Quotable Writer:

The Quotable Guide to Punctuation Stephen Spector, 2017-10-10 This book makes punctuation more fun and easier to learn than traditional approaches do. It teaches the natural way by example; each lesson begins with quotes that exemplify good punctuation and sentence structure. Quotations are humorous and informative, drawn from the words of notable figures: Shakespeare, Mark Twain, Jerry Seinfeld, Taylor Swift, Beyoncé, Jennifer Lawrence, and many others. Short essays accompany each lesson, showing how each punctuation mark originated and how its use has altered over time. Correct punctuation is vital for clear, accurate, and natural writing. Anyone preparing a course assignment, applying for a job, or for college admission, or doing any other formal writing, needs to know the standard conventions of punctuation. Yet many people have never been taught how to punctuate. A necessary addition to any writer's bookshelf, this enjoyable book will teach readers to punctuate effectively and confidently through over 500 memorable quotes and clear explanations of the rules. Writing as Learning

Against Creative Writing Andrew Cowan,2022-09-13 The rise of Creative Writing has been accompanied from the start by two questions can it be taught and should it be taught This scepticism is sometimes shared even by those who teach it who often find themselves split between two contradictory identities the artistic and the academic Against Creative Writing explores the difference between writing which is what writers do and Creative Writing which is the instrumentalisation of what writers do Beginning with the question of whether writing can or ought to be taught it looks in turn at the justifications for BA MA and PhD courses and concludes with the divided role of the writer who teaches It argues in favour of Creative Writing as a form of hands on literary education at undergraduate level and a form of literary apprenticeship at graduate level especially in widening access to new voices It argues against those forms of Creative Writing that lose sight of literary values as seen in the proliferation of curricular couplings with non literary subjects or the increasing emphasis on developing skills for future employment Against Creative Writing written by a writer is addressed to other writers inside or outside the academy at undergraduate or graduate level whether creative or critical
