Cultural Criticism in Egyptian Women's Writing Caroline Seymour-Jorn, 2011-12-23 The five influential women writers discussed in Seymour Jorn's timely work Salwa Bakr Nemat el Behairy Radwa Ashour Etidal Osman and Ibtihal Salem all emerged on the literary scene in the late 1970s and early 1980s They came of age at a time when women's writing was attracting critical attention and more venues for publication were opening up This widening platform enabled these writers to develop and mature as cultural critics resulting in the creation of a successful blend of politically and socially committed literature with artistically innovative literary techniques Artfully combining literary analysis with ethnographic research Seymour Jorn explores the ways in which these writers generate new patterns of thinking and talking about women society and social change She describes how the writers conceive of their role as authors particularly as female authors and how they refigure the Arabic language to express themselves as women By examining these authors works and lives Seymour Jorn illuminates the extent to which writing brings women into the public sphere an arena in which they have traditionally had limited access to positions of power and authority

May Her Likes Be Multiplied Marilyn Booth, 2001-07-30 Marilyn Booth's elegantly conceived study reveals the Arabic tradition of life writing in an entirely new light Though biography had long been male authored in the late nineteenth century short sketches by and about women began to appear in biographical dictionaries and women's journals By 1940 hundreds of such biographies had been published featuring Arabs Turks Indians Europeans North Americans and ancient Greeks and Persians Booth uses over five hundred famous women biographies which include subjects as diverse as

Joan of Arc Jane Austen Aisha bt Abi Bakr Sarojini Naidu and Lucy Stone to demonstrate how these narratives prescribed complex role models for middle class girls in a context where nationalist programs and emerging feminisms made defining the ideal female citizen an urgent matter Booth begins by asking how cultural traditions shaped women s biography and to whom the Egyptian biographies were directed The biographies were published at a time of great cultural awakening in Egypt when social and political institutions were in upheaval The stories suggested that Islam could be flexible on social practice and gender holding out the possibility for women to make their own lives Yet ultimately they indicate that women would find it extremely difficult to escape the nationalist ideal the nuclear family with woman at its center This conflict remains central to Egyptian politics today and in her final chapter Booth examines Islamic biographies of women s lives that have been published in more recent years

Bibliography for After Jews and Arabs Ammiel Alcalay,2021 Ammiel Alcalay s groundbreaking work After Jews and Arabs published in 1993 redrew the geographic political cultural and emotional map of relations between Jews and Arabs in the Levantine Mediterranean world over a thousand year period Based on over a decade of research and fieldwork in many disciplines including history and historiography anthropology ethnography and ethnomusicology political economy and geography linguistics philosophy and the history of science and technology the book presented a radically different perspective than that presented by received opinion Given the radical and iconoclastic nature of Alcalay s perspective After Jews and Arabs met great resistance in attempts to publish it Though completed and already circulating in 1989 it didn t appear until 1993 In addition when the book was published there wasn t enough space to include its original bibliography a foundational part of the project A Bibliography for After Jews and Arabs presents the original bibliography as completed in 1992 without changes as a glimpse into the historical record of a unique scholarly political poetic and cultural journey The bibliography itself had roots in research begun in the late 1970s and demonstrates a very wide arc In addition to the bibliography we include two accompanying texts here In Behind the Scenes Before After Jews and Arabs Alcalay takes us behind the closed doors of the academic process reprinting the original readers reports and his detailed rebuttals and in On a Bibliography for After Jews and Arabs Alcalay contextualizes his own path to the work he undertook in methodological historical and political terms The Anchor Book of Modern Arabic Fiction Denys Johnson-Davies,2010-03-31 This

Conscience of the Nation Richard Jacquemond,2008 Artfully combining social and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary Egyptian authors from the 1952 Revolution to the present day Egypt s writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation At the same time modern Egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the European model As a result each Egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal With these fundamentals in mind Conscience of the Nation examines Egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in Egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader Novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society The Wiles of Men and Other Stories Salwá Bakr,1993-01-01 Here finally is some writing with a genuine purchase on things of worth The collection of pithy short stories filled with a sad wonder tells of contemporary Egyptians timorously rebelling against the conformism of life along the Nile Observer Bakr emerges as a fine observer of her country s times with a vision which remains for all its engagement quirky and distinctively personal Times Literary Supplement Set among the poor of contemporary Cairo these thirteen stories and one short novella tell of women struggling to provide themselves with the basic necessities of life They explore the limits of self awareness the pressures to conform and some of the strange paths to escape that women resort to in a conservative society shot through with social and sexual prejudice and preconceptions The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley,2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void
