The Distant Mirror Joanne Brown, Nancy St. Clair, 2005-12-08 Young adult historical fiction brings the past alive through stories of adventure suspense and mystery The genre is both complex and controversial encompassing novels that range from romance and fantasy to stark historical realism The book examines the various approaches to young adult historical fiction and explores the issues that it has engendered Part One focuses on the broader issues spawned by the genre itself including its various subgenres the line between fiction and fact to what degree must an author adhere to historical accuracy time boundaries the diary format the protagonist as the outsider who is entitled to write what and literary concerns such as the relationship between accuracy and readability Part Two explores issues of contemporary interest such as race class gender the immigrant experience religion war and nationalism Thought provoking discussions of how these elements are treated in historical novels with emphasis on how current cultural values have shaped the fiction are presented Finally the question of whether novels in this genre are bound by anything other than their respective period setting is posed and it is contended that there are features common to YA historical novels that not only set the genre apart from other YA fiction but also contribute something unique to the larger genre The genesis for much classroom debate suggestions for class discussions and writing assignments as well as sample written responses of these debates from the authors' classes are included Teachers librarians instructors of young adult literature courses and teen readers will find this an insightful analysis of YA historical fiction

Quotology Willis Goth Regier, 2010-10-01 Erasmus advised readers to learn quotations by heart and copy them everywhere write them in the front and back of books inscribe them on rings and cups paint them on doors and walls even on the glass of a window Emerson noted that in Europe every church is a kind of book or bible so covered is it with inscriptions and pictures In Arabic script as tall as a man the Koran is quoted on the walls and domes of mosques We quote to admire provoke commemorate dispute play and inspire Quotations signal class club clique and alma mater They animate wit relay prophecies guide meditation and accessorize fashion In Quotology Willis Goth Regier draws on world literature and contemporary events to show how vital quotations are how they are collected and organized and how deceptive they can be He probes all these aspects identifying fifty nine types of quotations including misquotations and anonymous sayings Following the logic of quotology Quotology concludes with famous last words

Those Good Gertrudes Geraldine J. Clifford, 2016-03 This book explores the professional civic and personal roles of women teachers throughout American history Its themes and findings build from the mostly unpublished writings of many women Clifford studied personal history manuscripts in archives and consulted printed autobiographies diaries correspondence oral histories interviews to probe the multifaceted imagery that has surrounded teaching This work surveys a long past where schoolteaching was essentially men's work with women relegated to restricted niches such as teaching rudiments of the vernacular language to young children and socializing girls for traditional gender roles
