Mona And The Arabs And Other Works:

Mona and the Arabs Natalie A. McKelvy, 1991 Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf Activist Pedagogy and Shared Education in Divided Societies, 2022-02-14 Collaborative engagement between activist academics from Israel and Northern Ireland highlighted the challenges and potential of working through education to promote shared learning and shared life in divided societies Following these initial explorations the volume brought together educationalists from Europe the United States and South Africa to widen the range of experience and insights and broaden the base of the conversation The result is this book on the role of shared education not only in deeply divided societies but also in places where minorities face discrimination where migrants face prejudice and barriers or where society fails to deal positively with cultural diversity Together the contributors challenged themselves to develop theoretical and practical paradigms based on practical knowledge and experience to promote activist pedagogies Their shared purpose was to work for more humane just and democratic societies in which education offers genuine hope for sustained transformational change The four main themes around which the book is organized are educating for democratic multicultural citizenship models of shared learning nurturing intercultural competencies and reconciling dialogue in the face of conflicting narratives The book draws on a wide range of international perspectives and insights to identify practical strategies for change in local contexts Critical Incidents in Integrating Spirituality into Counseling Tracy E. are distinguished for the depth of coverage and the types of data considered Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab

Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora s relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East Sheikha Mona's Daughter Marinda J. Hochadel, 2016-07-12 Sheikha Mona s Daughter By Marinda J Hochadel Sheikha Mona s Daughter is the personal travel log of author Marinda J Hochadel s many world travels and her experience with people This book stresses three points which intersect with each other and are of great interest and importance to her Her first point is the unnecessary of wars and conflicts The hypocrisy of the world leaders creates anger hatred and intolerance among their respective citizens and political groups The second point is that human trafficking child slave labor and child sex should be abolished as they are a disgrace to humanity Rich nations have the responsibility to see that human rights and social systems are enforced Marinda believes ensuring all women and children in the world are educated will decrease poverty and stabilize nations We all should join our hands against corruption that leads to the abuse of the poor Last but not least we should respect the religions and cultures of our co citizens and tolerate other nationalities Marinda encourages her readers to think positively and respectfully about those whom we meet during our lives She wishes that her feelings and thoughts are read all over the world Arab and Arab American Feminisms Rabab Abdulhadi, Evelyn Alsultany, Nadine Naber, 2011-04-05 In this collection Arab and Arab American feminists enlist their intimate experiences to challenge simplistic and long held assumptions about gender sexuality and commitments to feminism and justice centered struggles among Arab communities Contributors hail from multiple geographical sites spiritualities occupations sexualities class backgrounds and generations Poets creative writers artists scholars and activists employ a mix of genres to express feminist issues and highlight how Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives simultaneously inhabit multiple overlapping and intersecting spaces within families and communities in anticolonial and antiracist struggles in debates over spirituality and the divine within radical feminist and queer spaces in academia and on the street and among each other Contributors explore themes as diverse as the intersections between gender sexuality Orientalism racism Islamophobia and Zionism and the restoration of Arab Jews to Arab American histories This book asks how members of diasporic communities navigate their sense of belonging when the country in which they live wages wars in the lands of their ancestors Arab and Arab American Feminisms opens up new possibilities for placing grounded Arab and Arab American feminist perspectives at the center of gender studies Middle East studies American studies and ethnic studies

Word Order, Agreement and Pronominalization in Standard and Palestinian Arabic Mohammad A. Mohammad, 2000-04-15 The two related issues of word order and subject verb agreement have occupied center stage in the study of Arabic syntax since the time of Sibawayhi in the eighth century This book is a contribution to both of these areas It is grounded within the generative grammar framework in one of its most recent versions namely Minimalism as expounded in Chomsky 1995 In this volume a detailed description is given of word order options in Modern Standard Arabic MSA and Palestinian Arabic PA It is shown that perhaps surprisingly the two varieties allow almost the same range of word orders The important question of whether Arabic has a VP is addressed the author argues extensively that Arabic has a VP category The evidence derives from examining superiority effects ECP effects binding variable interpretations etc Also discussed is the content of Spec TP in VSO sentences It is argued that the position is occupied by an expletive pronoun The author defends the Expletive Hypothesis which states that in VSO sentences the expletive may take part in checking some features of the verb A typology of the expletive pronoun in Modern Standard Arabic Palestinian Arabic Lebanese Arabic and Moroccan Arabic is provided A particularly interesting problem involving pronominal co reference is the following if the subject is the antecedent of a pronominal clitic word order is free if a pronominal is cliticized onto the subject then the antecedent must precede An account that derives these restrictions without recourse to linear order is proposed

Fairouz and the Arab Diaspora Dima Issa, 2023-05-18 With a discography of over 1000 songs 20 musicals and three motion pictures the Lebanese singer and performer Fairouz is an artist of pan Arab appeal who has connected with listeners from diverse backgrounds and geographies for over four often tumultuous decades In this book Dima Issa explores the role of Fairouz's music in creating a sense of Arab identity amidst changing political economic context Based on two years of research including 60 interviews it takes an ethnographic approach focussing on audience reception of Fairouz's music among the Arab diasporas of London and Doha It shows that for discussants talking about Fairouz meant discussing diasporic life bringing to the surface notions of Arabness and authenticity presence and absence naturalization and citizenship and the issue of gender Conversations with the research respondents shed light on the idea of iltizam commitment or how members of the Arab diaspora hold on to attributes that they feel define and differentiate them from others
