The Effective Teaching of Religious Education Brenda Watson,Penny Thompson,2014-04-23 The Effective Teaching of Religious Education provides an accessible yet intellectually rigorous resource for all those involved in the teaching of RE in schools today Written with the needs of specialist and non specialist teachers in mind in both the primary and secondary sectors it successfully integrates theory and practice encouraging debate and reflection on a broad range of issues in what is often regarded as a complex and often controversial subject area The second edition has been written with the collaboration of a new co author Penny Thompson and has been thoroughly updated revised and extended to include A new chapter on the place of Christianity in RE New material on the purpose of RE and on the relationship of RE to other subjects A new Appendix on tackling assessment and syllabus requirements A new companion website at www.pearsoned.co.uk/watsonthompson including an overview of the use of ICT in RE teaching web links and practical resources for use in the classroom

Re-imagining Senior Secondary Religious Education William Sultmann,Janeen Lamb,Peter Ivers,Mark Craig,2023-02-28 This book examines and reports the findings regarding the level of satisfaction by students teachers and parents with an innovative senior secondary Religious Education curriculum Religion Meaning and Life RML The stimulus for RML is found in the changing profile of students within faith based schools and the motivation of school authorities to be inclusive and responsive to changing needs and priorities of students and families Curriculum practices typically mirror this continuing renewal as community expectations give rise to innovation in curriculum practice This concept of continuity and discontinuity is evidenced in the field of Religious Education which recognizes religious plurality while giving preference to an imagination centred on inclusion hospitality and respectful dialogue In this context new pathways are being explored as the reality and significance of Religious Education in faith based school remain a priority for Christian organizations in Australia Mindful of the diversity of expectations within the Catholic school the curriculum initiative of RML was developed supported and implemented The La Salle Academy of the Australian Catholic University reviewed this senior secondary curriculum across three years and presents in this book an independent evaluative report of the findings together with insights for implementation at scale and associated applications across Christian faith based institutions

Spiritual and Religious Education Mal Leicester,Sohan Modgil,2005-07-15 Volume V distinguishes religious and spiritual education and takes a multi faith approach to pedagogic curricular and resource issues The important area of collective worship is also addressed

Challenges for Religious Education Richard Pring, 2019-11-19 Major social changes especially as a result the more multicultural nature of society have raised important issues about the teaching of religion and the rational basis of different religious faiths Challenges for Religious Education addresses and critically examines these changes and asks where religious education and Faith Schools fit within secular society and indeed whether there is still a place for them at all Analysing what religious education could look like if it were considered from a wider world views perspective that doesn't focus on a particular set of religious beliefs this book considers the reasonableness of holding a faith and therefore in teaching it the ongoing tensions between faith and reason arguments for and against the study of religious education whether modern secular thought is itself an ideology and the philosophical standpoints on the relationship between faith and reason Linking faith and reason with the issue of whether religious education is truly necessary in a modern world Challenges for Religious Education is a crucial read for anyone interested in the future of religious education teaching in a secular society

Foundation Subjects and Religious Education in the Primary School Peter D. Pumfrey, Gajendra K. Verma, 2018-12-07 First published in 1993 This volume brings together writings of specialists in the key components of both the whole and the basic curriculum It sets out to describe and discuss cultural diversity and the whole curriculum from a variety of perspectives and to consider how the concerns of ethnic groups may be addressed within the framework of the national curriculum To this end specialists in areas of the curriculum consider some of the challenges and describe promising practices in the secondary school Much remains undecided concerning the structure content pedagogy and assessment of many components of the primary school curriculum Despite these considerations the multicultural nature of the population and of schools will develop These developments and their educational implications must be considered if the educational system is to respond adequately Although the rules of the curricular game are still being negotiated in relation to a number of aspects of the curriculum the editors have deliberately ventured into this controversial field They do so because of the increasing importance of ethnic diversity of the school population and of the country Critical Perspectives on Christian Education
