American Murder Gini Graham Scott JD, Ph.D, 2007-10-30 America has long had the reputation as the most violent and murderous of modern industrialized nations Even while violent crime has dropped in recent years our murder rate is still incredibly high Since the beginning of the 20th century our society has undergone profound changes Our technologies have advanced but the motives and methods for murder and escaping the long arm of the law have kept pace often capitalizing on available technologies In addition as the century progressed the media became an integral part of murder in America helping investigations glamorizing murder and bringing it into our homes on a daily basis Here Scott examines the changing face of murder in the context of societal changes and traces the advances in investigative techniques and technologies Each chapter offers vivid accounts of the most notorious and representative murders for each time period focusing especially on those murderers who have had the edge on their pursuers even escaping detection to this day Beginning at the turn of the century Scott details one of the most notorious cases of the day in which a jealous woman poisoned the wife of her lover The book ends with the still unsolved Tupac Shakur murder case Taking readers through the various developments in methods of murder and the techniques used to capture the criminals Scott provides a fascinating overview of the way murder has changed through the decades and how law enforcement has kept pace This insightful book sheds light on both our

Hitchens, Darryl L. Chambers, 2023-07-14 Murder Town USA Homicide Structural Violence and Activism is a street ethnography that describes how fifteen men and women ages 21 48 formerly involved with the streets studied and did activism on gun violence in Wilmington Delaware This team examined how race ethnicity gender poverty white wealth and small city size contributed to a street identity and especially the spread of gun violence Drawing on the voices of the streets

this book project is in part a research driven response to an infamous 2014 Newsweek article Murder Town USA aka Wilmington Delaware which focused on how a small city s identity was forged by white wealth gun violence and Black poverty Murder Town USA further argues the voices most likely to perpetuate and be victimized by gun violence is what s missing most from discussions on gun violence It is only through and with the streets that it is possible to fully understand and stop the violence in their neighborhoods
