Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi,Michael Green,2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries

Zachary Ingle,David M. Sutura,2013 Non fiction films about sports have been around for decades yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries editors Zachary Ingle and David M Sutura have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity national religious ethnic and racial are constructed perpetuated or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States France Australia Germany and Japan Spanning several decades the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams The Endless Summer The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg Olympia and Tokyo Olympiad and address such subjects as baseball football basketball boxing soccer surfing and the Olympics HBO's Treme and Post-Katrina Catharsis Dominique Gendrin,Catherine

Dessinges,Shearon Roberts,2017-04-07 Ten years after Hurricane Katrina outsiders will have two versions of the Katrina experience One version will be the images they recall from news coverage of the aftermath The other will be the intimate portrayal of the determination of New Orleans residents to rebuild and recover their lives HBO s Treme offers outsiders an inside look into why New Orleanians refused to abandon a place that many questioned should not be rebuilt after the levees failed This critically acclaimed series expanded the boundaries of television making in its format plot casting use of music and realism in fictionalized TV However Treme is not just a story for the outside gaze on New Orleans It was a very local collaborative experience where the show s creators sought to enlist the city in a commemorative project Treme allowed many in the city who worked as principals extras and who tuned in as avid viewers to heal from the devastation of the disaster as they experimented with art imitating life imitating art This book examines the impact of HBO's Treme not just as television making but in the sense in which television provides a window to our worlds The book pulls together scholarship in media communications gender area studies political economy critical studies African American studies and music to explain why Treme was not just about television

timely and important project that changes our understanding of the role of abjection both in cultural politics and in the structure of film

Ewa Ziarek State University of New York at Buffalo Tina Chanter resolves a fundamental problem in film theory by negotiating a middle path between gaze theory approaches to film and spectator studies or cultural theory approaches that emphasize the position of the viewer and thereby take account of race class gender and sexuality Chanter argues that abjection is the unthought ground of fetishistic theories If the feminine has been the privileged excluded other of psychoanalytic theory fueled by the myth of castration and the logic of disavowal when fetishism is taken up by race theory or cultural theory the multiple and fluid registers of abjection are obscured By mobilizing a theory of abjection the book shows how the appeal to phallic fetishistic theories continues to reify the hegemonic categories of race class sexuality and gender as if they stood as self evident categories An intriguing read especially for those who favor psychological models of criticism in film theory Recommended Choice Action Chicks S. Inness,2004-01-16 Xena Buffy Lara Croft WWF The Sopranos Witchblade La Femme Nikita The women of pop culture are center stage and as tough as ever Action Chicks is a groundbreaking collection highlighting the heroines we've grown to worship What can they tell us about women in the Twentieth century What can they tell us about how popular culture depicts women Do the characters escape traditional gender role expectations Or do they adhere to sexual racial ethnic and class stereotypes The essays in Action Chicks provide fans with a new look at their favourite icons and their relationship to the popular media machine A fascinating collection that's bound to stir up some excitement Beginning film studies Andrew Dix,2016-05-01 Beginning film studies offers the ideal introduction to this vibrant subject Written accessibly and with verve it ranges across the key topics and manifold approaches to film studies Andrew Dix has thoroughly updated the first edition and this new volume includes new case studies overviews of recent developments in the discipline and up to the minute suggestions for further reading The book begins by considering some of film's formal features mise en scene editing and sound before moving outwards to narrative genre authorship stardom and ideology Later chapters on film industries and on film consumption where and how we watch movies assess the discipline's recent geographical turn The book references many film cultures including Hollywood Bollywood and contemporary Hong Kong Case studies cover such topics as sound in The Great Gatsby and narrative in Inception The superhero movie is studied so too is Jennifer Lawrence Beginning film studies is also interactive with readers enabled throughout to reflect critically upon the field Hollywood Speaks Out Robert L. Hilliard,2009-04-20 Hollywood Speaks Out explores that rare Hollywood feature that dared to tackle red hot social issues whilst American society was gripped by the convulsion and controversy they generated Explores why Hollywood has always been risk adverse and how most feature films deal with controversial issues long after the controversy is past Organized around such important issues as poverty racism sexism war anti-Semitism and homophobia Discusses the relevance and the impact of feature films from Modern Times to WALL E The Philosophy of Spike Lee Mark Conard,2011-07-22 Over his twenty plus year tenure in Hollywood Spike Lee has produced a number of controversial films that unapologetically confront sensitive social issues particularly those of race relations and discrimination Through his honest portrayals of life s social obstacles he challenges the public to reflect on the world s problems and divisions The innovative director created a name for himself with feature films such as Do the Right Thing 1989 and Malcolm X 1992 and with documentaries such as 4 Little Girls 1997 and When the Levees Broke 2006 breaking with Hollywood s reliance on cultural stereotypes to portray African Americans in a more realistic light The director continues to produce poignant films that address some of modern society s most important historical movements and events In The Philosophy of Spike Lee editor Mark T Conard and an impressive list of contributors delve into the rich philosophy behind this filmmaker s extensive work Not only do they analyze the major themes of race and discrimination that permeate Lee s productions but also examine other philosophical ideas that are found in his films ideas such as the nature of time transcendence moral motivation self constitution and justice The authors specialize in a variety of academic disciplines that range from African American Studies to literary and cultural criticism and Philosophy

