

A photograph of a dirt road winding through a forest. The trees on either side have autumn-colored foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The road leads towards a bright light at the end of the path, creating a strong perspective. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Quiet Hatred:

The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures Beatriz Rivera-Barnes, 2020-12-16 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures retraces the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature from the earliest traditions of Western literature including Biblical texts Medieval Spanish literature early Spanish Renaissance texts to nineteenth and twentieth century Iberian and Latin American literatures The nature of hate is neither hate in its weakened form as in disliking or loving less nor hate in its righteous form as in I hate hatred rather hate in its primal form as told and conveyed in so many culturally influential Bible stories that are at the root of hatred as it manifests itself today The hatred of nature is not only contempt for the natural world but also the idea of nature hating in return thus inspiring even more hatred of nature While some chapters such as the one dedicated to La Celestina focus more on the nature of hate and the hatred of love they do address the hatred of nature as when Celestina conjures Pluto who happens to be closer to nature than to Satan Other chapters such as the ones dedicated to the Latin American novels set in the jungle focus more on the hatred of nature but ultimately turn to the nature of hatred by analyzing hatred and the descent into madness In the final chapters Beatriz Rivera Barnes simultaneously addresses the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature as well as the ecophilia ecophobia debate in twentieth century Latin American literatures and considers if not an assimilation of hate possibly the cannibalizing of hate

The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie, 2012-07-25 African American culture is often considered expressive dramatic and even defiant In The Sovereignty of Quiet Kevin Quashie explores quiet as a different kind of expressiveness one which characterizes a person's desires ambitions hungers vulnerabilities and fears Quiet is a metaphor for the inner life and as such enables a more nuanced understanding of black culture The book revisits such iconic moments as Tommie Smith and John Carlos's protest at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics and Elizabeth Alexander's reading at the 2009 inauguration of Barack Obama Quashie also examines such landmark texts as Gwendolyn Brooks's Maud Martha James Baldwin's The Fire Next Time and Toni Morrison's Sula to move beyond the emphasis on resistance and to suggest that concepts like surrender dreaming and waiting can remind us of the wealth of black humanity

LaMonda,2011-01-21 Carol La Monda spent one memorable childhood summer in 1956 with her family at a quiet peaceful farmhouse in New Paltz New York Four mothers and ten kids ruled the roost as the fathers worked in the city It was a time of love and joya glorified summer camp for the cousins How could the children ever have guessed that the fun farmhouse held such a tragic secret In this Greek family a tragedy unfolded at the farmhouse years before Carols great aunt Philanthe lost her brother daughter and grand daughters at the hand of her murderous son in law But the murders were kept a secret from the childrena secret that would only be unraveled many years later Prosilio Toward the Sun is not a memoir of murder revenge or despair Carols great aunt survived the tragedy she went on to live her life to the fullest The children at the New Paltz farmhouse learned their own lessons that summer in 1956 thanks to the careful guidance of loving parents It is always possible in life to walk away from the shadows if only we learn to walk into the light      Titan: A Romance Jean

Romance (Complete) Johann Paul Friedrich Richter,2020-09-28 On a fine spring evening the young Spanish Count Cesara came with his companions Schoppe and Dian to Sesto in order the next morning to cross over to the Borrom an island Isola Bella in Lago Maggiore The proudly blooming youth glowed with the excitement of travelling and with thoughts of the coming morrow when he should see the isle that gayly decorated throne of Spring and on it a man who had been promised him for twenty years This twofold glow exalted my picturesque hero to the form of an angry god of the Muses His beauty made a more triumphal entry into Italian eyes than into the narrow Northern ones from the midst of which he had come in Milan many had wished he were of marble and stood with elder gods of stone either in the Farnese Palace or in the Clementine Museum or in the Villa of Albani nay had not the Bishop of Novara with his sword at his side a few hours before asked Schoppe riding behind who he was And had not the latter with a droll squaring of the wrinkle circle round his lips made this copious answer by way of enlightening his spiritual lordship It s my Telemachus and I am the Mentor I am the milling machine and the die which coins him the wolf s tooth and flattening mill which polishes him down the man in short that regulates him The glowing form of the youthful Cesara was still more ennobled by the earnestness of an eye always buried in the future and of a firmly shut manly mouth and by the daring decision of young fresh faculties he seemed as yet to be a burning glass in the moonlight or a dark precious stone of too much color which the world as in the case of other jewels can brighten and improve only by cutting hollow As he drew nearer and nearer the island attracted him as one world does another more and more intensely His internal restlessness rose as the outward tranquillity deepened Beside all this Dian a

Greek by birth and an artist who had often circumnavigated and sketched Isola Bella and Isola Madre brought these obelisks of Nature still nearer to his soul in glowing pictures and Schoppe often spoke of the great man whom the youth was to see to-morrow for the first time As the people were carrying by down below in the street an old man fast asleep into whose strongly marked face the setting sun cast fire and life and who was in short a corpse borne uncovered after the Italian custom suddenly in a wild and hurried tone he asked his friends Does my father look thus But what impels him with such intense emotions towards the island is this He had on Isola Bella with his sister who afterward went to Spain and by the side of his mother who had since passed to the shadowy land sweetly toyed and dreamed away the first three years of his life lying in the bosom of the high flowers of Nature the island had been to the morning slumber of life to his childhood's hours a Raphael's painted sleeping chamber But he had retained nothing of it all in his head and heart save in the one a deep sadly sweet emotion at the name and in the other the squirrel which as the family scutcheon of the Borromans stands on the upper terrace of the island
