Theophylact of Ochrid Margaret Mullett, 2016-12-05 Few works exist on Byzantine literature as literature and still fewer studies of individual texts This reading of the letter collection c 1090 c 1110 of Theophylact of Ochrid employs a variety of approaches to characterise a work which is both a literary artefact in a long Greek tradition and the only trace of a complex network of friends colleagues patrons and clients within Byzantine Bulgaria and also within the empire as a whole These letters are of great importance from the point of view of local economic or ecclesiastical history relations with the Slavs the arrival of the First Crusade but have not hitherto been studied as an example of Byzantine letter writing This was a genre taken seriously by Byzantines offering us unique insight into the mentality of the Byzantine elite but also into what the Byzantines regarded as literature This book is important as an attempt to raise the status of the study of Byzantine literature and of letters within that literature It is a first attempt to place an epistolary text in a succession of literary and historical contexts its aim too is to probe the reliability of any rhetorical text for straightforward biography especially at the time of the revival fiction in Byzantium At the heart of the book is an analysis of the personal network of Theophylact as presented in the collection with further methodological discussion of network analysis in medieval texts The History and Antiquities of Selby William Wilberforce Morrell,1867 Where There's A Will Emily Chappell,2019-11-07 Shortlisted for the Wales Book of the Year Non Fiction Award 2020 Chappell is a gifted storyteller Observer In 2015 Emily Chappell embarked on a formidable new bike race The Transcontinental 4 000km across Europe unassisted in the shortest time possible On her first attempt she made it only halfway waking up suddenly on her back in a field floored by the physical and mental exertion A year later she entered the race again and won Where There s a Will takes us into Emily Chappell s race grinding up mountain passes and charging down the other side snatching twenty minutes sleep on the outskirts of a village before jumping back on the bike to surge ahead for another day feeding in bursts and navigating on the go We experience the crippling self doubt of the ultra distance racer the confusing intensity of winning and the desperation of losing a dear friend who understood all of this Nicholas Jeremy Seal,2005-11-01 Presents the evolution of a bishop from fourth century Turkey into the modern day icon of Santa Claus tracing the revered saint s cult in the Orthodox Church and his gradual acceptance in the West as a symbol of Christmas
