Power And Community:

Community and Power Robert A. Nisbet, 1967 Community Power and Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2019-01-16

Aiken, Paul E. Mott, 1970 Peace and Power Peggy L. Chinn, 2013 Based on extensive experience in classrooms committees and workshops leading author and nurse educator Peggy Chinn illustrates how every participant in a group can be valued as a leader Chinn advocates for a more equitable group model by using cooperative processes and demonstrates how to overcome habits of exclusionary group interactions This hands on guide is the essential resource for faculty community groups and others seeking to promote greater integrity and cooperation in their groups and organizations Power, Community and the State Monique Nuijten, 2003-04-20 This book explores the balance of power between the state and local communities with particular reference to societies in the developing world Monique Nuijten shows how rituals of bureaucratic power and accusations of corruption give flesh to incredible fantasies and conspiracy theories among officials peasants and brokers At the same time she shows that in this labyrinthine world of bureaucratic obstacles and state control local agrarian communities manage to find certain room for autonomy Drawing on her extensive fieldwork in Mexico Nuijten draws wide conclusions that can be applied to many societies Providing a detailed ethnography she focuses on various themes including a theoretical anthropology of state power families and factionalism after agrarian reform local organisation questions of law corruption and development theory Community Power and Political Theory Nelson W. Polsby, 1980 Power, Community, and Racial Killing in East St. Louis M. McLaughlin, 2005-11-27 Malcolm McLaughlin s work presents a detailed analysis of the East St Louis race riot in 1917 offering new insights into the construction of white identity and racism He illuminates the world of East St Louis life in its factories and neighborhoods its popular culture and City Hall politics to place the race riot in the context of the city s urban development The Language of Faith in Southern Africa: Spirit World, Power, Community, Holism Hermen Kroesbergen, 2019-12-12 The aim of this book is to provide a way to do justice to an African language of faith In systematic theology anthropology and philosophy of religion similar debates about how to interpret an African language of faith are ongoing Trying to avoid the othering discourses of past generations scholars are careful to take seriously what people in Africa say without portraying people s beliefs as weird or backward Yet in their desperate attempts to avoid othering these theologians anthropologists and philosophers often painfully misconstrue the language of faith in Africa Understanding the language of faith in Southern Africa is not an easy task How should we take seriously the form of language that often seems so strange and different I argue that after African inculturation theology and black liberation theology a better way to make sense of being a Christian in Southern Africa is to pay close attention to people s language of faith The way in which people speak of the spirit world or powers in Africa appears strange to outsiders and the sense of community and the holistic worldview differentiates the African way of life from its Euro American counterparts When proper attention is paid to the use of concepts like spirit world power community and holism language of faith in Southern Africa is neither as strange as it may seem nor as romantic By investigating these distinguishing concepts that colour language of faith in Southern Africa this book contributes to future projects of both fellow theologians who try to construct a contemporary African theology and those who are interested in theology in Africa given the well known southward shift of the centre of gravity of Christianity
