Housing, Homelessness, and Social Policy in the Urban North Julia Christensen, Sally Carraher, Travis Hedwig, Steven Arnfjord, 2024-01-31

Housing Homelessness and Social Policy in the Urban North brings together leading scholars on northern urban housing across the Canadian North Alaska and Greenland Through various case studies the contributors examine the ways in which housing insecurity and homelessness provide a critical lens on the social dimensions of northern urbanization They also present key considerations in the development of effective and sustainable social policy for these areas The book kickstarts a conversation between multiple stakeholders from different cultural and national regions across the North American north It asks key questions including these What are the common problems of and responses to housing insecurity and homelessness across these northern regions Is a single definition of homelessness even possible or desirable And if not can a shared language around how to end the housing crisis and homelessness in our northern regions still occur The contributors explore how experiences of northern towns and cities inform an overall understanding of urban forms and processes in the contemporary world and speak directly to the emerging body of literature on cities Highlighting key limitations to federal state and provincial policy

Housing Homelessness and Social Policy in the Urban North raises important implications for developing policy that is responsive to northern realities

Peace and Power Peggy L. Chinn, 2013 Based on extensive experience in classrooms committees and workshops leading author and nurse educator Peggy Chinn illustrates how every participant in a group can be valued as a leader Chinn advocates for a more equitable group model by using cooperative processes and demonstrates how to overcome habits of exclusionary group interactions This hands on guide is the essential resource for faculty community groups and others seeking to promote greater integrity and cooperation in their groups and organizations

Our House Gerry Smyth, Jo Croft, 2006 Space has emerged in recent years as a radical category in a range of related disciplines across the humanities Of the many possible applications of this new interest some of the most exciting and challenging have addressed the issue of domestic architecture and its function as a space for both the dramatisation and the negotiation of a cluster of highly salient issues concerning amongst other things belonging and exclusion fear and desire identity and difference

Our House is a cross disciplinary collection of essays taking as its focus both the prospect and the possibility of the house This latter term is taken in its broadest possible resonance encompassing everything from the great houses so beloved of nineteenth century English novelists to the caravans and mobile homes of the latterday travelling community and all points in between The essays are written by a combination of established and emerging scholars working in a variety of scholarly disciplines including literary criticism sociology cultural studies history popular music and architecture No specific school or theory predominates although the work of two key figures Gaston Bachelard and Martin Heidegger is engaged throughout

This collection engages with a number of key issues raised by the increasingly troubled relationship between the cultural built and natural environments in the contemporary world
