Master Of Guise:

From Our Master's Table Carl Ferdinand Wilhelm Walther,2008 Becoming Male in the Middle Ages Jeffrey Jerome Cohen,Bonnie Wheeler,2015-11-17 First published in 1997 Most work in gender studies has focused on women This volume brings together various forms of gender theory especially feminist and queer theory to explore how men made cultures and culture made men in the Middle Ages The Works George Payne Rainsford James,1845 , The Works of Alexandre Dumas Alexandre Dumas,1902 Putting Theory into Practice in the Contemporary Classroom Becky McLaughlin,2017-01-06 This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from Canada Europe the United Kingdom and the United States emerges from a growing interest in the ways postmodern theory can illuminate not just the products and ideas of high culture but also the ins and outs of everyday life Taking the university classroom broadly construed as a site of theoretical investigation this volume helps us to understand troublesome classroom dynamics as well as offering pedagogical strategies for dealing with them It also illuminates current pressures on higher education that find expression in the classroom As a forum for these issues these essays draw upon Deleuzian feminist Foucauldian and psychoanalytic approaches among others recognizing not only that these approaches are often in conflict but also that collectively they enhance our understanding of the classroom Important questions posed here include whether and if so how we can combine a Marxist or Foucauldian emphasis on the disciplinary and hegemonic practices of educational institutions with a Lacanian or Barthesian appreciation for the disruptive pleasures and drives that the unconscious produces within and through students teachers and classrooms Which theoretical and pedagogical innovations can help teachers and students to get the job done as well as to theorize the job to simultaneously practice education and imagine other forms and ends for education How can theory help us to historicize criticize and re draw the productive but sometimes disabling lines that make the classroom and its subjects A site for lively theoretical debate about these and related pedagogical issues this volume will prove useful for anyone wanting to reinterpret reinvent and reinvigorate the classroom Animals and Courts Mark Hengerer,Nadir Weber,2019-12-16 Early modern princely courts were not only inhabited by humans but also by a large number of animals This coexistence of non human living beings had crucial impacts on the spatial organization the social composition and cultural life at these courts The contributions enrich our knowledge on another aspect of court life and invite to reconsider our basic understandings of court courtiers and court society ,1874 A Semiotic Theory of Theology and Philosophy Robert S. Corrington,2000-11-09 The concern of this work is with developing an alternative to standard categories in theology and philosophy especially in terms of how they deal with nature Avoiding the polemics of much contemporary reflection on nature it shows how we are connected to nature through the unconscious and its unique way of reading and processing signs Spinoza s key distinction between natura naturans and natura naturata serves as the governing framework for the treatise Suggestions are made for a post Christian way of understanding religion Robert S Corrington s work represents the first sustained attempt to bring together the fields of semiotics depth psychology pragmatism and a post Monotheistic theology of nature Its focus is on how signification functions in human and non human orders of infinite nature Our connection with the infinite is described in detail especially as it relates to the use of sign systems The History of Modern Europe from the Fall of Constantinople Thomas Henry Dyer,1861 The History of Modern Europe Thomas Henry Dyer,2022-06-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1861 The History of Modern Europe Thomas Henry Dyer,1861 1521-1598 Thomas Henry Dyer,1877 The Broadview Anthology of Tudor Drama Alan Stewart,2021-02-19 English drama between the late fifteenth century and the late sixteenth centuries is as diverse as it is engaging this anthology brings together eighteen of the most interesting and important dramatic works from the period The plays have been chosen to give a broad view of the drama produced in Tudor England They testify to the eclectic tastes of sixteenth century audiences ranging from morality plays Mankind Everyman to comedies inspired by the Roman plays of Terence and Plautus Ralph Roister Doister to tragedies inspired by the plays of Seneca Gorboduc Cambises In later plays morality plots rub shoulders with slapstick comic business The Longer Thou Livest The More Fool Thou Art The Three Ladies of London and classical gods intervene in the affairs of England s regions Gallathea While some of the plays offer pure entertainment others have a clear political agenda King Johan is presented as a prototype for English resistance to Rome s Catholicism Gorboduc s decision to abdicate and divide his kingdom highlights the vexed question of the English succession under a childless queen Other plays comment more obliquely on contemporary events Play of the Four Elements reflects on England s nascent maritime expeditions to the New World while The Three Ladies of London comments topically on immigrant overcrowding in England s port towns and the dangers of England s trade in the Mediterranean Some plays push the boundaries of what the theatre can do in staging violence Cambises and questioning gender roles Gallathea Designed for undergraduate use the anthology includes extensive explanatory annotations and a substantial introduction to each play spelling and punctuation have been partially modernized in the interests of making the texts more accessible to students In all this the anthology follows principles similar to those developed for Christina M Fitzgerald s and John T Sebastian s Broadview Anthology of Medieval Drama several of the plays from that anthology are also included here while the rest have been newly edited for this volume under the supervision of General Editor Alan Stewart The English Reports ,1906 Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1905 The English Reports: Vice-Chancellors' courts (1815-1865) ,1906 The History of the Huguenots During the Sixteenth Century William Shergold Browning,1829 House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada.
