The Pilot, or Sailors' magazine. [Continued as] The Chart and compass British and foreign sailors' society, 1880 The Vital Spark John Armstrong, 2017-10-18 This book collects seventeen previously published essays by John Armstrong concerning the British coastal trade Armstrong is a leading maritime historian and the essays provided here offer a thorough exploration of the British coastal trade his specialisation during the period of industrialisation and technological development that would lead to modern shipping The purpose is to demonstrate the whether or not the coastal trade was the main carrier of internal trade and a pioneer of the technical developments that modernised the shipping industry Each essay makes an original contribution to the field and covers a broad range of topics including the fluctuating importance of the coastal trade and size of the coastal fleet over time the relationship between coastal shipping canals and railways a comparison between the coastal liner and coastal tramp trade the significance of the river Thames in enabling trade coastal trade economics maritime freight rates the early twentieth century shipping depression competition between coastal liner companies and a detailed study of the role of the government in coastal shipping The book also contains case studies of the London coal trade coastal trade through the River Dee port and the Liverpool Hull trade route It contains a foreword introduction and bibliography of Armstrong's writings There is no overall conclusion except the assertion that coastal shipping plays a tremendous role in British maritime history and a call for further research into the field *Beeton's Hero soldiers, sailors and travellers in Kafirland; gymnastics, telegraphy, fire-arms &c., ed. by S.O. Teute, 2012-12-01 These thirteen original essays are provocative explorations in the construction and representation of self in America's colonial and early republican eras Highlighting the increasing importance of interdisciplinary research for the field of early American history these leading scholars in the field extend their reach to literary criticism anthropology psychology and material culture The collection is organized into three parts Histories of Self Texts of Self and Reflections on Defining Self Individual essays examine the significance of dreams diaries and carved chests murder and suicide Indian kinship and the experiences of African American sailors Gathered in celebration of the Institute of Early American History and Culture's fiftieth anniversary these imaginative inquiries will stimulate critical thinking and open new avenues of investigation on the forging of self identity in early America The contributors are W Jeffrey Bolster T H Breen Elaine Forman Crane Greg Denning Philip Greven Rhys Isaac Kenneth A Lockridge James H Merrell Donna Merwick Mary Beth Norton Mechal Sobel Alan Taylor Laurel Thatcher Ulrich and Richard White The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1869 The 1797 Naval Mutinies and Popular Protest in Britain Callum Easton, 2025-09-02 This book offers a holistic re-evaluation of the Spithead and Nore mutinies of 1797 which immobilised the two Royal Navy fleets responsible for Britain's defence at a time when invasion seemed likely The mutinies represent two of the most serious manifestations of collective resistance in eighteenth century Britain yet they have received relatively little attention in recent historiography This book challenges the predominant view that the mutinies represented attempts at revolutionary uprising arguing that the mutineers were instead focused on the mutineers understanding of fairness and focused on securing appropriate wages In doing so it presents an opportunity to scrutinise foundational elements of British society from notions of reciprocal rights and responsibilities to relations between the state and individuals
