

A large, diverse crowd of people is gathered for a protest. In the center, a white sign is held high, displaying the text "CANADA IS NOT IMMUNE TO RACISM". The word "NOT" is underlined with two red lines, and "RACISM" is written in large, bold, red capital letters. The crowd consists of people of various ages and ethnicities, many wearing face masks. of social scientists from geographic historical sociological and political science perspectives this volume offers new perspectives on the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada It has been approximately four centuries since the first Africans set foot in North America and although it is impossible for any text to capture the complete Black experience on the continent the persistent legacy of Black inequality and the winds of dramatic change are inseparable parts of the current African Diaspora experience In addition to comparing and contrasting the experiences and geographic patterns of the African Diaspora in the United States and Canada the book also explores important distinctions between the experiences of African Americans and those of more recent African and Afro Caribbean immigrants "Race," Rights and the Law in the Supreme Court of Canada James W.
