Deconstructing Race Jabari Mahiri,2017 How do socially constructed concepts of race dominate and limit understandings and practices of multicultural education Since race is socially constructed how do we deconstruct it In this important book Mahiri argues that multicultural education needs to move beyond racial categories defined and sustained by the ideological social political and economic forces of white supremacy Exploring contemporary and historical scholarship on race the emergence of multiculturalism and the rise of the digital age the author investigates micro cultural practices and provides a compelling framework for understanding the diversity of individuals and groups Descriptions and analysis from ethnographic interviews reveal how people s continually evolving highly distinctive micro cultural identities and affinities provide understandings of diversity not captured within assigned racial categories Synthesizing the scholarship and interview findings the final chapter connects the play of micro cultures in people s lives to a needed shift in how multicultural education uses race to frame and comprehend diversity and identity and provides pedagogical examples of how this shift can look in teaching practices Jabari Mahiri s superb Deconstructing Race is the best modern book on multiculturalism in education More than that it can be the beginning of a vital transformation of the field and of our views about diversity James Paul Gee Mary Lou Fulton Presidential Professor of Literacy Studies Regents Professor Arizona State University Deconstructing Race provides a framework for a new American narrative on race based on irrefutable research and inspirational evidence Yvette Jackson chief executive officer of the National Urban Alliance for Effective Education Race Me in a Lobster Suit Kelly Mahon,2019-03-26 This collection of prank Craigslist ads and the real email exchanges that followed is hilarious good fun and the perfect gift for fans of offbeat humor Huffington Post When New York City copywriter Kelly Mahon started posting fake gig ads online as a creative outlet she was surprised to find that there was someone interested in every bizarre job offer she dreamed up Race Me in a Lobster Suit collects Mahon s funniest posts along with the improvised email exchanges with would be cocoon knitters and lobster racers Some correspondents became suspicious while others seemed willing to play along The result is good natured comedy gold and a kind of collaborative entertainment that could only exist in the internet gig economy Irreverent illustrations by cartoonist Graham Annable creator of the Harvey Award nominated Grickle comics ensure that this small book offers outsize laughs A quick hilarious read Race Me in a Lobster Suit is perfect for anyone who needs a bit of absurdity to brighten their day The Encyclopedia Americana

,1998 Ricardo's Race / La carrera de Ricardo Diane Gonzales Bertrand,2007-05-31 Ricardo Romo never dreamed that running to catch the school bus would lead to a college education and ultimately to a long and respected career as a teacher administrator and university president He grew up in San Antonio Texas the son of Mexican immigrants and worked in his family s small grocery store where he learned to work hard and respect his family and neighbors In school he learned that as a Latino he was expected to go to the technical high school rather than the one that prepared students for college yet his teachers and coaches encouraged him to pursue his studies They also fostered his natural athletic abilities as a runner In high school Ricardo set numerous records in track and cross country including the country s second fastest recorded mile at that time While still a sophomore he began to receive invitations from colleges and universities urging him to consider running for their schools Ultimately he went on to run for the University of Texas at Austin where he graduated with an undergraduate degree in history While injuries ended Ricardo s hopes of competing in the 1968 Olympics his educational dreams were achieved when he obtained a master s degree from California State University Northridge and a Ph D from the University of California at Los Angeles both in history Currently he is the president of the University of Texas at San Antonio A time line detailing Dr Romo s accomplishments as an athlete and a scholar is included Award winning author Diane Gonzales Bertrand presents an inspirational biography of this All American s quest to accomplish his goals With vivid realistic illustrations by Anthony Accardo emerging readers will be inspired to discover their own talents and chase their dreams

Computer Gaming World , The War on Critical Race Theory David Theo Goldberg,2023-04-03 Critical Race Theory is consuming conservative America The mounting attacks on a once obscure legal theory are upending public schooling legislating censorship driving elections and cleaving communities In this much needed response renowned scholar David Theo Goldberg cuts to the heart of the claims expressed in these attacks He punctures the demonization of Critical Race Theory uncovering who is orchestrating it funding the assault and eagerly distributing the message The book richly illustrates the enduring nature of structural racism even as a conservative insistence on colorblindness serves to silence the possibility of doing anything about it Crucially Goldberg exposes the political aims and effects of the vitriolic attacks The upshot of CRT s targeting he argues has been to unleash racisms anew and to stymie any attempt to fight them all with the aim of protecting white minority rule Also available as an audiobook
