Vanderleeuw, 2007-10-15 Race Rules Electoral Politics in New Orleans 1965 2006 examines one of the innumerable ramifications of Hurricane Katrina a reversal in the decades long process of racial transition from white dominant to black dominant The electoral consequences of such a racial change in a city where race has historically played a pronounced social economic and political role are potentially dramatic In light of the 2006 New Orleans mayoral election the following emerges as a significant question Does a change in the population s racial composition mean a reversal in the political status of African Americans in New Orleans To address this question Liu and Vanderleeuw investigate racial voting patterns in New Orleans municipal elections over a forty year span from 1965 to 2006 Race Rules argues that as an enduring influence in urban politics race manifests as either electoral conflict or electoral accommodation but not as acceptance of the political empowerment of other race members Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations John Ishiyama, William J. Miller, Eszter Simon, 2015-02-27 With a focus on providing concrete teaching strategies for scholars the Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations blends both theory and practice in an accessible and clear manner In an effort to help faculty College Completion for Latino/a Students: Institutional and System Approaches Melissa L. Freeman, Magdalena Martinez, 2015-12-21 Latino as are the fastest growing demographic in the United States Despite recent gains in postsecondary enrollment the Latino a population is severely underrepresented when it comes to baccalaureate attainment Hispanic serving institutions HSIs will play a critical role in turning the tide but there is little existing research about these institutions This volume synthesizes Existing research on HSIs emerging HSIs as well as research about Latino a students themselves A wide range of best practices across institutional types and Examples of service to undocumented students in states where they do and do not qualify for in state tuition benefits Topics include Latino a undergraduate student success graduate student success community colleges four year institutions financial aid and undocumented students This is the 172nd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education Addressed to presidents vice presidents deans and other higher education decision makers on all kinds of campuses it provides timely information and authoritative advice about major issues and administrative problems confronting every institution Tierra Y Libertad Steven Bender, 2010-09-29 One of the quintessential goals of the American Dream is to own land and a home a place to raise one s family and prove one s prosperity Particularly for immigrant families home ownership is a way to assimilate into American culture and community However Latinos who make up the country s largest minority population have largely been unable to gain this level of inclusion Instead they are forced to cling to the fringes of property rights and ownership through overcrowded rentals transitory living arrangements and at best home acquisitions through subprime lenders In Tierra y Libertad Steven W Bender traces the history of Latinos struggle for adequate housing opportunities from the nineteenth century to today s anti immigrant policies and national mortgage crisis Spanning southwest to northeast rural to urban Bender analyzes the legal hurdles that prevent better housing opportunities and offers ways to approach sweeping legal reform Tierra y Libertad combines historical cultural legal and personal perspectives to document the Latino community s ongoing struggle to make America home

Political And Economic Determinants of Population Health and Well-Being: Vincente Navarro, Caries Muntaner, 2020-11-25 The field of social inequalities in health continues its vigorous growth in the early years of the 21st century This volume following in the footsteps of Vicente Navarro s edited collection The Political Economy of Social Inequalities is a compilation of recent contributions to the areas of social epidemiology health disparities health economics and health services research The overarching theme is to describe and explain the evergrowing health inequalities across social class race and gender as well as neighborhood city region country and continent The approach of this book is distinctly multi trans and interdisciplinary the fields of public health population health epidemiology economics sociology political science philosophy medicine and history are all represented here At the Core and in the Margins Julia Albarracín,2016-05-01 Beardstown and Monmouth Illinois two rural Midwestern towns have been transformed by immigration in the last three decades This book examines how Mexican immigrants who have made these towns their homes have integrated legally culturally and institutionally What accounts for the massive growth in the Mexican immigrant populations in these two small towns and what does the future hold for them Based on 260 surveys and 47 in depth interviews this study combines quantitative and qualitative research to explore the level and characteristics of immigrant incorporation in Beardstown and Monmouth It assesses the advancement of immigrants in the immigration residency citizenship process the immigrants level of cultural integration via language their connectedness with other members of society and their relationships with neighbors the degree and characteristics of discrimination against immigrants in these two towns and the extent to which immigrants participate in different social and political activities and trust government institutions Immigrants in new destinations are likely to be poorer to be less educated and to have weaker English language skills than immigrants in traditional destinations Studying how this population negotiates the obstacles to and opportunities for incorporation is crucial Vital Statistics of the United States ,1951 The Politics of Immigration in France, Britain, and the United States M. Schain,2008-11-10 This book argues that although labour market needs have been an important element in the development of immigration policy they have been filtered through a political process the politics of immigration The book explores the relation between policy and politics in France the UK and the US Theory and Method in Higher Education Research Jeroen Huisman,Malcolm Tight,2023-12-07 This volume of Theory and Method in Higher Education Research explores theories such as student development theory critical race theory applied to international students critical language theory and linguistic approaches to higher education research National Prisoner Statistics United States. Bureau of Prisons,1938 Multiracial Identity and Racial Politics in the United States Natalie Masuoka,2017 Policy makers academic administrators scholars and members of the public are clamoring for indicators of the value and reach of research The question of how to quantify the impact and importance of research and scholarly output from the publication of books and journal articles to the indexing of citations and tweets is a critical one in predicting innovation and in deciding what sorts of research is supported and whom is hired to carry it out There is a wide set of data and tools available for measuring research but they are often used in crude ways and each have their own limitations and internal logics Measuring Research What Everyone Needs to Know R will provide for the first time an accessible account of the methods used to gather and analyze data on research output and impact Following a brief history of scholarly communication and its measurement from traditional peer review to crowdsourced review on the social web the book will look at the classification of knowledge and academic disciplines the differences between citations and references the role of peer review national research evaluation exercises the tools used to measure research the many different types of measurement indicators and how to measure interdisciplinarity The book also addresses emerging issues within scholarly communication including whether or not measurement promotes a publish or perish culture fraud in research or citation cartels It will also look at the stakeholders behind these analytical tools the adverse effects of these quantifications and the future of research measurement
