Seatown And Earlier Poems:

Seatown, and Earlier Poems Conor O'Callaghan, 2000 Seatown and Earlier Poems combines selections from Conor O'Callaghan's first book The History of Rain with his second volume Seatown for his North American debut. These poems are powerfully attractive and accessible on first reading yet they reward rereading particularly when forms such as terza rima, sestinas and villanelles disclose themselves as the inevitable complement of a contemporary on the edge setting.

Rethinking the Irish in the American South Bryan Albin Giemza, 2013-06-03 Studies of the Irish presence in America have tended to look to the main corridors of emigration and hence outside the American South. Yet the Irish constituted a significant minority in the region. Indeed the Irish fascination expresses itself in southern context in powerful but disparate registers: music, literature and often a sense of shared heritage. Rethinking the Irish in the American South aims to create a readable, thorough introduction to the subject, establishing new ground for areas of inquiry. These essays offer a revisionist critique of the Irish in the South, calling into question widely held understandings of how Irish culture was transmitted. The discussion ranges from Appalachian ballads to Gone with the Wind to the Irish rock band U2 to Atlantic-spanning literary friendships. Rather than seeing the Irish presence as natural or something completed in the past, these essays posit a shifting, evolving and unstable influence. Taken collectively, they offer a new framework for interpreting the Irish in the region. The implications extend to the interpretation of migration patterns to the understanding of Irish diaspora and the assimilation of immigrants and their ideas.

What Persists Judith Kitchen, 2016 What Persists contains eighteen of the nearly fifty essays on poetry that Judith Kitchen published in The Georgia Review over a twenty-five year span. Coming at the genre from every possible angle, this celebrated critic discusses work by older and younger poets, most American but some foreign and many of whom were not yet part of the contemporary canon. Her essays reveal a cultural history from the dismantling of the Berlin Wall through 9/11 and the Iraq War and move into today's political climate. They chronicle personal interests while they also make note of what was happening in contemporary poetry by revealing overall changes of taste both in content and in the use of craft. Over time, they fashion a comprehensive overview of the contemporary literary scene. At its best, What Persists shows what a wide range of poetry is being written by women, men, poets who celebrate their ethnicity, poets who show a fierce individualism, poets whose careers have soared, promising poets whose work has all but disappeared. Tri-quarterly, 2002

Irish studies this collection brings together fifteen essays working at the intersection of two important and developing fields of Irish studies gender studies and cultural geography Developed from papers first presented at a regional meeting of the American Conference for Irish Studies in South Carolina in 2006 not only does this work suggest the importance of linking gender and geography but it also suggests in the range of literary and historical topics the rich interdisciplinary nature of Irish studies at present Central to all of the essays is an attention to intersections of gender and sexual identity formation with the politics of place and space Although considerations of geographic space have long been staples of Irish cultural studies especially in relation to political identities these pieces suggest the critical importance of linking spatial and geographic analysis more clearly to ongoing examinations of gender and sexuality From institutions such as the Magdalen laundries and the prison to the domestic garden and home across urban and rural landscapes from the Dublin GPO to a St Patty s festival in the southern United States this book examines the local and human contexts of identity formation and performance

A Concordance to The Collected Poems of Sylvia Plath Richard M. Matovich,1986 In the Chair John Brown,2002 All of the poets interviewed in this collection are from Northern Ireland all were born after 1920 and each has published at least one volume of poetry Arranged chronologically by each poet s date of birth this collection deals with an impressive body of work The poets include Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley John Montague Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson as well as less known voices including Gerald Dawe Roy McFadden and Conor O Callaghan The interviews explore the poet s work and development the social historical context and the impact of assimilated influences If they explore a poetry often rooted in the North they also suggest the individuality and diversity of this poetry of work whose imaginative range is not circumscribed by either literal borders or critically convenient categories The other poets included are James Simmons Tom Paulin Frank Orsmy Medbh McGuckian Robert Greacen Cathal P Searcaigh Colette Bryce Moyra Donaldson Jean Bleakney Martin Mooney Padraic Fiacc and Cherry Smyth

The Other Sylvia Plath Tracy Brain,2014-07-22 Despite being widely studied on both undergraduate and postgraduate courses the writing of Sylvia Plath has been relatively neglected in relation to the attention given to her life and what drove her to suicide Tracy Brain aims to remedy this by introducing completely new approaches to Plath s writing taking the studies away from the familiar concentration to reveal that Plath as a writer was concerned with a much wider range of important cultural and political topics Unlike most of the existing literary criticism it shifts the focus away from biographical readings and encompasses the full range of Plath s poetry prose journals and letters using a variety of critical methods

Dylan Thomas' Early Prose Annis Pratt,2010-11-23 This first full scale treatment of the early prose of Dylan Thomas demonstrates the unity of his total work Pratt argues that the inward journey of the poetic imagination which is implicit in poetry is often explicit in prose Her study of Thomas early prose alongside his early poetry helps to elucidate all of his writing Pratt includes three appendices a chronology a summary of the critics attitudes toward the problem of influence and a bibliographical sketch of materials in the Parris surrealist magazine

Panda,2025-01-10 This book extensively investigates the integral nature of spatiality and spatial imagination in the works of Philip Larkin It addresses Larkin s idea of space and place both private and public and reflects upon his early fictional works as well as poems To do so the book also emphasizes the essential spatiality of modern British literature with suitable examples from other great poets of the early 20th century modernist movement including T S Eliot W B Yeats W H Auden and Dylan Thomas By including detailed analysis of many unpublished poems and his early fictions the book aspires to be a comprehensive study of Larkin s oeuvre and thus examines how Larkin s sense of place changed as he developed as a writer starting with Brunette Coleman novels and going on to High Windows Featuring suitable references from his biographies and letters the book will examine Larkin s works in relation to a number of relevant ideas from the interdisciplinary spheres of literature geography and Spatial Humanities Drafts, Fragments, and Poems Joan Murray,2018-02-06 The first appearance of this award winning writer s work since the 1940s this collection which includes an introduction by John Ashbery restores Joan Murray s striking poetry to its originally intended form Though John Ashbery hailed Joan Murray as a key influence on his work Murray s sole collection Poems published after her death at the early age of twenty four and selected by W H Auden for inclusion in the Yale Series of Younger Poets has been almost entirely unavailable for the better part of half a century Poems was put together by Grant Code a close friend of Murray s mother and when Murray s papers long thought to be lost reappeared in 2013 it became clear that Code had exercised a heavy editorial hand This new collection edited by Farnoosh Fathi from Murray s original manuscripts restores Murray s raw lyricism and visionary lines while also including a good deal of previously unpublished work as well as a selection of her exuberant letters Dramatic Works and Poems William Shakespeare,1848 Merlin ; Or, the Early History of King Arthur Henry Benjamin Wheatley,1865 Class List Bangor Public Library (Bangor, Me.),1907 The Poems of Dylan Thomas Daniel Jones,2003 The highlight of this complete edition of poems is a CD containing vintage recordings of Thomas reading eight of his works in his famous Welsh singing style The Prose Writing of Dylan Thomas Linden Peach,2015-12-22
