of totalitarianism and the future of the nation state. As a whole the book constitutes a meditation on the nature of modern freedom and the permanent discontents which accompany it. Manent is particularly concerned with the effects of modern democracy on the maintenance and sustenance of substantial human ties. Modern Liberty and its Discontents is both an important contribution to an understanding of modern society and a significant contribution to political philosophy in its own right.

Modern European cinema and love Richard Rushton, 2023-05-23 Modern European cinema and love examines nine European directors whose films contain stories about romantic love and marriage. The directors are Jean Renoir Ingmar Bergman Alain Resnais Michelangelo Antonioni Agnès Varda François Truffaut Federico Fellini Jean-Luc Godard and Eric Rohmer. The book approaches questions of love and marriage from a philosophical perspective applying the ideas of authors such as Stanley Cavell Leo Bersani Luce Irigaray and Alain Badiou while also
