Mansueto,2010-04-07 No discipline has been more uniformly derided for a longer period than metaphysics Of the ancient and medieval sciences now in disrepute even astrology and alchemy get better press The most devastating and currently the most influential attack on metaphysics has come from a broad spectrum of thinkers including Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger Arendt Levinas Derrida and Milbank who have argued that metaphysics is the root of modern nihilism and totalitarianism Anthony Mansueto puts this claim to the test developing a historical sociology of metaphysics that analyzes the social basis and political valence of metaphysical systems Mansueto does this globally and cross culturally engaging not only the Hellenic tradition and its extension into medieval Christendom and Dar al Islam but also the Indian and Chinese traditions Specifically

Mansueto argues that far from representing the roots of nihilism or modern state terror metaphysics emerges and continues to be necessary as a way to ground meaning and value in societies especially in market societies in which these have become problematic Metaphysics tends to restrain exploitation and to encourage the redirection of surplus toward activities that promote development of human capacities Knowing God The Journey of the Dialectic concludes with an outline of a new dialectical metaphysics that reconciles a Buddhist metaphysics of interdependence in the Hua yen tradition with a historicized metaphysics of Esse yielding results that look startlingly like the dao xue or neo Confucianism of Song China Mansueto shows how such a metaphysics can ground meaning and value while answering postmodern concerns to safeguard difference

Two Reformers Caryn D. Riswold, 2007-07-15 By them we have been carried away out of our own land as into a

Babylonian captivity and despoiled of all our precious possessions Martin Luther 1520 Their goal is our deracination which is detachment from one's background as from homeland customs traditions Thus women and other Elemental creatures on this planet are rendered homeless cut off from knowledge of our Race's customs and traditions Mary Daly 1984 What is this land this world of which these two theologians are speaking Why do the two statements above sound similar in the authors longing for a true home for our own land And who is this them who carries us away and cuts us off Could it be possible that Martin Luther and Mary Daly different in almost every way are saying something similar Why do these key figures in the Christian theological tradition who come from different times places and politics engage in such a parallel task How is this possible This book examines a series of surprising parallels between two key reforming figures in the Christian theological tradition and suggests that the two are in fact engaged in the same task political theology Applying a new label to familiar theologians enables readers to see both of them as well as their reformations in a new light The sixteenth century Reformation and second wave feminism are viewed through the pioneering work of Luther and Daly here to further establish the political content and consequence of these theologians volume is a critical exploration of multiple posthuman possibilities in the 21st century and beyond Due to the global engagement with advanced technology we are witness to a species wise blurring of boundaries at the edge of the human On the one hand we find ourselves in a digital age in which human identity is being transformed through networked technological intervention a large part of our consciousness transferred to smart external devices On the other hand we are assisted or assailed by an unprecedented proliferation of quasi human substitutes and surrogates forming a spectrum of humanoids with fuzzy borders Under these conditions critical posthumanism asks who will occupy and control our planet Will the superhuman merely serve as another sign under which new regimes of dominance are spread across the earth Or can we discover or invent technologies of existence to counter such dominance It is issues such as these which are at the heart of this new volume of explorations of the posthuman The essays in this volume offer leading edge thought on the subject with special emphases on postmodern and postcolonial futures They engage with questions of subalternity and feminism vis vis posthumanism dealing with issues of subjugation dispensability and surrogacy as well as the possibilities of resistance ethical politics or subjective transformation from South Asian archives of cultural and spiritual practice This volume is a valuable addition to the on going global dialogues on posthumanism indispensable to those from across several disciplines who are interested in postcolonial and planetary futures

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection What It Was All About Steven H. Propp, 2015-12-07 The year is 1970 The Supreme Court has legalized abortion Equal Pay for Equal Work is now the law and Affirmative Action programs attempt to redress past injustices and inequities Women are coming together nationwide in consciousness raising groups sharing their knowledge and experiences with each other A group of six women in Stentoria California bond through such a group and support each other as women in this new Movement are forming collectives publishing their own books and periodicals creating an exciting new genre of Womens Music as well as starting their own bookstores to make these new materials readily available to the community New spiritual movements focused on the Divine Feminine principle are also beginning Even some men are sympathetic and supportive of these ideals But as the 1980s arrive the situation changes the backlash against the womens movement in politics and the media seemingly turns into a full fledged war specifically targeting the gains that women have achieved Opposition from traditional religions hardens and womens reproductive rights come under renewed attack the Equal Rights Amendment fails even as women themselves debate controversial questions such as banning pornography and how to view a rising Third Wave of the womens movement Ominously the threat of AIDS seemingly brings the era of sexual freedom to a close The six women deal with all these issues as well as personal challenges including balancing work and family responsibilities As the new century begins they reflect about what the womens movement ultimately accomplished In a world now characterized by growing economic inequality increasing low self esteem for some women exemplified by cosmetic surgery and extreme makeovers legalized same sex marriage and media attention to Transgender issues this book may help you to appreciate not only how far weve come but how far we have yet to go
