Computer and Information Science Applications in Bioprocess Engineering A.R. Moreira, Kimberlee K. Wallace, 2012-12-06 Biotechnology has been labelled as one of the key technologies of the last two decades of the 20th Century offering boundless solutions to problems ranging from food and agricultural production to pharmaceutical and medical applications as well as environmental and bioremediation problems Biological processes however are complex and the prevailing mechanisms are either unknown or poorly understood This means that adequate techniques for data acquisition and analysis leading to appropriate modeling and simulation packages that can be superimposed on the engineering principles need to be routine tools for future biotechnologists The present volume presents a masterly summary of the most recent work in the field covering instrumentation systems enzyme technology environmental biotechnology food applications and metabolic engineering National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993 Bibliography of Agriculture, 1990 Cell Culture Labfax Michael Butler, M. Butler, M. Dawson, 1992 Interest has steadily increased in the mammalian cell cultures for a wide variety of applications Cell Culture Labfax is a convenient user friendly reference tool for all researchers and students in biology biotechnology and biomedicine who currently use or will need to use animal cell culture This new volume in the LABFAX Series comprehensively covers reference data relevant to cell culture thus eliminating the need to search through a variety of journals manuals and catalogs Spiral bound with a hard case for durability this book can be used as a prime reference tool at the laboratory bench An index helps locate facts quickly This data book complements protocol oriented laboratory guides with up to date data and references on cell lines culture techniques cell characterization separation cloning media preservation growth factors products equipment safety terminology suppliers and associations
