Information and Communication Complexity Pascal Felber, 2008-06-17 The Colloquium on Structure Information

Communication and Complexity SIROCCO is an annual research meeting focused on the relationship between information and efficiency in decentralized distributed parallel and network computing. This year SIROCCO celebrated its 15th anniversary.

Over the years the colloquium has become a widely recognized forum bringing together searchers interested in the fundamental principles underlying the interplay between local structural knowledge and global communication and computation complexity. SIROCCO covers topics such as distributed algorithms, compact data structures, information dissemination, informative labeling schemes, combinatorial optimization and others with potential applications to large scale distributed systems including global computing platforms, peer-to-peer systems and applications, social networks, wireless networks and network protocols such as routing, broadcasting, localization. SIROCCO 2008 was held in Villars sur Ollon in the Swiss Alps, June 17-20, 2008. There were 52 contributions submitted to SIROCCO 2008. All papers underwent a thorough refereeing process where each submission was reviewed by at least 3 and on average 3-4 Program Committee members. After in-depth discussions the Program Committee selected 22 high quality contributions for presentation at the colloquium and publication in this volume. We thank the authors of all the submitted papers, the Program Committee members and the external reviewers. Without their dedication we could not have prepared a program of such quality.

There were two invited speakers at SIROCCO 2008: Nicola Santoro, Carleton University and Boaz Patt-Shamir, Tel Aviv University.

We express our gratitude to the SIROCCO Steering Committee and in particular to Pierre Fraigniaud for his enthusiasm and his invaluable help throughout the preparation of this event.

The Mason Papers Sir Anthony Mason, Geoffrey Lindell, 2007. There have been times when Australian court judgments have held enormous weight in courts throughout the world, certainly throughout the Commonwealth. Owen Dixon's High Court in the 1950s and Anthony Mason's High Court in the 1980s are examples. If there were an Olympic record for teams of judges and why not since they have Olympic medals for tae kwon do and beach volleyball the Mason court would have won gold year after year The quality of its jurisprudence was the best in the world Geoffrey Robertson QC Sydney Morning Herald 30th August 2007 This book comprises a selection of articles and speeches by Sir Anthony Mason written and delivered when he was a Justice and later Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia and after his retirement from that Court in 1995 It demonstrates his long standing interest in the judicial process and his desire to communicate to the legal world and the public a more enlightened understanding of the proper scope of judicial law making and the responsibility of judges for adapting the law to the changing conditions in society It also displays his acknowledged mastery of public and private law and his belief in the growing significance of international and comparative law in the development of Australian law The book contains some important speeches and articles on constitutional and administrative law international law human rights equity and contract the High Court judicial administration advocacy a significant media interview a State of the Judicature report delivered as the Chief Justice of Australia and his swearing in speeches when appointed as a Justice and later Chief Justice of the High Court Some of the selected speeches display Sir Anthony s characteristic wit The book deals with highly topical subjects such as whether Australia should adopt a bill of rights the health of Australia s democratic institutions the establishment of an Australian republic globalization and the decline of parliamentary and national sovereignty The articles and speeches were chosen and edited by Professor Geoffrey Lindell in consultation with Sir Anthony
