Dr. Afsar Nawaboddin Shaikh,2018-05 English language was transplanted in India by the British rulers who ruled country more than 150 years People believed that English is a language of Britishers and hence it must go with them But to learn English language does not mean that people would evolve a slave mentality In the present scenario English language with its great literary heritage is no longer a language of particular country or a race It has become global lingua franca It is a medium of an international mutual contact among the natives of all over the world It has thrown open a vast panorama of world wide scientific literary cultural and political world of knowledge      BETWEEN THE LINES Dr. Kavita

Kusugal,2019-11-21 Man and woman are two necessary wheels in the journey of life But basically they differ so much in their nature thinking feelings and role adoption that some time they lead to complexities in life To study this difference and have a look into the psyche and caliber of women it s necessary to have a picture of women as depicted in the fiction We have heard common people talking of feminism as if it is by the women for the women and that women writers must write about women related issues They say feminism entered India with the influence of western literature in twentieth century But I feel writers like Rabindranath Tagore who wrote Two Sisters D R Bendre who wrote Putta Vidhave in Kannada Kuvempu who wrote Kanuru Subbamma Heggaditi and R K Narayan are feminists in many of their works Tarabai Shinde the first modern Indian feminist formulates her ideology from the influence of Satyashodhak Movement lead by Phule couple      Cultural Allotropy

Vinay Bharat,2015-08-26 This research work spins around the issue of cultural allotropy which we all have experienced at different levels however a conscious realization regarding it might be missing to some extent Centuries of political intervention and subjugation by foreign countries results in the presence of a mixed culture and this side by side flourishing of two cultures seems now an accepted fact a part of mans consciousness But the presence of two contradictory sets of values one not fully accepted and the other not totally rejected gives rise to a difficult situation in the face of the conflicting claims of the two This gives rise to a mixing of cultures a blend which in other words may be called cultural allotropy that is existence of the culture of a particular region in two or more forms having different and mixed properties at the emotional or intellectual level at a given point of time Going beyond the political subjugation in the era of globalization it has now become a matter of economic and cultural subjugation Undoubtedly our cultural allotropy is a byproduct of modern economic compulsions also Through different Indian English novelists I have tried to intrigue the issues via different portrayals and characters and finally posed a question What is it to be an Indian      R.K.
