Gordon, 2000-10-31 UPDATED 2019 EDITION The pioneering book that's guided millions of parents to more effectively resolve conflicts, communicate and create loving relationships with their children from Nobel Peace Prize nominee Dr. Thomas Gordon. P E T or Parent Effectiveness Training began in 1962 as the first national parent training program to teach parents how to communicate more effectively with kids and offer step by step advice to resolve family conflicts so everybody wins. This beloved classic is the most studied, highly praised and proven parenting program in the world and it will work for you. Now revised and updated, this groundbreaking guide will show you: How to avoid being a permissive parent; How to listen so kids will talk to you and talk so kids will listen to you; How to teach your children to own their problems and to solve them; How to apply the No Lose method to resolve conflicts; Using the timeless methods of P E T will have immediate results: less fighting, fewer tantrums and lies, no need for punishment. Whether you have a toddler striking out for independence or a teenager who has already started rebelling, you'll find P E T a compassionate, effective way to instill responsibility and create a nurturing family environment in which your child will thrive. PET Thomas Gordon, 1975 Parent Effectiveness Training Thomas Gordon, 1970 Provides parents with a method of handling the problems and conflicts that arise while raising children. Parent Effectiveness Training Thomas Gordon, 1973 Welcoming Children Joyce Ann Mercer, 2005-11-01 This book develops a theology of childhood both from a theoretical basis in biblical theology, especially the gospel of Mark, and practical experience in children and youth ministry. Mercer builds on classical theologians such as Augustine, Calvin, Barth, and Rahner, as well as modern feminist theologians such as Brock and Russell. She gains insights from pastoral theologians such as Capps and Couture and from contemporary cultural criticism. Mercer challenges approaches to educational and liturgical practices with children in congregations that segregate children from the rest of the church and its key practices of service, mission, worship, care, and learning. She reframes ministries with children as processes through which the church, as a community of practice, forms children into an alternative identity that resists surrounding consumerist culture and walks in the ways of Jesus. This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question: What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children's learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith? Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood, it explores five basic theological claims: 1. children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship; 2. welcoming those who welcome and care for children; 3. children as already fully human; 4. children as part of the purposes of God; and 5. acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children.
