Reflection of Memories Tessa Jones, 2017-07-21 Richard Malone and Caroline Sue

Miller are born on the same day to parents who live on opposite sides of the societal fences in a small coal mining town of western Pennsylvania. Despite the economic differences between their families, the two children become best friends and their unexpected friendship eventually blossoms into forbidden love. In order to be together and escape their bleak small town opportunities, they leave the security of their homes and settle in New Jersey where their future is a blank slate. As Richard and Caroline make their way through life, their choices often veer their love off course, but the bond they share has deep roots that continually pull them together again. This tale of family friendship and love incorporates the historical events and cultural changes of the tumultuous 1900s while following the course of one couple whose connection is stronger than class or circumstance. Whether you're sailing through youthful days or enjoying your golden years, Reflection of Memories will capture your heart and remind you of what is truly important in life. Love and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2021-12-07

Love and Other Stories 1922 is a collection of twenty-three stories by Russian writer Anton Chekhov. Recognized today as foundational for the development of the modern short story, Anton Chekhov has transcended Russian literature to become one of the most popular and acclaimed authors in history in any language. This collection showcases the author's unique talent for illuminating the intricacies of love and critiquing the values of social and political circles. In Love, an aging bachelor meets a beautiful young woman named Sasha, sending passionate letters and soon proposing to her. Despite signs of irreconcilable differences—namely Sasha's youthful innocence and childish disposition—he marries her and soon longs for the freedom of single life. A Country Cottage follows a young couple on a moonlit stroll in the vicinity of their humble home. Passing the local train station, they playfully discuss their plans for dinner while remarking on the beauty of the landscape. When a train passes through bearing a group of unexpected visitors, however, they find themselves torn between a longing for solitude and their tedious social obligations. In The Death of a Government Clerk, a low-level official accidentally sneezes on the person sitting in front of him during a theater performance, only to realize the man is a prominent General. Horrified, the clerk spends the next day attempting to atone for his mistake, only to enrage the man further. With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of Anton Chekhov's Love and Other Stories is a classic of Russian literature reimagined for modern readers. Conversations with Colum McCann Earl G. Ingersoll, Mary C.

Ingersoll, 2017-07-13 Conversations with Colum McCann brings together eighteen interviews with a world-renowned fiction writer. Ranging from his 1994 literary debut Fishing the Sloe Black River to a new and unpublished interview conducted in 2016, these interviews represent the development as well as the continuation of McCann's interests. The number and length of the later conversations attest to his star power. Let the Great World Spin earned him the National Book Award and promises to become a major motion picture. His most recent novel TransAtlantic has awed readers with its dynamic yoking of the 1845-1846 visit of Frederick Douglass to Ireland, the 1919 first nonstop transatlantic flight of Alcock and Brown, and Senator George Mitchell's 1998 efforts to achieve a peace accord in Northern Ireland. An extensive interview by scholar Cecile

Maudet is included here as is an interview by John Cusatis who wrote Understanding Colum McCann the first extensive critical analysis of McCann's work. An author who actually enjoys talking about his work, McCann's 1965 offers insights into his method of writing, what he hopes to achieve as well as the challenge of writing each novel to go beyond his accomplishments in the novel. Before Readers will note how many of his responses include stories in which he himself is the object of the humor and how often his remarks reveal insights into his character as a man who sees the grittiness of the urban landscape but never loses faith in the strength of ordinary people and their capacity to prevail. Typographical

Journal, 1915. A Black Philadelphia Reader Louis J. Parascandola, 2024-06-11. The relationship between the City of Brotherly Love and its Black residents has been complicated from the city's founding through the present day. A Black Philadelphia Reader traces this complex history in the words of Black writers who were native to, lived in, or had significant connections to the city. Featuring the works of famous authors including W. E. B. Du Bois, Harriet Jacobs, Sonia Sanchez, and John Edgar Wideman alongside lesser-known voices, this reader is an immersive and enriching composite portrait of the Black experience in Philadelphia. Through fiction and nonfiction, poetry and prose, readers witness episodes of racial prejudice and gender inequality in areas like public health, housing, education, policing, criminal justice, and public transportation. And yet amid these myriad challenges, the writers convey an enduring faith, a love of family and community, and a hope that Philadelphia will fulfill its promises to its Black citizens. Thoughtfully introduced and accompanied by notes that contextualize the works and aid readers' comprehension, this book will appeal to a wide audience of Philadelphians and other readers interested in American, African American, and urban studies. Play and Performance Carrie Lobman, Barbara E.

O'Neill, 2011-10-16. Play and Performance offers hope to those lamenting the loss of play in the twenty-first century and aims to broaden the understanding of what play is.