Navigating Interracial Borders Erica Chito Childs,2005-05-24 One of the best books written about interracial relationships to date Childs offers a sophisticated and insightful analysis of the social and ideological context of black white interracial relationships Heather Dalmage author Tripping on the Color Line A pioneering project that thoroughly analyzes interracial marriage in contemporary America Eduardo Bonilla Silva author of Racism without Racists Color Blind Racism and the Persistence of Racial Inequality in the United States Is love color blind or at least becoming increasingly so Today s popular rhetoric and evidence of more interracial couples than ever might suggest that it is But is it the idea of racially mixed relationships that we are growing to accept or is it the reality What is the actual experience of individuals in these partnerships as they navigate their way through public spheres and intermingle in small close knit communities In Navigating Interracial Borders Erica Chito Childs explores the social worlds of black white interracial couples and examines the ways that collective attitudes shape private relationships Drawing on personal accounts in depth interviews focus group responses and cultural analysis of media sources she provides compelling evidence that sizable opposition still exists toward black white unions Disapproval is merely being expressed in more subtle color blind terms Childs reveals that frequently the same individuals who attest in surveys that they approve of interracial dating will also list various reasons why they and their families wouldn't should and couldn't marry someone of another race Even college students who are heralded as racially tolerant and open minded do not view interracial couples as acceptable when those partnerships move beyond the point of casual dating Popular films Internet images and pornography also continue to reinforce the idea that sexual relations between blacks and whites are deviant Well researched candidly written and enriched with personal narratives Navigating Interracial Borders offers important new insights into the still fraught racial hierarchies of contemporary society in the United States Screens Fade to Black David J.

Leonard, 2006-06-30 The triple crown of Oscars awarded to Denzel Washington Halle Berry and Sidney Poitier on a single evening in 2002 seemed to mark a turning point for African Americans in cinema Certainly it was hyped as such by the media eager to overlook the nuances of this sudden embrace In this new study author David Leonard uses this event as a jumping off point from which to discuss the current state of African American cinema and the various genres that currently compose it Looking at such recent films as Love and Basketball Antwone Fisher Training Day and the two Barbershop films all of which were directed by black artists and most of which starred and were written by blacks as well Leonard examines the issues of representation and opportunity in contemporary cinema In many cases these films which walk a line between confronting racial stereotypes and trafficking in them made a great deal of money while hardly playing to white audiences at all By examining the ways in which they address the American Dream racial progress racial difference blackness whiteness class capitalism and a host of other issues Leonard shows that while certainly there are differences between the grotesque images of years past and those that define today's era the consistency of images across genre and time reflects the lasting power of racism as well as the black community's response to it Home Movies Claire Jenkins, 2015-04-06 The American family has long been at the centre of the typical Hollywood narrative But the depiction of the nuclear family within contemporary mainstream US cinema has not yet been closely studied Home Movies addresses this oversight by assessing recent cinematic representations of the family in terms of cultural politics and representations of gender sexuality race and class Focusing on a diverse range of popular films from Meet the Parents to The Incredibles Claire Jenkins analyses the father daughter relationship within sequels and series Meryl Streep's embodiment of the mother the superhero family and extraordinary manifestations of the ordinary family disaster films which depict the president as father mom coms and Hollywood's representations of the non traditional family She combines film studies gender studies and family history to demonstrate the complexities of Hollywood s family values Exploring Race in Predominantly White Classrooms George Yancy, Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, 2014-02-18 Although multicultural education has made significant gains in recent years with many courses specifically devoted to the topic in both undergraduate and graduate education programs and more scholars of color teaching in these programs these victories bring with them a number of pedagogic dilemmas Most students in these programs are not themselves students of color meaning the topics and the faculty teaching them are often faced with groups of students whose backgrounds and perspectives may be decidedly different even hostile to multicultural pedagogy and curriculum This edited collection brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars of color to critically examine what it is like to explore race in predominantly white classrooms It delves into the challenges academics face while dealing with the wide range of responses from both White students and students of color and provides a powerful overview of how teachers of color highlight the continued importance and existence of race and racism Exploring Race in Predominately White Classrooms is an essential resource for any educator interested in exploring race within the context of today s classrooms

Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy, 2016-01-11 Winner of the 29th annual Lambda Literary Award for LGBT Studies All museums are sex museums In Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy takes a hard look at the formation of Western sexuality particularly how categories of sexual normalcy and perversity are formed and asks what role museums have played in using display as a technique for disciplining sexuality Most museum exhibits she argues assume that white patriarchal heterosexuality and traditional structures of intimacy gender and race represent national sexual culture for their visitors Sex Museums illuminates the history of such heteronormativity at most museums and proposes alternative approaches for the future of public display projects while also offering the reader curatorial tactics what she calls queer curatorship for exhibiting diverse sexualities in the twenty first century Tyburczy shows museums to be sites of culture war theatrics where dramatic civic struggles over how sex relates to public space genealogies of taste and beauty and performances of sexual identity are staged Delving into the history of erotic artifacts she analyzes how museums have historically approached the collection and display of the material culture of sex which poses complex moral political and logistical dilemmas for the Western museum Sex Museums unpacks the history of the museum and its intersections with the history of sexuality to argue that the Western museum context from its inception to the present marks a pivotal site in the construction of modern sexual subjectivity
