Underground Project Case Histories E. Hoek, 2016-09-08 Surface and Underground Project Case Histories Military Leaders and Sacred Space in Classical Greek Warfare Sonya Nevin, 2016-11-10 The ancient Greeks attributed great importance to the sacred during war and campaigning as demonstrated from their earliest texts Among the first four lines of the Iliad for example is a declaration that Apollo began the feud between Achilles and Agamemnon and sent a plague upon the Greek army because its leader Agamemnon had mistreated Apollo's priest In this first in depth study of the attitude of military commanders towards holy ground Sonya Nevin addresses the customs and conduct of these leaders in relation to sanctuaries precincts shrines temples and sacral objects Focusing on a variety of Greek kings and captains the author shows how military leaders were expected to react to the sacred sites of their foes She further explores how they were likely to respond and how their responses shaped the way such generals were viewed by their communities by their troops by their enemies and also by those like Herodotus Thucydides and Xenophon who were writing their lives This is a groundbreaking study of the significance of the sacred in warfare and the wider culture of antiquity Domestic Space in

Eighteenth-Century British Novels Karen Lipsedge, 2012-09-28 Examining the work of three authors Richardson Haywood and Burney and their representation of domestic space this book argues that to make such spaces accessible to modern readers they need to have information of the real domestic By recreating specifics of these spaces this book innervates the fictional domestic interior for modern readers Women's Space Virginia Chieffo Raguin, Sarah Stanbury, 2006-01-01 This interdisciplinary collection addresses the location of women and their bequests within the single most important public and social space in pre Reformation Europe the Roman Catholic Church This innovative focus brings attention to gender and space as experienced in the medieval parish as well as in monastic and cathedral space Through provocative handling of historical content and theory the contributors explore strategies of exclusion and of inclusion and note patterns of later writers who neglect or rewrite records of female presence Essays on the York religious cycle the chronicle of the monastery at Ely and The Book of Margery Kempe explore how medieval writers used texts as fictive spaces on which to graft responses to the gendered uses of real church buildings These text based essays are juxtaposed with tightly focused archival research in art history and history on Florentine patronage and English parish seating as well as with more broadly synthetic studies on access of women to shrines and on gendered left right placement in ritual art
